HOME FENCINGS
The man with the performing bear was in the city yesterday on one of his periodical visits.
A number of non-resident lawyers have arrived in the city to attend to the business of clients in the United States Court.
A sale of the effects of Mrs. Mary Wallace, deceased, took place at her late residence about four miles from the city yesterday.
The American Union, taking in messengers will be performed in blue with artillery trimmings and program epaulettes.
Rev. W. P. McKirkle of the North Carolina Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, preached at the Presbyterian church, Sunday night and preached an excellent sermon on the subject of the "Crucifixion of Christ."
The citizens are reminded of the call for a meeting at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association at 7:30 o'clock this evening for the purpose of re-organizing the relief association for the poor. It is hoped that everybody will attend.
To read at Davidson College.
Mr. Nat Gray went to Davidson College yesterday to arrange for Miss Louise Clarke to give a reading there next Friday. Miss Clarke has recovered entirely from her recent illness, and last week read to a first rate audience in Concord. It is her purpose to give entertainments in several of the neighboring towns, and we take pleasure in commending her to the public.
The funeral of Mr. George Higler.
The remains of Mr. George H. Higler reached the city at 12 o'clock Sunday night and were received by his friends and relatives. The funeral was presided over by Rev. A. B. Boshamer, at Tryon Street Methodist church, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The last rites were performed at Elmwood cemetery, where the remains were interred.

The Little Fire in Laurinburg.
The extent of the losses in the fire at Laurinburg were slightly exaggerated in the reports which reached this city, but are not enough. It originated in the rear room of E. P. North's store, about 10 o'clock on Monday night. This fire was the cause of a bundle of partially burned goods being found on the sidewalk. The fire had evidently started from a stove in the rear room and fired from the outside. The store is recently been full of hay, and a pile of it was lying in the street, but fortunately no one near the door.

In It Incendiary.
To fire the property in the rear of the store was the main object of the incendiary attempt. It was made upon the stable on Mr. Nat Gray's block. When the door of an out-house was opened Saturday morning a bundle of partially burned goods was found on the sidewalk. The fire had evidently started from a stove in the rear room and fired from the outside. The store is recently been full of hay, and a pile of it was lying in the street, but fortunately no one near the door.
