Marriage in Lincolnton.

Mr. Stephen Smith and bride, Miss Mamie Phifer, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon. They were married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. John F. Phifer, of Lincolnton, yesterday at 12 o'clock, by Rev. R. Z. Johnston, only the immediate family and a few friends having been invited to witness the ceremony. The marriage was an event in Lincolnton society, the bride being one of the most accomplished and popular young ladies in that town. She also has many friends and acquaintances in this city, a number of whom called at the Central' Hotel last evening to extend their con-gratulations. The young couple left on the 12.30 train for the home of the groom, in Livingston, Ala.

Petitions for Commutation.

George Galloway, colored, was convicted at the late term of the Superior Court of the crime of killing his wife's child, and is to hang on the 7th of May with Henry Horne, colored, convicted at the same term of burglary. It is understood that a strong effort will be made at an early day to induce the Gov-ernor to commute Galloway's sentence to imprisonment for life, on the ground of a doubt as to whether or not the child was alive when born. It is said that a petition has also been written and sent out for Horne's commutation. The C. M. Another Name Brought Forward. To the Editor of The Observer:

In noticing the various suggestions that have been put forward through our daily press as to the nomination of a fit and proper person to fill the office of mayor at the coming municipal election, it has been a matter of surprise to a great number of citizens that the name of Morehead should have escaped State, whose business capacity is unimpeached, a man of large property, of acknowledged integrity, and one whose daily avocations would not interfere with a strict attention to the welfare and good government of our city.

With all due deference to those gentlemen who have already declared, and Col. Frank Coxe, whose name has been mentioned, we would say in the words of the immortal Dickens "While we remember that Muggleton can boast of a Dumpkins and a Podder, have we not a Duffey and a Struggles." And we think that Col. John L. Morehead has sufficient claim upon this city to warrant his name being placed in the foremost row, and accordingly we beg to suggest him as a most eligible candi-

This is probably one of the "omissions" that he spoke of, if he may call a failure by that name. The opinion of the intelligent colored men of Charlotte is that some of their representatives should be placed on the roll of honor, even if it be the tail end of it, with their white foreign born brethren, therefore please allow a word from an humble subscriber, who, while the question is before the people, desires to call attention to the fact that we have many colored men among us of prominence, who are "foreign" born.

First among the most prominent divines, we have Bishop Thomas Lomax, of the A. M. E. Z. Church, a gentleman widely known as a minister, and whose labors extend throughout the Northwest and Canada. He is a netive of the course, and other rollings, and other rollings, and other rollings, and other rollings, sall locomotive engines, tenders, cars, coaches, and other rollings stock and equipments, all shops, all locomotive engines, tenders, cars, coaches, and other rolling stock and equipments, all es, and other rolling stock and equipments, all stationary engines, machinery, tools, implements, fuel, and materials of all kinds, and all the corporate franchises. rights, and privileges, of The Carolina Central Railway Company; also all the shares of the capital stock of the Wilmington Railway Bridge Company held and owned by the said Carolina Central Railway Company, and all the right, title, and interest, which the said company has and owns in and to the stock and property of the Wilmington Railway Bridge Company, as one of the corporators thereof; and also all other the property and estate, real and personal, of every kind and description, of the said Carolina Central Railway Company.
