Sheep's Lament.

Sheep once in convention assembled,
Appointed a "Ways and Means" committee,
Whose report very much resembled
This sad and most lugubrious ditty.
"We've warmed the backs of mankind since
From Noah's ark we were driven;
We've fed the mouths of serf and prince,
And on us they have thriven.
Now, all we ask at the hands of man,
As on life's journey we jog,
Is to work out some grateful plan
To save us from th' hungry dog.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

A bill to tax telegraph companies 2 per cent. on their gross earnings has passed the Illinois State Senate.

Mr. Bret Harte's drama, "The Two Men of Sandy Bar," has been produced in Germany under the title of "The Lost Son."

It cost $32 each to educate the 40,000 pupils of New York at the Public Grammar Schools, and the 70,000 Primary Schools pupils cost $45 apiece.

Hon. James Gilfillan, Treasurer of the United States, was a classmate of General Garfield at Williams College, and it is expected that he will retain his place under the next administration.

No less than 149 Frenchmen commit suicide every year. One hundred and sixty-three Americans die every year by their own hand, but the people most prone to self-murder are the Danes, 258 of whom annually indulge in felo de se.

The Rev. Dr. Withrow, of Boston, has no faith in Mother Shipton, bases no calculation on the perihelia of the planets, has no confidence in the dread forebodings of the Jamaica professor, but he does agree with the great students of Scriptural prophecy that we are near the end of the world.

Gen. Garfield made a statement this week that he had made no pledge in reference to an appointment in his cabinet, or any other place, to anybody in the whole country. He has thousands of applications for office, which he has filed for reference at the proper time.

Mr. Bret Harte is mentioned by a Paris correspondent of the Home News as "the most pronounced cockney in the whole of England." The California story-teller now talks to his American acquaintances about his "dinner last night with Lawd So-and-so, deah boy," and his engagement to-morrow to "sup with the prince, ye know."

It looks to "Gath" as if Jay Gould, Mahone and R. T. Wilson were trying to create a new trunk line from Shreveport, La., to Vicksburg, Miss.; thence by Meridian to Selma, Rome, Dalton, Bristol and Lynchburg to Norfolk, giving Gould's Texas Pacific an outlet to Virginia waters.

Gov. Holliday, whose term of office expires in January, 1882, contemplates making an extended tour of Europe as soon as he retires from official life. Before going, however, it is his expectation to make a trip through the Pacific States, extending it possibly as far as Alaska. He is at present making a short visit through several of the Southern States.

Mr. Charles O'Conor, the eminent counselor, was interviewed at his home, on the island of Nantucket, the other day, upon the Irish question. He said that the Irish outcry against British oppression undoubtedly was warranted, but that Americans have not time to interfere; that we have enough to do "in checking the growth of governmental evils at home."

Digest of Supreme Court Decisions.

Raleigh News and Observer.

SMITH, C. J.:

Eugland vs. Garner, from Moore. Affirmed.

The proper course to be pursued to invalidate a decree is not by motion, for after final decree there is no cause pending in which motion can be made, and the only remedy is by an action in the Superior Court, commenced by summons, as a substitute for a bill of review or for a bill to impeach the decree of fraud.

SMITH, C. J.:

Curtis vs. Cash, from Granville. Affirmed.

If one contributes land and horse, the other his labor and attention to the crop, they are partner's in the crop. When the separate share of each is allotted to him their joint ownership ceases. The statute (act of March 12, 1877), ceases to operate when the lessor has received his rent, whether in kind or in money, and there are no breaches of contract for which the crop is liable. An action in tort for the unlawful taking and carrying away the plaintiff's goods is properly brought in the Superior Court.

SMITH, C. J.:

State vs. Lashley, from Robeson. No error.

The averment, in a bill of indictment, of an adulterous intercourse implies the absence of marriage and is equivalent to a negation of it, and more forcibly implies that the parties are of different sexes, and dispenses with an allegation of that fact.

ASHE, J.:

Milliken vs. Fox and Staley, from Randolph. Appeal dismissed.

The advisory jurisdiction over an application on the part of a sheriff for advice as to application of money in his hands, raised by sale under execution in favor of different creditors, has only been exercised when a sheriff has collected money and has it in land.

"My Friends."

Yesterday, writes Gath, Gen. Grant was walking up the street with a close personal friend, when Carl Schurz's name was mentioned. Grant said: "Schurz and I have not been friendly since I went into the presidency twelve years ago. He announced before the Chicago convention, last summer, that if I should be nominated by it, he would not support me. That was fair and square. I would not have supported him if he had been nominated for the presidency. But Schurz, although my avowed opponent, has never busied himself, since he has been in the cabinet, in turning out my friends because they were Grant men. Secretary Sherman, however, has been turning out all the poor tide waiters and other small chaps earning a living for themselves if they were declared to be Grant men. I think Schurz has been the most chivalric and broad-minded man of the two."

