PALATIAL HOMES.

How Some Rich New Yorkers Live.

H. W. G. in Atlant . Constitution. In nothing has New York advanced so rapidly of late as in the luxurious appointments of her homes. There is little doubt that America will, within the next twenty years, set against the sombre splendor and slowly-accumulated treasures of the English homes, and the elaborate finery of the French, aglittering combination of taste and regularity that will astonish, if it does not compel, admiration. The very newness that will rob it of the dignity and reposeful beauty of the old castles and country seats, will add to its splendorous effect and enhance its substantial effect. It is one of the sequences that a man who made his own fortune in a few years of absorbing business will have less culture than he needs when he goes to spend it. It is one of the compensations, though, that he puts his check-book in the hands of artificers, and gives them carte blanche, and so we have riotous prodigality, if noth-ing else. Look at some figures. One of the new Vanderbilt houses is contracted at $850,000 for the house alone. Fifteen houses like Vanderbit's unfurnished, will be worth more than all the houses and lots in Atlanta, and when he has moved into it and has it pointments, I have no doubt that five or six houses like it would cost more than the entire city of Atlanta. And yet I would rather live in a cottage in Atlanta than to own Mr. Vanderbilt's house and make it, my home. The other night Mr. Keene's Newport villa burned down. The house was insured at $55,000, the bric-a-brac at $55,000 more, and the pictures at $55,of Mr. S.L. M. Barlow, a modest citizen, the decoration of which cost $56,-600: Jay Gould's conservatory, just burned was valued at $200,000. Mr. Robert Bonner has $160,000 worth of horses with which to do a hundred

GRANT ON NEWSPAPERS.

He Indniges in Some Humpreus Re-night, General Grant spoke of newspa-

"I have been somewhat of a reader of newspapers for forty years. I could read very well when I was eight years of age and it has given me forty years of observation of the press, and there is one peculiarity that I have observed and that is in all of the walks of life outside of the press, people have entire-ly mistaken their profession—their oc-cupation. [Laughter.] I never knew a mayor of a city or even a councilman ernment official, I never knew a member of Congress, a Senator or a President of the United States who could not be enlightened in his duties by the youngest member of the press. [Laughter.] I never knew a General to command a brigade, a division, a corps, an army, who could begin to do it as well as men far away in their sanctums, and I often wondered. I was very glad to hear that the new spaper fraternity were ready to take, with perfect confidence, any office that might be tendered to them, from President to mayor; and I have often been astonished that the citizens have not done so, because they knew all these offices would have been well and properly filled. Well, gentlemen, I am very happy to have been here with you and I hope when a new generation, about twelve years hence, comes up, that I will again dine with the Press Club of New York city, and that I will see that those of this generation who are so well fitted to fill all the civil offices, have all been chosen and that there will be nothing left them to

North Carolina Bonds.

Rajeigh News and Observer. The course of North Carolina bonds on the market has been as follows: The North Carolina 4 per cent. consolidation bonds were put on the mar-ket in July, 1880, and were quoted at 60 cents; August, 75; September, 75; Oc-tober, 77; November, 78½; December, tober, 77; Nevember, 78%; December, 82. These are now quoted at $4.

The construction bonds, North Carolina Hallroad, with coupons, were: January, 1879, 87; February, 100; April, 106; August, 109; December, 111. They are now quoted at 115. With coupons off the quotations were: January, 1879, 78; March, 80; July, 88; December, 92; and they have stood about that figure aver since, being quoted now at 90. ever since, being quoted now at 90. North Carolina 6's, old, were quoted at 26 in January, 1880; March, at 29; August, 30; December, 32, and they are now quoted at 32½. In like manner the bonds issued since the war have ad-lanced from 15 in January, 1880, to 21, the present quotation, and special tax bonds that were quoted at 2 cents in July are now held at 7.

A Fertune in Charitable Bequests. bequests, varying from $3,000 to $100,- Distribution Company, Virginia Midfand Railroad.

Lynchburg Virginian. A circular has been issued by the new corporators of this company, naming the following executive offi-cers: John S. Barbour, president; L. W. Reid, secretary; W. H. Marbury, treasurer; A. McLean, auditor; Peyton Randolph, general superintendent, President Barbour appends to this his order continuing the officers and agents that were under him as receiver, and all the positions they held by that authority. The transition from the for-mer to the present organization has been made thus easily, and speaks well for all the officers and agents.

The Pressure on Garfield to Put a Negro in His Cabinet.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—A Cleveland dispatch say a delegation of colored men will wait upon Garfield to-day to urge him to appoint Governor Routt, of Colorado, to be Postmaster-General. On the 10th or 11th a delegation from Alabama will call on Garfield. It will consist of the Hon. B. F. Turner, G. W. Braxdall and other prominent colored Republicans of the State. They will ask that their race and section receive proper treatment from the Presidentelect in the appointment of his cabinet and the conduct of his administration. Garfield attends the banquet of Williams college alumni at Cleaveland to-night and will make a short speech. The same dispatch says it is pretty well understood among prominent Republicans, who know General Garfield, that he will not, as has been breadly suggested in some quarters, appoint Senator Bruce or any colored man to a place in his cabinet. Rumors that Governor Foster expects to go into the cabinet are all looked upon as sensational and Thousands Use It, Why Hesitate? Joy to the world! Woman is Free! Among the many discoveries looking to the happiness and amelioration of the human race, none is entitled to higher consideration than Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, "Woman's Best Friand." By it woman is emancipated from numberiess ills peculiar to her sex. Before its magic power all irregularities of the womb vanish. It cures "whites" suppression of the "menses," and removes ute-rine obstructions. It cures constipation and strengthens the system, braces the nerves and purifies the blood. It never falls, as thousands of days' driving a year. In a Herald last week there were five advertisements offering bouses for sale, the price of the lowest of which was $215,000 and the highest $385,000.

And so it goes. The days of gigantic fortunes in America has freely set in, and it is natural that there should purifies the blood. It never falls, as thousands of women will testify.

I have been selling Bradfield's Female Regulator for years, and it still continues popular—an evidence of its being all claimed for it. I can recall instances in which it afforded relief after all the usual remedies had failed.
