OUR PLATFORM. - "The right of trial by pury, the habeas corpus, the liberty of the press, the freedom of speech, the natural rights of persons, and the rights of property, must be preserved."-HANCOCK.

The "fragmentary minority" in Geor gia is being whittled down to a fine point. The Atlanta Constitution publishes estimates from sheriffs and ordinaries in 104 counties, which gives Colquitt ever 30,000 majority. The following special to THE OBSER-VER should have the very widest circulation possible in the 8th district. It may cause one of the independent aspirants for Congress in that district to pause in his mad career-"A barrel of whiskey exploded in the avenue, yesterday."

It is settled at last. Plaisted's plurality in Maine is 234. All the towns have been heard from. Complete returns are in. It is our duty to remark here that on the night of the election in Maine, Mr. Blaine lugubriously remarked that Plaisted's success would elect Hancock President. There is a proposition now to hold Mr. Blaine strictly to this observation.

In a letter written by Senator Vest from Indianapolis, the Senator says that there is no doubt about Indiana going for Landers and Hancock by 10,-000 majority, and that there is an excellent chance of carrying Ohio. This is only confirmatory of all the intelligence that comes from that quarter. At present there seems to be no earthly doubt of Hancock's election. A proposition to make it unanimous is in order.

The Republican business men of Philadelphia take a lugubrious view of the situation. They solemnly resolve Seven weeks from this day the great battle will be fought and, if the present apathy continues-lost.

In other words, unless money-and plenty of it-is soon forthcoming the cause is hopeless-the struggle for power and pelf is lost—the Republican party is last.

It is pretty well known that Judge Jerry Black is an ardent admirer of James A. Garfield, the Republican candidate for president. As late as last week he wrote a very complimentary letter about the Republican party, published in THE OBSERVER this morning, him-

Gen. Garfield's public career furnishes mere striking examples of moral pros-titution than the history of any indi-vidual I have known.

The international Bible Studies for Sunday schools teach that Lot's wife was not turned into a pillar of salt, but was caught in a storm which "suffocated her, incrusted her, and possibly burned her to a cinder." The tendency to doubt is alarming. While a fast of forty days was going on in New York, some wretched doubter, with unexampled levity, offered to duplicate the celebrated performances of Jonah if somebody would provide a whale well furnished with all the modern improvements. And now comes along an orthodox thority with an attempt to overthrou the remarkable story about Lot's wife. Next there will be an attempt to show that the lions with which Daniel associated were stuffed, and that Abednego and his companions' wore sheetiron overcoats when they walked through the fiery furnace.

Suppose Hancock succeeds in placing the Southern brigadiers in control of the government, where will we be drift-

THE PRENCH CRISIS. The ministerial crisis in France which has led to the overthrow of the De Freycinet Cabinet is just now the theme of all tongues in Europe. The German papers display the most anxiety at the change, as Germany is the country certainly most interested in assurance of the continued peace of Europe. The new cabinet has been definitely constituted as follows:

President of the Council and Minister of Public Instruction—M. Jules Ferry.
Minister of Foreign Affairs—M. Barthelemy St Hilaire.
Minister of the Interior and of Worship-M.

onstane.

Minister of Justice—M. Cazot.
Minister of Finance—M. Magnis.
Minister of War—General Fure.
Minister of Marine—Admiral Clouet.
Minister of Public Works—M. Carnot.
Minister of Commerce—M. Tirard.
Minister of Posts and Telegraphs—M. Cockery.

It is Gambetta's work wholly and Germany has valid reason for believing its very existence a menage. If its tenure of life lasts over the meeting of the coming Chambers, there is no telling when war may be precipitated. President Grevy is said to be in sympathy with De Freycinet, disliking the overshadowing importance which Gamthe other hand, the French people are the terrible, has such an order been No inscient Eight-to-Seven job, with the popular leader. His watchword of France entiere has burned into every Frenchman's soul and Alsace and Lorraine will sooner or later be the objective point of a war to which that cellar of Harvey & Holden's restaurant, objective point of a war to which that at the corner of 11th and Pennsylvania of 1870 will be simply child's play. Germany and France are both ready for the fight, and if Gambetta can force the country into a successful campaign, there will be nothing to bound his ambition.

