Indiana and Ohio vote on the 12th of October, and in 20 days thereafterthe presidential election takes place.

In the face of the disgraceful fact that Hayes and his whole cabinet has taken the stump for Garfield, Barringer, at Iron Station, Friday, deprecated that "auntie" will hardly allude to this mat-

We understand the State executive committee is confident of a large Democratic majority for the State ticket. This information comes to us in rather a circuitous way, but we have no reason to question its accuracy. We mention it now, and in the event these sanguine expectations are realized there will be no quarrel about the mont.

Something appears to have come over Col. Bob Ingersoll. He has returned from Maine and has just caught his breath enough to say that he will be thousand dellars each to raise two million dollars for a Republican campaign fund. Colonel Ingersoll seems to have had his head turned by what he saw in Maine. We shall hear to-morrow what the trouble is.

An extraordinary mortality among congressmen is noted. The 49th Congress will contain about 70 new mem-Twelve States have completed their nominations, of which Maine, Minnesota and Kansas renominate their present representatives. Nine-teen States have partly nominated, and seven States have not held conventions. In some respects the new Congress will be stronger than its predecessor. The Democratic majority will be materially strengthened, and the greenback and high tariff faction correspondingly weakened.

Attorney-General Kenan speaks at Statesville on Tuesday next. We don't know how many speeches he has made since the campaign opened, but he has shown more zeal and industry in the canvass than the whole State ticket com bined. We hope the good people of Iredell will extend him a hearty welcome. A man of distingue appearance, an entertaining speaker, a chivalric and high- of two toned gentleman with popular and affable manners, he is winning hosts of friends throughout the State. We take great pleasure in this mention of his able and valuable services to the party, because we have known him well and long, and know him to be as modest as he is brave and true.

It is "a wholesome truth that North "Carolina does not need any more "ignorant citizens. "voice of the printing press."

The value of this opinion is die to the fact that its auther, Mr. Lewis C. Hanes, editor of the Lexington Exchange, is a candidate for the Senate in Davidson county. He will be elected, we hope. In that event we shall expect to see brother Hanes leading in the reform he so warmly espouses.

Mr. English has received the following dispatch from a reliable source in Chicago:

Chicago, ILL., Sept. 7.—Hon. Wm. H. Bnglish, chairman, etc.. Startling news just received. Large numbers of negroes are arriving here on every train from the South. They are awaiting transportation to Republican districts and townships throughout Northern Indiana. This information is reliable.

Notify our friends and prepare for the emergency.

John Sherman's weakness is lying. It is a weakness common to Republican speakers. We may have remarked this before. Sherman says the prosperity of the country is due to the Republican party. Barringer takes the cue and repeats the lie with as much function as if it had eminated from his own disordered brain. To run down these lies is getting to be a daily business with us. To day we present some bureau of statistics, giving in detail the imports and exports of the United States for the three months ended March 31, 1880. We find by this document that the total value of breadstuffs bureau of statistics, giving in detail ment that the total value of breadstuffs exported from the United States for the three months named was $52,081,

638. Of this amount there were $29,-

798,406 worth of wheat and wheat flour, and $9,780,288 of corn. The value of cotton and its manufactures exported for the same period was $70,-285,551. Thus the cotton exported in three months exceeded in value the amount of breadstuffs the immense sum of $18,203,913. What then would be the condition of the country to-day without the Southern cotton crop? Where the magnificent prosperity Sherman so exultantly claims for the Re-publican party? Where would be the balance of trade to-day? Yet thousands of Northern operatives will vote the Republican ticket because they believe Sherman and such Southern renegades as Barringer when they tell them is that of an able, impartial and upright judge. He is not a partizan in the administration of his courts. So averse is he to mixing politics and law he is avoids its discussion among friends. It is to be hoped, therefore, that Republican papers will not impugn his motives for urging upon grand juries the enormity and frequency of the crime of perjury. He said in his charge at Davidson court, last week, "the crime that is most com-"mon, and towers high above all others "and productive of most harm is that "of perjury." Whether or not he had in his judicial eye the Republican candidate for the presidency we have no means of knowing.

Where It Was Last Scon. Bale gh Observer.

The United States government gave to the State of North Carolina, in 1868, land scrip worth several hundred thousand dollars for the purpose of establishing an agricultural college. The scrip was last seen in the hands of some of the leaders of the Republican party. Can anybody tell us what became of it? The Read Law. Raleigh Observer. The Edenton Clarion recalls the fact that although the Republicans attack the road law yet Mr. Everett and other Republican candidates supported it in the Legislature. And not only that, but if the roads are not worked, what are you going to do about it? The radicals say levy taxes and work them by taxation. But that is impossible, for in order to raise sufficient taxes to work the roads, the rate of tax imposed would the roads, the rate of tax imposed would largely exceed the constitutional equation. The constitution forbids such an expenditure by fixing a limit to taxa-tion. The radicals only find fault without suggesting a remedy.

Taxes and the People.

Ealeigh News

When the cause of education is advocated, there are those who start back and cry, "That means taxation." From whom does this ery come? from the people or the would-be leaders of the people? We have been cursed in this state by a class of men who have signalized their fealty to the people, not by studying, proposing and laboring to promote great plans for the advancement and elevation of the State, but by making the very wetkin ring with the cry of "Retrenchment!" by holding themselves out as the watch-dogs of the public treasury, the peculiar guardians of the money of the simple and unsuspecting people.
