FOR CONGRESS:

CLEMENT DOWD,

OF MECKLENBURG.

THE DEMOCRACY. We desire to substitute the name of Horatio Seymour for the name of Senator Bayard, in the following article from the New York Herald, and with this change to indorse it entire: "Meanwhile, and probably before a satisfactory investigation can be concluded, it remains for the Democratic party to set its presidential nomination in the field. It may improve the opportunity which has escaped the Republican par-our people are a unit for Col. Kenan, tw We repeat that the pre-eminent and so are they for Col. W. H. Avera ty. We repeat that the pre-eminent purpose of any party should be to present to the people a candidate who is not merely above reproach after a needful investigation, but above the suspicions which raise the need of an investigation. Is such a Democratic nomination possible? Does anybody doubt it? Will anybody hesitate, in response to that question, to pronounce first and instantly among the available CEEDINGS. Democratic candidates the name of Senator Bayard? With him for their leader, with his fame untarnished by a suspicion of dishonor, the Democratic party well may win the State of New York, and with New York the presidency. Apparently it rests with Mr.

Tilden to determine whether this possible nomination shall become actual.

Mr. Samuel J. Tilden, to decide wheth-

bones of its countless blunders and defeats, or shall march into the sunlight,

The ticket to beat Garfield in the presidential race is Seymour, of New York. There is no doubt of it. If we can select such a ticket as will make New York safe then victory is already assured. As against Garfield the South was passed. will undoubtedly send up one hundred and thirty-eight instructed Democratic votes to the electoral college, and with the right nomination we can reasonably count New York, New Jersey, Indiana, and possibly Connecticut. We might as well confess that the wisdom of the Cincinnati convention can give us a Democratic President, within the ed in a personal controversy, the Kelrange of human probabilities, or they can put up a man who cannot carry us through.

We have not had such certainty of journed. success before us since 1860. Will we improve the opportunity? or will some Democratic blunder lead us again into the vuagmire of defeat? The convertion must answer this question.

GRANT AS DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE.

Some crazy newspaper man, upon the defeat of Grant at Chicago, immediately suggested that he would make a that "the nomination of Grant by the Democratic national convention would be no more of an absurdity than the nomination of Greeley in 1872." Perhaps not, but that man will be considerably more gray than he now is before such an event can take place. One leap in the dark was enough for the Democratic party of the country. great deal, but principles are dearer to us than success. We cannot couple the name of General Grant with the nominees of the Cincinnati convention, and the Democrat who does so in earnest is at once a fit subject for the lunatic asylum.

PUNGENT PAHAGRAPHS.

The following choice extracts from late letters from President Hayes to Gen. Chester A. Arthur, the Republican nominee for the Vice-Presidency, will be read with interest: You have made the custom-house a centre of partisan political manage-ment.—R. B. Hayes to Collector Arthur, January 31, 1879.

"With a deep sense of my obligations under the constitution, I regard it as goods. Garfield was one of the principlain duty to suspend you in order that the office may be honestly administered."-R. B. Hayes to Collector Arthur, January 31, 1879. "Gross abuses of administration have continued and increased during your incumbency."—John Sherman to Collector Arthur, January 31, 1879.

"Persons have been regularly paid by you who have rendered little or no service; the expenses of your office have increased, while its receipts have di-minished. Bribes, or gratuities in the shape of bribes have been received by your subordinates in several branches of the custom-house, and you have in no case supported the effort to correct these abuses."-Secretary Sherman to Collector Arthur, January 31, 1879.

A gentleman in whose opinion THE OBSERVER has much confidence writes us a communication to suggest what he calls a winning ticket. It is Horatio Seymour, of New York, for President, and William Gaston, of Massachusetts, for Vice President. This would make plina Carolina. Cape Fear, $70,000. in this country has become so strong that if the man nominated for President comes from the East, the West Tar rivers, $9,000; Neuse, $45,000; Pamlico and Tar rivers, $9,000; Scuppernong, $1,000; will claim the second place, and vice South Carolina—Ashlev river $1,000. will claim the second place, and vice South Carolina.—Ashley river, $1,000; ware them, not as we desire them to be. $7,000; Sullivan Island, $5,000.

The Democratic county convention of La Salle county, Illinois, passed on with but four dissenting voices:

That, while the Democrats of La Salle county will cheerfully support whoever the National Democratic Convention in their wisdom may nominate, yet we feel that the names of Seymour and Davis would be a tower of strength, and we believe their nomination would be a glorious victory.

The Gubernaterial Nomination.

To the Editor of The Observer: Having seen in the Raleigh Observer the letter of Gen. Scales to you, and your purpose to favor his nomination for Governor, I write to say that some such programme is gaining strength in the East every day. Gen. Scales would get the full strength of the party if his support of the national militia bill can be satisfactorily explained. A large organized military force is not popular with our people, even though it be unpaid militia. There is no special objection to Fowle or Jarvis, per see, but it is believed the attacks made upon each by the friends of the other will go far towards defeating either before the people. For the place of Attorney General, for Auditor, and Dr. Worth for Treasurer. There is some division in sentiment in regard to Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. Scarborough, the Revs. C. C. Dodsmonfand N. B. Cobb will each have a following.

Just So.

We say and we repeat that we have never known in the politics of this State, or heard of in the politics of any good nominee of the Cincinnati convention, and at once proceeded to argue that "the nomination of Grant by the that "the nomination of Grant by the that "the nomination of Grant by the the Hon. Thos. J. Jarvis has been and is being hounded down by men of his own party in the interest of Judge Fowle. > The Issue. Mr. Blackburn, of Kentucky, when asked about the nomination of Garfield, is quoted as saying: "The nomination of Garfield is the closing act of the tragedy which made Hayes President. The strikers in Louisiana and South Carolina were rewarded for their services in the electoral frauds of 1876 as soon as Hayes was safely installed in office. Sherman was made secretary of the treasury; fat posts and missions were given to the visiting statesmen and other participants in the crime. Garfield alone had not been rewarded. Yesterday his obligation was cancelled. If Hayes had been nominated the fraud issue in the next campaign could not have been stronger. Hayes could plead that he did not steal the presidency. Gov. Seymour not a Candidate, but Declaring that He Could Carry New York if Nominated at Cincinnati.

New York Sun. SYRACUSE, June 9.-That Gov. Seymour will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination at Cincinnati is firmly believed in this section. Oh Monday last Gov. Seymour said to Judge Graham, of Utica: "I see that Senator Conkling says that Grant could carry New York over any candidate. If I were nominated at Cincinnati I should carry New York, but I am not a candidate, for I do not think the nomination belongs to New York." This statement by the Governor is by some persons re-ceived as an indication that he may be a candidate.

It stood: Weaver, 22416; Wright, 12618 Dillaye, 119; Butler, 95; Chase, 89; Alhis, 11; Campbell, 21. Before the announcement of the first ballot it became evident that Weaver had a clear majority and all the delegates histened to change their votes to that candidate.
