FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

SYNOPSIS OF PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—SPEAKER—On motion the bill to amend the act which authorizes the construction of the North Carolina railroad—head which constitutes a link in the old "North Carolina system"—old, because it has been dead and laid away ever since the lease of the North Carolina Railroad proper. Those who have been engaged in trying to discover Mr. Best's purposes are more completely baffled than ever before.

After some unimportant routine business, the Senate proceeded to consider the calendar, the unfinished business being a bill of Maxey, of Texas, to authorize a retired list of non-commissioned army officers of thirty years service. The bill was advocated by Maxey, Logan, Hampton and Burdick and opposed by Beck.

At the expiration of the morning hour the bill went over without action and the Senate resumed the consideration of the bill ratifying the Ute Indian agreement, in support of which Pendleton spoke at length. Remarks with regard to the Ute were also made by Morgan, Teller and Hill. At 4:30, without action on the bill, the Senate went into executive session, and when the doors were re-opened adjourned.

A GRAVE CHARGE.

Preferred Against a Prominent Merchant of Columbia.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 8.—Considerable sensation was created here today by the arrest of Peter B. Glass, at one time a prominent merchant of this city, on an alleged assault upon a white girl about 13 years of age. The leading feature before the trial justice shows that the girl was enticed into the house of the accused upon an invitation to accept some flowers, and that the assault was then committed upon her. She reported the facts to her mother who instituted proceedings against the assailant. Glass was arrested and gave bond for five hundred dollars to appear at the next term of the General Sessions to answer the charge of indecent assault.
