"God has not breathed the breath of life into the nostrils of the man, or set of men, who can again thwart and defeat the fairly and legally expressed will of this people—mark that!"—Hon.
W. H. ENGLISH, OF INDIANA, IN NEW YORK HERALD.

THE CITY ELECTION-DUTY OF DEMOCRATS.

Catch words-this they may be called for lack of a better term-in a public convention, enable us to read between the lines of the resolutions that may be adopted the real purposes of those who vote for them. The utterances of the speakers often reveal the secret which the avowed action of the meeting is intended to cloak.

At the convention of the Republican voters of the city, night before last, one of the speakers walked up in front of the chairman and demanded to know "what this convention is called for, anyhow." The reply was, "To strengthen the Republican party for the presidential election." Another speaker advised that no nomination be made, and significantly added, "it will all come out right; there will come a time when we shall be rewarded." "You mean in the presidential election," ejaculated the chairman, and there was cheering.

It does not require any special gifts of penetration, therefore, to discover that the Republicans, imagining they see in the present crisis of affairs in the own use, wooden stills. Adopted. city, an opportunity of doing some good work for the party, have resolved to make a sharp, shrewd fight. They made when he said, "if we nominate a man, fearing to make a straight-out fight, they expect, in the event of success, to cry out "Republican victory;" in case of defeat, they can say, "we made no nomi-

the bill could not come up until Friday The Speaker proceeded to call committees for report. Blackburn, from the committee on appropriations, reported the post office appropriations bill, which was ordered to be printed and recommitted. The bill recommends an appropriation of $38,600,000. Blackburn gave notice that he would call it up for consideration Tuesday next.

The House then at 1:55 went into committee of the whole, Thompson, of Kentucky, in the chair, on the bill amending the internal revenue laws, the pending amendment being that offered by McKenzie, of Kentucky, providing that producers of leaf tobacco shall be allowed without payment of tax to sell leaf tobacco to other than licensed dealers, manufacturers or exporters, provided they do not sell exceeding $10,000 worth in any one year. Ruled out on a point of order.

Noftsinger and his victim were rival suitors off the prize so enraged Noftsinger that he murdered him in his bed. About 10,000 people witnessed the execution. When Noftsinger had mounted the scaffold and the knot was about to be adjusted, he said:

'Fellow-citizens: If you think I ought to die, I am willing. I do not thank Gov. Roberts in my case, though he was honest in his convictions. Judge Carroll promised to recommend my commutation. You all know how he used me. If Gov. Roberts wants me to die I am ready. Friends and all, good-bye. hope to meet you all in a better world. The "Rock of Ages" was then sung, after which prayer was offered. At 1:30 Noftsinger bade the sheriff good-bye and stepped on the drop, which carried him six feet. In half an hour the body was taken down and given to his father to be sent home to Virginia.

OFFICE OF A S. GILES, ORDINARY, HOUSTON COUNTY, PERRY, GA., Jan. 28, 1880. In the year 1863, there were two negro prisoners confined in the jail of this county, who were very badly afflicted with that loathsome disease Syphillis. In my official capacity as Ordinary, I employed Capt. C. T. Swift, then a resident of this place, to cure them, under a contract "no cure, no pay." He administered to them his now justly celebrated Syphilitic specific, and in a few weeks I felt bound, under my contract, to pay him out of the county treasury, as he had effected a | Seal | unto set my official at a have herecomplete and radical cure. unto set my official signature and seal

ELECTION NOTICE. BEDDING, &C.

By virtue of a resolution passed at a late meet ing of the Board of Aldermen of the city of Char-lotte, I am authorized to advertise that there will be an election by ballot, held in the city on the first Monday in June, A. D., 1880, at the usual polling places, to ascertain the sense of the qualified voters, on the question of establishing and maintaining by taxation in the city, public graded schools. I am further authorized to state that the maximum rate of taxation shall be one-tenth of one per cent. one per cent. or ten cents on every one hundred dollars worth of property in the city, and thirty cents on each poll. At the time designated for the aforesaid election, there shall be elected by ballot two school commissioners from each ward. There will be new registration books opened on the first day of April, A. D. 1880, and the same shall be kept open until sundown on the Saturday previous to said election. I do hereby appoint as registrars and inspectors for said election, for
