OBSERVATIONS. We see that Mortgage and bills 'tis said a fool correct. It is a queer circumstance that a miller often makes a meal of what he sows.

OUR NEXT PRESIDENT'S FAMILIAR. Facts about Mr. and Mrs. Garfield and the Boys and Girls.

Fortunes from England. The American heirs to the Jennings estates and to all other estates in England will be glad to learn that their British brothers in expectation and litigation have been the Chancellor of the Exchequer.

A young lady told Governor-elect Porter that when his successor, Judge Allen, was asked to resign, he was offered a widow who married a second time and his first wife he brought the new wife when she showed her home was a landscape picture of the State.

HUMBLED AGAIN. I saw a speech said about the merits of Hop Bitters.

FOR THE LADIES. A young man, of this name, was found in the city.
