The Work-Basket.

The following exquisitely bright and witty lines accompanied the present of a work-basket sent to a lady recently married in Charlotte and were written by a lady friend who also resides in this city, and is not less loved and admired for her natural gifts and varied culture than for the delicate sympathy and gentleness of nature which like the refractive light from a crystal, softens the rarest outlines of life and cover with brightness the shadowed sides.

I send you no basket
For jewels and gold,
But a homely work-basket Your treasures to hold.

'Tis found as a rule
A needle and spool
In peace or in war
Than the sword or the pen
In the history of men.

What mighty conquests Off have on a thread!
What glorious conquests Are won by the needle!
We've all heard of, which If taken in time Will save us many a pain.

Thy gift, my dear friend,
You will always treasure Of a motto I fear Too often I hear
On the tongue and the lip;
It is "Let her knit."

Fatal experiment!
Don't ever try it,
Gentle reminder
Never came by it.
I'm bold in declaring
I'm bold in declaring
Under the sun.

But, "return to our muttons!"
Secure well the buttons,
And it will do more Than many a word,
Peace to perpetual,
Concord to cultivate—
To lengthen and strengthen The power all our own,
Our dower, that power Behind the three.

And now with the basket My love too I send,
Accept both—I ask it,
My very dear friend,
May every rich blessing Be yours to the end.

NEWS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Gatherings from the State Papers.

Raleigh News-Observer: The authorities at the office of assistant district attorney for the eastern district of North Carolina, and have appointed thereto Willis Bagley, Esq., of Jackson, Northampton county. Mr. Bagley is a brother of Major W. H. Bagley, of Raleigh, and is a gentleman of high character, well known for his courteous demeanour and learning as a lawyer.
The appointment is an excellent one, and will give great satisfaction to the bar of the eastern district.

Col. A. M. Waddell and F. W. Kerchner, Esq., of Wilmington, are in Washington. They appeared before the committee of commerce, of which Gen. Ransom is chairman, last Tuesday, concerning a bill pending in the Senate, and which passed the House at the last session, making the Cape Fear a free river and establishing a port of entry at Fayetteville. The old Cape Fear Navigation Company had the right in consideration of the expense and trouble of keeping the river clear of obstructions, to exact a toll of passing boats.

Asheville Citizen: Capt. Fry, who has charge of the construction of the bridge work on the W. N. C. Railroad, has almost completed the bridge across the Swannanoa two miles south of Asheville—it will be finished this week —and next week the work of laying the track to Smith's bridge on the French Broad will be commenced, and only a few days will be required to complete it. Can the Asheville News say any reason why this work should be allowed to go on?

While Buncombe county stands sixteenth in the State as to population, she stands second as to her white population—Wake being the only county with a larger white population—and if the latter has a portion of her territory sliced off for the benefit of Durham, as seems likely, it will leave Buncombe first. And this is not "Buncombe," either.

Raleigh News and Observer: The North Carolina millstone company has put up a telephone wire from Cameron, on the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line Railroad to their quarries at Parkwood, in Moore county, a distance of 10 miles. This is the longest telephone wire in the State.

On Wednesday last Trenton, in Jones county, was visited with quite a disastrous fire; four buildings, much merchandise and a small amount of cotton was destroyed. The fire, it is learned, originated in the store occupied by Mr.
C. H. Foy.

The Asheville Citizen states that the condition of Mrs. Taylor, wife of the Hon. Robert Taylor, of Tennessee, is much improved this week. Mr. Taylor has been with her for the past week.

Knoxville to Nashville.

Knoxville Tribune.

Nashville is becoming interested in the construction of a railroad direct from that place to Knoxville. This project, which has long been talked of, is rendered practicable. Heretofore such a connection would only have been a local line between the two cities, and while it would have been mutually advantageous to both it would not have been a paying enterprise. But now, since the completion of the Western North Carolina road is a certainty of the near future, the building of a road from Nashville to Knoxville, and thus giving the State capital a direct connection with the southeastern seaboard would be of immense advantage to Nashville. Knoxville would of course come in for her share of the profits, for a direct connection with Nashville, and middle and West Tennessee securing the shortest possible line to Memphis would secure valuable markets for our productions.

Knoxville now has an opportunity to kill two large birds with one stone by building the Emory Gap road. This will give us the much desired connection with Cincinnati and also bridges one-third the distance between Knoxville and Nashville. When this is done Nashville will not be long in building the Louisville and Nashville road. This connection with the southeastern sea-
board would be of immense advantage
course come in for her share of the
Nashville, and middle and West Ten-
markets for our productions.

The General City of a Former Slave.
A touching incident, which shows the kindness of mankind, is told in the New Orleans papers.
A former slave, who spent a dollar given him at New Orleans in the purchase of a ticket to his home, and with a portion of the money bought a horse, and with the balance bought a cow. He will buy again, as will many others, by paying no more than $100.
Broadway, New York City, or to the same person at New Orleans, La., before March 31, the next day.

It is a Well Known Fact.

among physicians that Buchu Juniper and Pareira tive. My little son had been a great sufferer from Spasmodic Croup during the night. Dr. Cheney's Coughs. I consider it a blessing in my family, every one should keep it in their houses. For sale
