No Love Like the Old Love.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead He loves not new-baked ginger bread? Who, stepping through the kitchen door,

Who, stepping through the kitchen door, On baking day, sees goodly store Of fragrant, umber-shadowed cake, And—nalf unconscious—does not break A ragged chunk? Ah! toothsome bliss; He is a churi who knows not this. For him, no practised dexter wrist Shall limp, incipient doughnuts twist; Or stir, to coax his gourmand taste, Dreamy meringue and fiaky paste. Though he may live on Nob hill's tip, And hold his gold with miser's grip—Taough he may own the whole long list of vinther's board, by cobwebs kissed—May dine from Sevres, drive a "cart," And sit on "decorative art"—Despite his gastronomic books, Despite his white-capped Gallic cooks, The wretch cohesnired in his prade, Shall live and eat—unsatisfied; And when kind Providence—or gout—Shall snuff his farthing rushlight out, The stern recorder of the skies Against the tombstone's gilded lies (Counting the virtues of the death) Shall write: "He loved not gingerbread!"

It relieves one of the suspicion that whales are becoming numerous on the prairies, or that they are infesting the woods or hiding in caves in the mountains. People now know where to be on the lookout for whales.

For Superintendent of Public Instruc-

To the Editor of The Observer: As nominations seem in order, we would call attention to our countyman, Capt. Wm. L. Twitty, as one eminently suited to fill the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction. He is a graduate of the State University, of the class of 1858, with Judge J. A. Gilmer, Hon. John Sloan and Col. J. T.

"This, Holister said, he had intended to send as a disputable to the Associated." the class of 1858, with Judge J. A. Gilmer, Hon. John Sloan and Col. J. T. Moorehead, of Greensboro, Gen. R. D. Johnston, Col. H. C. Jones and Maj. C. Dowd, of Charlotte, Capt. S. B. Alexander, of Mecklenburg, and many other prominent men of the State, who know him to be a high-toned Christian gentleman, and whose attainments in learning are not surpassed by any other in the State. Capt. Twitty has been engaged in teaching nearly all of his life, since manhood, and feels as great an interest in education as does perhaps any other man in North Carolina. This position would be one congenial to his feelings, and his ripe scholarship gives him a peculiar fitness for the position, and we believe his nomination and election would give pleasure to his numerous friends throughout the State, and that his name would give strength to the ticket, as well as bring honor to the party that elects him. This is written without his approval, as the captain is altogether too modest a man to permit his name to be put forward for any position, which fact in these days of office-seeking is an additional merit.

A Moticespie Pifference.

A smart young man asked a gentle-man from Cape Cod: "What's the difference between you and a clam? thinking that the Cape Codger would say he didn't know, and then the young man would pity him for not being able to see any difference between himself and a clam, but the thing didn't work. The Codger took the young man and brushed a path across the street with him, and then, after crowding him into an empty fish barrel and yanking him out again, said: "A clam wouldn't be playing with you this way. That's the difference 'twixt me an' a clam!" The young man had no more questions to

WIPED OUT BY A TIDAL WAVE.

An Extraordinary Bogus Dispatch

That its Author Never Sent. Recently a telegraph operator named Themas Holister was arrested in San Francisco by a Chicago detective. Holister had formed a plot to cut the telegraph-wires uniting New York and San Francisco, and then send East a dispatch, dated at some station in the Sierras, saying that a tidal wave, followed by an earthquake, had destroyed San Francisco and Virginia City. The object of the plot was to cause a panic in Pacific Mail stock and Comstock securities in the New York market, the panic to be taken advantage of by confederates.

The New York Sun says: "For several months the Western Union knew that wires were being tampered with, and they sent for the Chicago detective. He travelled along the line for several weeks, and finally came to a clue at a spot a few miles east of Battle Mountain. At this spot the wire had been cut, and a piece that could readily be disconnected had been let in. The detective further found an insulated wire concealed in the grass and sage-bush near by. An end of it long enough to reach the main line was coiled up. The wire ran north, and the detective, following it for a mile, came upon an excavation in the ground, which was roofed in with branches and turf, and which contained, buried in one corner, several Leyden jars, strips of copper and bottles of acid. The detective concealed himself near by and watched the place for several days, but without re-

"One day at Battle Mountain he saw in a newspaper an occount of the arrest for a breach of the peace of a telegraph operator whom he had known in Chicago. The detective, from what he knew of the man, was prompted to go to San Francisco and look after him. He visited Holister's room, and there found what confirmed his suspicions that it was Holister who had tampered with the Western Union wires. Holister was arrested, and made confession. In his room was found the following, written upon a piece of foolscap pa-

An Indianapolis merchant says that General Grant said to him at Galena; "Itell you that I will be nominated at Chicago, and if I am nominated, I shall be elected, too." Mrs. Grant seems to be equally interested, judging from the few remarks she has dropped from time to time, while the devotion of Prince Fred may be taken for granted.