> The .Indianapolis Sentinel prints a letter from Jacob B. Yeagley, addressed to C. C. Post, chairman of the Greenback State committee, in which Yeaglev announces his intention to support the Democratic party and its ticket through the remainder of the campaign. Mr. Yeagley says, among other things: "For the Nationals to continue the hopeless struggle against the two old parties alike is practically to slap friend and foe in the face with idiotic vehemence. To elect such a man as Gen. Garfield President of the United States over so brave, loyal and pure a man as Gen. W.S. Hancock, against whom his political opponents have not been able to make a single derogatory charge in his life-long services to his country, would be a national calamity. The true and logical question, therefore, is, shall we continue the present adminis-tration or defeat it? I shall, therefore, act with the Democratic party in the future." George Parker, National candidate for State Senator from Marion county, has also withdrawn and declared his intention to support the Dem ocratic ticket: This sort of "flopping" possesses a profound significance in Indiana. Even outside of Hoosierdom it is noted as a certain indication of a Democratic victory in October.

It seems that Garfield has written a letter to somebody in Virginia in which he says that he is not a candidate in that State. The Dispatch thinks the in which he thus touchingly alludes to letter is bogus, but if it has any real existence, it proves that a coalition has been entered into between the Mahoneites and the Republicans which will result in the withdrawal of the Garfield electors before election day. The Virginia papers all affect perfect confidence in the election of the regular Hancock . The round and y and loyal Scandal in Calcutta-An em from Candahar-Scrious Times round Dulcigno-Riza Paska Defles the British Fleet and Proposes to Shed British Gore in Defense of Ottoman Territory.

FOREIGN NI

LONDON, Sept. 27.-A. Calcutta dis-thirty arrests have been made.

It is ramored that executions within the palace have been recommenced.

London, Sept. 27.—A dispatch from Candahar says Gen. Phayre has been ordered to increase his force to ten thousand, which points to the probability of the garrison remaining here for the next few months.

The Times has the following from Grayosa: Prince Montenegro, in an interview with Admiral Seymour, expressed the strongest conviction that his troops could take Dulcigno unaided. The answer of Riza Pasha to Admiral Seymour's ultimatum was most emphatic. Pasha said that his orders were to protect the integrity of the Ottoman territory. He would fire on any force, Montenegrin or otherwise. Saymour informed Prince Nikita, of Montenegro, that he had received a telegram from Mr. Geschen, British ambassador at Constantinople, saying the affair was now in the hands of the British Admiral and Prince of Montenegro. At the second conference Prince Nikita assured Admiral Seymour that his troops were ready to march to Dulcigno immediately. It has been arranged that no shot will be fired from the fleet near the town of Dulcigno, but fire will be opened on Magura and other fortified the change. But the press of the Con-tinent generally assume that Gambet-ta's triumph is anything rather than an tenegrin divisional commander. Riza Pasha has a well equipped battery of herse artillery. The delay in the departure of the fleet is conjectured to be caused by Prince Nikita, who is either unprepared to push things to extremities, or has had the pressure put on him by Russia. London, Sept. 27.—A Ragusa dispatch reports that the Montegrins are 7,000 strong, while the Albanians have 6,000 men and three field batteries. There are ten Turkish battalions under Riza Pasha, near Dulcigno. It has just been known that the fleet will not start un-

A Constantinople correspondent of the Times telegraphs as follows: A spirit of reckless defiance is becoming more and more intense at the palace. For several days past the Sultan has refused to listen to any objections made by his minister to the policy which he has adopted, and he has issued an order that any official who shall be overshadowing importance which Gam-betta is assuming in the State. But, on shall be dismissed and exiled. Never

> The Daily Telegraph's Ragusa correspondent says:

In consequence of the arrival there of a French courier with dispatches. the sailing of the allied fleet for Dulcig no has been postponed for 48 hours. Albanians are encamped on the summit of Mount Mazura, where they have formed five lines of entrenchments connected by covered ways.

