Miscellaneous.

The Raleigh News' New York correspondent says Dr. Chas. Phillips, who has been in New York for some time, is improving in health.

Four hundred and twenty-seven confirmations were made during the past year by Bishop Atkinson and his assistant, Rt. Rev. T. B. Lyman.

The New Hanover congressional delegation left Wilmington Tuesday for the Fayetteville convention, forgetting to take their credentials with them.

Raleigh News: Mrs. Sarah Leigh

Hogg, aged 81 years, died in Raleigh last Monday. Having no children of her own, during her life time she adopted and reared ten children, of whom six were orphans.

Patriot: Henry O. Schofield, a prominent retired merchant of Lynchburg, Va., was last Monday found dead in bed at the residence of Prof. J. T. Humphreys. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict of death from natural causes.

The Supreme Court will meet next Monday. The two first days of the term will be devoted to the examination of candidates to practice law.

The names of eleven candidates have already been registered with the clerk of the court.

Raleigh Observer: A dispatch from

Gen. M. W. Ransom, who is the member of the national executive committee from North Carolina, informs us that he is now negotiating for rooms at Cincinnati for the North Carolina delegation. Gentlemen who propose to attend will please take notice.

At the commencement exercises of Peace Institute, Raleigh, last Monday evening, certificates were awarded to the graduating class, which was composed of the following: Misses Eliza W. K. Johnson, Mrs. McColl, Fannie J. Baker, Nannie H. Burwell, Linda L.
Rumple, Bettie K. Parker, Georgia Johnson, Mary S. Long, Rosa A. Penick.

Gen. Johnstone Jones, whose name has been mentioned by the State press in connection with the office of auditor, publishes the following card in the Raleigh Observer: "I thank you sincerely for the compliment and for your kind words, but I really do not desire the office, and trust that my name will not be presented by my friends for the position in the State convention."

The Raleigh News says Charles N.
Oley died in Washington Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in his 30th year.
He was a young colored man of high character and of great promise. He graduated at Howard University quite recently, since which time he has been engaged as an assistant professor in the same institution. He has recently been connected editorially with a paper in Washington called the Argus.

Raleigh News: One of our oldest and most respected citizens has gone to the grave. Dr. Fabius J. Haywood died on Sunday last, after a long illness, at the residence of his son-in-law, Hon.
Daniel C. Fowle. Dr. Haywood was born in Raleigh in the year 1801. He graduated at the University of North Carolina in the year 1825; and in 1827 he graduated at the University of Pennsylvania as a doctor of medicine.
He entered at once on his practice in Raleigh, and was remarkably successful in his profession. For the last four or five years his infirmities were such as to forbid him to engage actively in his duties.

New York correspondence Raleigh News: "I have just received from Alexandria, Egypt, two very beautiful paintings by Mrs. Victor O. Bar-ranger, of North Carolina, who has, I am told, devoted considerable time to her pencil since her residence of six or seven years in that ancient city. One of them is a view of the Obelisk, or Cleopatra's needle, which has just been shipped there for this city, and may reach here in the course of four or five weeks. The companion picture is a view of a Bedouin's camp, as seen by Mrs. Barranger, four miles from Alexandria. And, writing of art, I may mention that there was an exhibition, on Thursday evening, at the Cooper Institute, of paintings, drawings, and statuary, the work of two very beautiful gentlemen who are pursuing their professional studies in that Institute, where, I believe, gratuitous instruction by capable masters is open to all comers. Among the contributors I have the pleasure of mentioning Miss Kellie, of Hillsboro, and Miss Long, of Randolph, who had presented me with a ticket."

A Remarkable Youth.
Wilmington Star.
We were favored with a visit yesterday from Annie Darden, son of Mr.
Robert J. Darden, of Wilson county, N. C. This young man was seven years old last November, weighs one hundred pounds, is a large, stout boy, and sports quite a moustache. He was accompanied by his mother, and is a specimen of a North Carolina boy that would "take the premium" anywhere.
