HOME PENCILINGS

The Gounod Club meets to-night at the residence of Mr. W. C. Morgan.

The inspection of the Charlotte Blues has been postponed until tomorrow morning.

The little Primrose left yesterday morning for Greensboro, where they were to have appeared last night.

Rev. F. M. Jordan, a well known Baptist minister of this State, will preach at the Baptist church to-night.

The register of deeds has received 200 copies of the revised Mecklenburg road law, and he desires the magistrates throughout the county to call and get them.

The morning Richmond & Danville passenger train, due here at 11:30, was about an hour behind yesterday, owing to a bad case on a locomotive the other side of Greensboro.

The Harmonic Circle will give a hop to-night complimentary to Mr. L. Berwanger and Miss Hanna Frankenthal.

The committee of arrangement is Capt. J. Roessler and Mr. Luen Berwanger, and the floor managers are Messrs. Julius Schiff and Henry Morris.

The Pullman sleeper while being transferred yesterday evening from the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad to the Richmond & Danville, got two wheels off the track, but it was hoisted back in about five minutes causing no appreciable delay.

Complimentary Serenade.

The Grays, accompanied by the Charlotte Cornet Band, night before last, tendered Miss Bernst in a complimentary serenade.

Miss Bernst, who is the champion of Lieut. Hand, of the Grays, in the voting of the sword to the most popular officer of the Charlotte military companies at the late festival of the Hebrew Ladies' Aid Society, in which Lieut. Hand was successful, and to her popular advocacy the result was in a great measure due.

Bible Reading This Evening.

The Young Men's Christian Association met last night and were addressed by Mr. Thos. C. Cree, traveling secretary of the national executive committee.

He stated that he intended remaining in North Carolina for some time, visiting the different associations; spoke of the progress of the work in the South, new methods and openings, &c. The meeting was entirely informal. Mr. Cree will this evening conduct a meeting in the First Baptist church at 8 o'clock. There will be Bible reading and a brief talk on association work. Good singing may be expected. The meeting will be public and all are invited to attend.

Meeting of the Colored Voters of the Second Ward.

The colored voters of the second ward met last night to nominate candidates for aldermen. There seemed to be a division of sentiment as to whether a straight-out colored ticket should be nominated. Six names were put in nomination, all colored men except Col. John L. Brown, but a vote for three colored men, Wm. H. ...

Meeting to-night for the Celebration of the 20th of May.

When the court house bell rings to-night, get right up and go to the meeting of the citizens to make preparation for the 20th of May. The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock sharp. Business of importance is to be transacted, and a full meeting is earnestly desired. It is full time something was done, and it is better to do it now than to leave it to the hands of the less probable will there be for a big celebration of the day. Certainly the citizens should not leave all the preparations to be made by military and fire companies, yet theirs has been the only public so far taken. Desiderata of the signers are particularly desired to come out.

The Continentals Again.

It is understood that the continental brigade which left for an attractive feature of the last 20th of May celebration is to be reorganized this year and already the matter has been freely discussed by those who took a leading part in it last year. It is said that Gen. Wm. H. ...

The Joint Excursion.

The 6th of May has been fixed as the time for the joint excursion of the Baptist Church and the Next Rifleman, and it has been decided to go to Greenville. Arrangements will be made for as many of the party as may wish to do so to remain in Greenville all night, and returning, leaving there early in the morning. The excursion being the first of the season, and given under such favorable auspices, cannot fail to be a most successful and pleasant one. All the details cannot yet be given, but the public may rest assured that nothing will be lacking in an excellent management can devise for the accommodation and amusement of all who choose to go.

Marriage.

Mr. A. C. Williams and Miss Laura R. Mills were married at Christ Church, Greenville, South Carolina, this morning at 8:30 o'clock. The groom is a young, young gentleman of the name of Frank Cox, of this city, and has many friends and acquaintances here. They left Greenville yesterday morning for a bridal tour.

Cheaper Than Physicians' Bills.

"A Thing of Beauty is a Joy Forever." It is something prepared for woman only, and used by her exclusively. It is adapted especially to cases where the hair is thinning, or where there are irregularities of the "monthly courses," by restoring the discharge, whether acute or chronic.

Col. Waddell and Maj. Stedman.

To the Editor of The Observer: The Charlotte Democrat in a late issue states that in the primary elections in this (New Hanover) county, Maj. Stedman got "almost a unanimous vote" over Col. Waddell. Now while we admit that New Hanover has declared for Maj. Stedman, we think it unjust to say that it was in a "unanimous" vote.

For Aldermen.

To the Editor of The Observer: Permit us through the columns of your paper to suggest the names of C. Soot, Josiah Asbury and R. M. Miller as suitable candidates for aldermen in Ward No. 1.

"A FOOL'S ERRAND."

What a Southerner Thinks of Judge Reynolds' Book.

To the Editor of The Observer: I have just finished reading "A Fool's Errand," a well known this book is the work of Alton W. Tourgee, late a lawyer and carpet-bagger in Georgia. Perhaps of all carpet-baggers he was most cordially hated by our people, and was rightly or wrongly regarded by us as a racial pariah.

Be this as it may, he has written a book of uncommon power and freshness. It contains some very racy dialogue, and some very vivid and graphic description. But the main charm of the book to me has been the power and skill with which the author has described Southern characteristics. He has caught all the peculiarities of Southern feeling. He has seen, as though brought up among us, all that is essentially Southern in the different types of Southern character.

ANNOUNCEMENTS OF CANDIDATES.

A Card from F. S. DeWolfe.

FELLOW-CITIZENS: I am a candidate for Mayor of your city at the approaching election. I am not in the "manner born" but sixteen years of busy life spent in industry and will enable you to judge of my fitness for the office.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Having determined to appear before the people of Charlotte again as a candidate for Mayor, I accept the nomination tendered through your paper this morning, and return my thanks for the complimentary expressions contained in the communication of April 18th, 1880.
