OPENING OF THE LEGISLATURE A special dispatch from Raleigh describes the opening of the General Assembly and the organization of the two Houses. The work has been begun in a satisfactory manner.

The necessity of electing a presiding officer of the Senate is brought about by reason of the fact that the same Legislature of which Lieutenant-Governor Robinson is exofficio a member, must count the vote and declare him elected; until this is done, he cannot, as a matter of course discharge the duties of the position. Gov. Jarvis helds ever by reason of a special provision of the constitution which declares that the Covernor shall retain his seat until ther sell them goods nor buy their cothis successer is legally installed.

The selection of Mr. Dortch is an altogether appropriate recognition of his ability, his eminent public services and moral worth. He is no new man in public affairs in North Carelina. A member of the Consederate Senate; oftentimes a member of the General Assembly, and frequently called to as-sume public responsibilities, he has discharged every public trust with signal ability and fidelity. He was the recognized head of the Democratic side in the last Senate, and as the leader of the opposition to the sale of the Western Best proposition, conducted himself with marked ability and fairness.

The choice of Capt. C. M. Cooke, of Franklin, as Speaker of the House, was body, and has several times been put the heavens. for ward as a candidate for the position he now holds. He is a lawyer, lately solicitor of his district, and has the ability and legislative experience necessary to a good presiding officer. His marked by decision and courtesy.

The principal clerks of the two houses have been several times tried, and their fitness for the positions is known. A noteworthy fact is that the lighting the house and grounds, $2,000 press of the State has received full re- for fuel, $5,500 for the greenhouses, and cognition in the selections made.

The extension of the Carolina Central Railroad in accordance with the terms of the original charter is again being talked about. In a well written contribution to the Shelby Aurora on the subject the writer calls attention to what he understands to be the fact, that a line through Hickory Nut Gap. thence through North Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, into Texas, is eighty miles shorter than any other route from the Northwest to the Atlantic Ocean, making Wilmington the port into which the products of the West could empty themselves. It is not to be expected that the State would or could lend any material aid to the extension, having already exhausted her resources, but it is very well to put the matter before the public. Certain it is that a lire of railroad constructed as proposed would pass through one of the finest J.S. Tomlinson, of Catawba, engrosssections of Western North Carolina.

The sixty days allowed the Legislature for the transaction of the business of the session is certainly sufficient, and might be even less. In Georgia the length of the session is forty days, and the South Carolina Legislature, which has distinguished itself by its wisdem and prudence, spent only thirty days at but his death was unexpected. the capitol. The length of sessions in other States are as follows: "In Louisiana, Maryland and Vinginia the sessions are limited to 90 days; in Tennessee to 75 days; in Missouri to 70 days; in Arkansas, California, Florida, Indiana, Kentucky, Minnesota, Nevada and Texas to 60 days; in Alabama and Kan-Texas to 60 days; in Alabama and Kan-didates for the chairmanship, and the States, and to secure to the people of sas to 50 days; in West Virginia to 45 Oliver representative received 69 vetes each State equal and just representadays, and in Colorada, Nebraska and to 51 for his opponent. Of the votes re- tion in the House of Representatives. Oregon to 40 days.

There is really a prospect of an immigration movement to North Carolina, and it is noticed because it is about the first thing of the kind the State has known. The immigrants are to come from Sweden, and establish a coulony of considerable proportions. The locali-ty selected for their settlement is a large tract of land lying in Beaufort county, near the Pamlico river. It strikes us that the soil and climate of the western part of the State would be more suitable to the habits and conditions of the Swedes, but as they are generally an industrious and intelligent class of people; we are glad to settle them in any portion of the State.

The financial success of Sara Bernhardt, the noted French actress, in this country, has been exceptional. Her fifty performances since her arrival in America has netted her the sum of $180,000. She commenced acting in New York November 8, and twentyfive performances there realized about gave a night each at New Haven, Hartford, Springfield, and four in Montreal. She will give in all about one hundred and fifty performances, winding up with a farewell in New York. She will then depart for London, where she has an engagement, about April 15.

on foot to urge upon the present Legislature the passage of a law looking to the appointment of a railroad commissioner to regulate the management of the corporations within our borders. Such an office exists in several of the Southern States. It being difficult to Lakeshore, while Reading sold up 31/8 define its duties, the office may or may net be worth the salary attached to it: its usefulness is almost entirely dependent upon the man who fills it.

Bishop Elder, of Cincinnati, said in his recent episcopal letter to the clergy dancing at any time." The daylight any moment on this road for many las a fact that Gen. McDowell did draw the mileage?"

Senater Morgan, of Alabama, in a re cent interview, gives expression to a sentiment which has been gradually gaining ground since the election. It is in effect that trade not the politic cians, is to rule hereafter. In answer to a question as as to whether Garfield would pursue a pacific course towards the South, or attempt a coercive interference with our affairs, he said: "The people of the United States will regulate that matter on strictly business principles, and Mr. Garfield will follow 'the course of trade.' The internal commerce of the United States is by far the most important interest of the American people, and that is being conducted in the most friendly possible spirit. The merchants of New York would sue out a writ of lunacy against one of their number who would write to his customers that he regarded them as a set of barbarous bull-dozers and an unchristian set of people, who resort to force and fraud to keep them-

The brief announcement of the death of Bishep Atkinson was received at this office at a late hour last night. It will be heard with prefound and universal regret. A thousand homes which have been lighted by his genial, benevelent countenance will be darkened by sorrow; a thousand hearts he has lifted up will be burdened with grief. It is not an exaggeration to say that he was a prince among men; a man whose beaming, rounded face was an index to the beauty and absolute symmetry of his character. Gentleness was se moulded with strength, refinement with vigor, courtesy with self-assertion, that there was no flaw in "the statue of a perfect man." Truly. if all who loved him could to day cast equally fortunate. He has been for a flower in his open grave, a mountain some years a prominent member of that of reses would lift its head towards

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—SENATE.—The ed the Vice-President laid before the Senate Passed. the following communication:

MENTOR, OHIO, Dec. 23, 1880. SIR-On the 13th and 14th days of January, A. D., 1880, the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, pursuant to law, chose me to be Senator in the Congress of the United States from said State for the term of six years to Reagan, thinking the funding bill the begin on the 4th of March, A. D., 1881. Understanding that the lawful notice of that fact has been presented to the Senate and filed in its archives, I have the henor to inform the Senate that I have by a letter, dated December 23. 1880, and addressed to the Governor and General Assembly of the State of Ohio, formally declined to see the said appointment, and have renounced the same. I am, sir, Very respectfully, To the President of the Senate of the United States.

The letter was placed on the files of he senate The Vice-President also submitted a resolution of Republican Central club, of New York, passed December 17th ast, as follows:

Resolved. That the members of this club. In common with their fel low citizens urge upon Congress the passage of laws submitted by Hon. John Sherman, Secretary of the Treasury, the passage of which will enable him to refund the public debt now falling due.

Referred to the committee on finance Burnside asked the chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, Mr. Eaten, to inform the Senate whether any action had been taken by that committee on the joint resolution intro-duced by Burnside on June 25th last, deprecating the construction of the inter-pceanic canal by foreign powers. Mr. Burnside hoped that still stronger | franks.
