THE REAL PIVOTAL STATE. Indiana is not the pivotal State. The real pivotal State is New York.—Indianapolis Journal (Rep.) Sept. 27.

The Journal is right, emphatically. It is only necessary, therefore to briefly recur to the political history of New York to settle the presidential contest. In 1860 Lincoln carried the State by 50,130 over the combined Douglas-Breckenridge vote, but ih 1862 New York fell back into the Democratic ranks with Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, and elected Horatio Seymour Governor. The Republicans regained control and continued successful at the er at the same election by 4,065. Denounces John Sherman as a Common Liar and Furnishes Him With His Address.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.-Secretary Sherman to-day furnished for publication the following correspondence, consisting of four letters, which have passed between himself and Senator Hampton, of South Carolina:

Wade Hamption to Sherman. DAGGER'S SPRING, Sept. 17th, 1880.

Hon, John Sherman, Secretary of the Treasury—Sin: Some days ago I saw a report of your speech at a conference held by the National Republican Com-mittee at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York, and you were quoted as having used the following language:
"And now you are asked to surrender all you have done into the hands of Wade Hampton and the ku klux and the little segment in the North that is called the Democratic party." May I ask if you used these words, and if you did so, did you mean to connect me, directly or indirectly, with what is known as the ku klux klan. Request-ing an early reply addressed to the care of August Schell, Esq. New York. I am, very respectfully, Your ob't servant, WADE HAMPTON.

Sherman's Reply. WASHINGTON, D. C, Sept. 21.

Wade Hampton, SIR: Your note of the 17th inst., is re ceived, in which you inquire whether at the conference held by the national Republican committee at the Fifth Avenue Hetel, New York, I used language attributed to me, as follows:

"And you are asked to surrender all you have done into the hands of Wade Hampton and the ku klux and a little segment in the North, called the Democratic party."

In reply I have to advise you, that while I do not remember the precise anguage, I presume the reporter correctly stated in a condensed way his idea of what I said. I no doubt spoke of you as a leading representative of the Democratic party in the South, and referred to the ku klux klan as the representative of the harbards agenties by resentative of barbarous agencies by which Democrats have subverted the civil and political rights of Republicans of the South. I did not connect you personally with the ku klux klan. Indeed I know that you had in one or two important instances resisted and defeated its, worst impulse. I appreciate the sense of honor which which thus far have been successful in seizing political power in the South, and which it is hoped the aid of the small segment of the Democratic party in the North may be extended to all the departments of the government. It is in this sense that I spoke of you, the ku klux klan, and the Northern Democratic party. Permit me, in conclusion, while frankly answering your question, to say that it would be the most fatal policy for the South by such agencies as I have mentioned, to secure again political ascendency in this country, for I assure you that the manhood and independence of the North will certainly continue the struggle until every republican in the South shall have the free and unrestricted enjoyment of equal civil and political privileges, including fair votes, fair counts, free speech and a free press, and the agitation made necessary to secure such results may greatly affect injuriously the interests of the people of the South.
