WAS BUT A BEAR.

Prophecy of a Bear's Fate. A bear was shot by a hunter near the city of Raleigh, N. C. The bear was found to be a specimen of the species known as the black bear. It was found to be a specimen of the species known as the black bear. It was found to be a specimen of the species known as the black bear.

Imminent Emigration.

Up to Saturday morning the number of immigrants arriving at New York since January 1, 1880, was 218,977. In the five days that remain before the year closes it is expected that the aggregate will exceed 250,000. By comparison with the totals of previous years these figures are interesting.

More of "Chief's" Work - Mugged by an Angry Elephant.

CINCINNATI, December 26. - Tom Sullivan, master of transportation of John Robinson's circus, had a lively experience yesterday at the quarters in this city. In the neighborhood of the quarters are many saloons and Sullivan patronized them liberally. The stimulant warmed him up to a point where he imagined himself a thoroughbred elephant-tamer.

Eighty Miles in Sixty Minutes.

At the Franklin Institute last week Mr. Barnett W. Le Van explained how he had accomplished the distance between Philadelphia and New York in an hour. The distance between the two cities is in an air line from City Hall to City Hall 80.3 miles.

Found Dead on the Road - Story of a Man Who Was Killed.

JACKSONVILLE, S. C., December 26. - Will you be so kind as to publish the following notice in your issue tomorrow (Christmas). I have a man who works with me came up to my house and told me there was a dead man lying down on the railroad about four miles from this place.
