A GREAT CONFERENCE.

An Ecumenical Gathering of Methedists in London Next Year-The Topics Which will be Discussed-The Appointment of Delegates to the Old City-Head Church.

An Ecumenical Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and its branches will meet in London in September, 1881. The Conference has been talked of in the churches of the denomination for several years, but no decided action was taken until last May. when, the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Cincinnati, a plan was drawn up and agreed to by the representatives of the Metho-dist Episcopal Church and the differ-ent branches in the United States. The denomination numbers over 4,000,000 of actual communicants and a Methoof actual communicants and a Methodist population of about 15,000,000. There are numerous branches in Europe and this country, and they will all be represented in the Conference. The members of the Conference will number 400, one-half of whom will represent British and Continental Methodism and one-half the churches in the ism, and one-half the churches in the United States and Canada. As nearly as possible the Conference will be composed of lay and clerical delegates equally. The 200 delegates from the United States will be assigned to the churches as follows: The Methodist Episcopal Church, 80 delegates; Methodist Episcopal Church South, 38; African Methodist Episcopal Church, 12; Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, 10: the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church of America, 6: the Eyangelical Association, 6; the Union American Methodist Episcopal Church, 2; the Union American Protestant Church, 2; the Methodist Protestant Church, 6; the American Westleyan Church, 4; the Free Methodist Church, 2; the Independent Methodist Church, 2; the Congregational Methodist Church, 2; the Methodist Church of Canada, 12; the Methodist Episcopal Church of Canada, 4; the Primitive Methodist Church in the United States and Canada, 2; the Bible Christian, 2; the British Methodist Episcopal Church, 2. The remaining six members are left to be distributed by the western section of the General Executive Committee. The assignment of delegates to the European been made. The delegates will be named by the Conferences as they met be-tween this time and next July.

The conference will not meet for legislative purposes, for it will have no authority to legislate. It is not for doctrinal controversies, for Methodism has no doctrinal differences. It is not for an attempt to harmonize the various politics and usages of the several branches of the one great Methodist family, for Methodism has always striven for unity rather than uniformity. It is not, in a word, for consolidation , but for co-operation. It is to devise such means for prosecuting our home and foreign work as will result in the greatest economy and efficiency, to promote fraternity, to increase the moral and evangelical power of a common Methodism, and to secure the more speedy conversion of the world. It has been suggested that the proper topics to consider are those respecting Popery, Paganism, Pauperism, Scepticism, Intemperance and Kindred Vices, the Relaperance and Kindred Vices, the Relation of Methodism to Education, the Means of Evangelization, such as Itinerant Ministry, Training Schools for Christian Workers, both at home and abroad, Sunday Schools, and Special Efforts for Special Classes. Concerning missionary labor, it is further proposed to examine Methodism as a missionary movement, the relation of the home work to the foreign work and the best mode of avoiding waste and rivalries, and of securing instead thereof sympathy and co-operation between different Methodist bodies occupying the same or contiguous mission-fields; the use of the press for the increase of Christian knowledge and sanctifying power; the resources of Methodism in numbers, wealth, culture, spiritual life and revival agencies, and the corresponding responsibility; the spiritual unity of Methodism, and the best way to secure its maintenance and increase and to manithodism, and the best way to secure its maintenance and increase and to manifest it to the world. The Conference will meet in City-Road chapel, which was the first church of the Methodists. For many years John Wesley preached there, and his pulpit is still shown to Methodist travellers who visit England's capital. The delegation from this country will be total population of the State is 995,306; composed of the strongest men in the composed of the strongest men in the composed of the strongest men in the composed by Bishop Simpson, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Great interest in the Conference is manifested by all the branches of the Church, and it promises to be the most important it promises to be the most important assembly of Methodists that ever took Extraordinary Confession.

Mrs. Smith, who died in the Detriot hospital prison recently, made an ex-traordinary confession to the matron of the institution a few hours before breathing her last. On the night of September 13, 1876, her husband was murdered as he lay in bed beside her. The body was then taken to the barn, which was set on fire. Mrs. Smith, her sister, her sister's husband, and a young farm hand, named Alexander, were arrested for complicity in the deed. On the trial Mrs. Smith and Alexander turned State's evidence, the former swearing that her husband was killed by that her husband was killed by her brother-in-law and her sister, whom she incited to the deed. Both were found guilty and sentenced to the State prison for life. Mrs. Smith was given fifteen years' imprisonment, and young Alexander ten years. In her confession to the hospital matron, Mrs. Smith said she swore falsely; that neither of the persons convicted had anything to do with the crime, nor did she know who committed it. She says that a certain person, whose name has not been revealed by the authorities, persuaded her to make the false confessions, assuring her that she would receive a light sentence. In her anxiety to join her children she agreed to do as was suggested. While giving this testimony she was under the direction of this person, who was in the court room at the trial. At certain precon-certed signs made by him she answered yes or no to the questions of the prose-

I do not wish to be unduly impressible or superstitious, but, though we have outlived the days of the augurs, I think we have a right to think of some events as omens, and I greet this as a happy and auspicious omen that the first general greeting since the event of yesterday is tendered to me by a venerable institution of learning.
