District Attorneyship.

There seems to be a sort of litch in the district atterneyship for the Western district. Solicitor Insk considers that he is out, the President having nominated Jas. E. Boyd, of Alamance, and consequently did not appear at the court now in session here. It is stated that Judge Bond received a telegram ed that Judge Bond received a telegram to the effect that Mr. Boyd's appointment would certainly be confirmed by the center yesterday, but our delegrams last night brought us no intelligence of such action by that body. The truth of the matter is that Mr. Boyd's confirmation is by no means a certainty of firmation is by no means a certainty, as e understand there have gone up to the North Carolina Senators some very strong protests against it, and it may be that they can succeed in having him rejected or at any rate in postponing the consideration of his case until after the ajournment of Congress. Theatrical Notes.

The manager of the Charlotte opera house has already booked several companies for next season. Among these is Bartley Campbell's "Galley Slave"

The tax on theatrical companies is heavier in Charlotte than in almost any city in the South, and it all falls on the manager, not on the companies.

Mr. B. Macauley is to have a new play next season. It is said that John A. Stevens has received an offer from the London Royal Amphitheatre to play "Unknown"

Terrible muricane and Hall Storm in the County-Much Damage to

A friend in Paw Creek fewnship sends us the following particulars of the storm which prevailed in some parts of this county Saturday:

About 2 delock of Saturday afternoon a heavy cloud began to show itself in the western horizon, and conders the property owner liable to in- tinued to rise and thicken with ominous rumblings until about 3:30 o'clock, when it spread over the entire firmament with lightning lapidity. A few minutes after the storm burst upon us with all the fury of a tropical cyclone unroofing houses, barns and other build-roads almost impassable. The general direction of the storm was northeast, but the wind seemed to come from all points of the compass at the same time,

To give you some idea of the violence of the wind I will cite an instance that came under my own observation. In an open field stood an immense hickory tree measuring nearly four feet in diameter. The wind seemed to strike it with a whirling motion and twisted it off about three feet from the

Are You Republican or Democrat!-Or How to be a Revenue Officer,

A week ago THE OBSERVER copied from the Statesville Landmark a statement to the effect that several officers in the revenue service in this district. who are Democrats, had been made "to walk the plank," because in answering certain questions sent out from head-quarters they had said they were Demcrats and intended to vote the Demoeratic ticket in the next election. THE OBSERVER stated that Mr. John G. Young, who was acknowledged to be an efficient officer had been asked these questions, and shortly after saying that he was a Democrat had received his papers of dismissal. The facts as published were obtained from Mr. Young, who freely confessed the belief that he had been discharged on account of his polities. Yesterday morning he published a card saying that from information received through parties who were in a position to know, he did not now believe that this had been the cause of is dismissal. An examination into the acts of the case shows that the officers of the revenue service have this explanation to make of the questions put to

It had been charged by Republicans in the district that Collector Mott had appointed a large number of Democrats to positions in the revenue service to the exclusion of Republicans who were capable of filling them. These complaints reached Washington and Commissioner Raum sent the questions referred to to ascertain exactly what proportion of the appointees of Collector Mott were Democrats and how many Republicans. And further; that the dismissal of Mr. Young and others was accidental, or the result of a cutting down of the service during the summer months.

This pretty little story will hardly strike disinterested persons as possessing the requisite plausibility, especially since the officers to whom the questions were put were never told the purpose of the department in asking them. It must be remembered that they were not simply asked what are your politics now, but there was another question: what are they going to be? In other words, you were not perhaps a Republi-can when you entered the service, but now that you have enjoyed the government pap, what are you going to do? Answer, on penalty of being dismissed. They all caught at this meaning of the questions and some of them tremblingly hesitated, and finally leaped over into the Republican party. And this is the way the honorable commissioner undertakes to find out the political status of his employes!