The Globe this evening says: An indignation meeting, under in-fluential auspices, will be held this week against an English development of the ministry's foreign policy in con-nection with the naval demonstration in Turkish waters.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The Manchester Guardian's correspondent at Gravosa, telegraphed at 5 o'clock Sunday evening as follows: "Yesterday the Prince of Montinegro received official information from the Perte that an advance to Dulcigno would be regarded as a de-daration of war. The Prince of Montinegro consequently has telegraphed Admiral Seymour that he is not prepared without aid of the land troops of owers to attack Albanians, re-inforced as they are by Turkish regulars and antillery—the correspondent adds that step of the Porte must be regarded as tantamount to a declaration of war against Europe, as the powers can never submit to disperse the fleet at the mere feat of Sultan." The Daily News this morning in a leading article says: "Though France may possibly not take part in the bombardment of Turkish positions, she will not withdraw her ships or dissolve herself morally from the enter-

A Constantinople dispatch to the Times says: The last note of the Porte, refusing to surrender Dulcigno unless naval demonstrations be abandoned, was in a great part the Sultan's own composition. It required as a condition for surrender of Dulcigno, not only that demonstrations be aban-doned but that no demonstrations shall be employed in connection with the Greek frontier, or any other question, and that no other concession in the future shall be demanded for Monte-

Wise, a candidate for elector on the Rediuster's Hancock and English ticket in this State, is authority for stating that he has seen an autograph letter written by Garfield to a gentleman in this State, in which he says that he is not a candidate for the presidency in Virginia. The matter has created a considerable flutter in Republican as well as Democratic circles, although but few of the former have ever regarded it among the probabilities of their pre-sidential ticket to carry this State, even with the two Democratic tickets in the

HANCOCK ON WAR CLAIMS. the Absurdity of the Fear of South-

NFW YORK, Sept. 24—Gen. Hancock responding to Theodore Cook, of Cin-cinnati, who had written to him concerning the General's attitude on the question of Southern claims, replies as tollows under date of the 23d inst.: patch says that reports are received from Mandalay that the Queen's mother and daughter have been accused of intriguing with the court omicials, and claims. The people cannot be misled claims. The people cannot be misled by it. To suppose that "Rebel" claims, or claims in the interest of persons who were in rebellion, can in any way or in any degree be countenanced, is an imputation of disloyalty such as used to be made against Democrats even when they were in arms defending the country. So far as it touches me I denoting try. So far as it touches me I denduice it. The government can never pay a debt or grant a pension or reward of any sort for waging war upon its own existence, nor could I be induced to approve or encourage the payment of such debt, pension or reward. Nobody expects or wants such unnatural action. To propose it would be an insult to the intelligence and honor of our people. When the rebellion was crushed the heresy of secession in every form and every incident went down forever. It is a thing of the dead past. We move forward, not backward. If I were President I would veto all legislation which might come before me providing for the consideration or payment of claims of any kind for losses or damages by persons who were in rebellion, whether pardoned or not. In relation to Union war claims, the government's obligations to its defenders come first. They are lasting and sacred. The public laws of civilized nations do not in general recognize claims for injuries to property resulting from the operations of war, nevertheless our Goverment has treated with great indulgence claims for losses and damages suffered by Union men from the military operations of the army of the Union; but as hostilities were closed more than fifteen years ago, claims of that nature are now mostly in the hands of brokers, or persons other than the original sufferers, are becoming stale, and in my judgment might fairly be considered as barred by lapse of time, and if hereafter entertained at all should be subjected to the strictest scrutiny. Yours very truly, WINFIELD S. HANCOCK.