Of Interest to the Doctors.

The medical profession throughout the world now regards with much interest the clinical records of the celebrated Charity Hospital at New Orleans, on account of its treatment of yellow fever and other malarial diseases. It is well to remember that the Louisiana State Lottery, to secure the valuable franchise it enjoys, contracted, and has paid promptly so far the instalments of the $1,000,000. The next drawing takes the place on March 8th, and any information can be had by writing to M. A. Dauphin, No. 319 Broadway, New York City, or the same person at New Orleans, La.

ATLANTA GROWS PIOUS.

Arrest of the Members of the Dizzy Blonde Company.

Atlanta Constitution, 19th.

Last night DeGive's opera house held a first-class audience, drawn there to witness the varied and unique performances as presented by Fanny May's Blondes. When the curtain rose there were seated upon the stage two cork-dyed individuals, five blondes and three musicians. About these there was nothing particularly striking, and the thirst of the audience for something "new" was not slaked. During the entire act the audience greeted the coarse jests with rounds of applause, and everything moved along smoothly until the "statuary" was presented. Before the curtain rolled up on this Atlanta novelty the police made an inspection of the costumes in which the ladies were to appear, and though they thought they were, thin, they allowed the scene to be presented and thus satisfy the longing desire of the audience for "something new." The scene, though rather fresh, was presentable. The curtain went down, the house went wild, and the police didn't know what to do.

By the time Miss Markham appeared to sing her "Yum-Yum" song they regretted their action and concluded to pull the show. Walking behind the scene the four police captains told the entire party to consider themselves under arrest, and then announced to the audience that the show would cease. The troupe seeing argument useless, submitted, and at once began removing their thin apparel and preparing for a march to the station house.

By twos they were marched to the station house, where they were given seats to await the arrival of Fanny May, the proprietress, who had left the opera house for her hotel before the the arrests were made. After quite a while she arrived and attempted to affect a release, but not being disposed to accept the terms dictated by Chief Anderson, her troupe still linger at the station house.

When the manager of the show appeared upon the stage and announced that the police had arrested the troupe, thereby suppressing the show, the audience yelled almost as loudly as when the song of the evening was sung. In fact, the arrest seemed to cause as much merriment as the show.

An Act to Permit Defendants in Criminal Cases to Testify in their Own Behalf.

The following has passed the General Assembly and been signed by the Speaker of the House and the President of the Senate:

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That chapter 43, section 16, Battle's Revisal, be amended by striking out the words "competent or compellable to give evidence for or against himself, or shall render any person."

SEC. 2. That in the trial of all indictments, complaints or other proceedings against persons charged with the commission of crimes, offenses and misdemeanors in the Superior, Inferior, Criminal and Justice of the Peace Courts of this State, the person so charged shall, at his own request, but not otherwise, be a competent witness. And his failure to make such request shall not create any presumption against him.

SEC. 3. That on the trial of all criminal actions, the wife of the defendant shall be a competent witness for defendant.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this, the 19th day of February, A. D. 1881.

A Shocking Accident.

Lincolnton Progress.

A painful accident befell Mr. Jacob Houser, in the upper end of of this county, last Thursday week, by which he lost his life. He was felling a tree at a chopping and was killed by a large limb from the tree against which the felled tree had lodged. His left arm and left thigh were broken, and the left side of the face and head were torn off, scattering the brains of the unfortunate man over the ground. He occupied a warm place in the hearts of all who knew him, and if he had an enemy in the world it is not known by those who knew him best. He leaves a wife and five children and a large number of friends and relatives to mourn his untimely death.

IN A BAD WAY.

Females whose nervous energies are exhausted, who suffer from indigestion, Costiveness, Headaches, Irregularities, Suppression and Miseries, caused by Degrangements of the Liver and other organs cannot be cured by medicines, but Dr. Flagg's Improved Liver and Stomach Pad never fails to restore to perfect health.

Smith's Scrofula Syrup and Star Curine are purely vegetable. Why will you suffer with Cancer, White Swelling, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Diseases when a few bottles of these two great remedies will cure you?

From C. D. McCurry, Newton county, Georgia: I take great pleasure in recommending to the public Dr. Cheney's Expectorant and Croup Preventive. My little son had been a great sufferer from Spasmodic Croup during the night. Dr. Cheney, about two years ago, prescribed for him his Croup Preventive, which has most miraculously cured him. I find it equally benficial in all cases of Coughs I consider it a blessing in my family, every one should keep it in their houses. For sale by Dr. T. C. Smith.

Try Smith's Scrofula Syrup for your blood. It removes all skin eruptions and will give you a beautiful and clear complexion.

WADLEY, EMANUEL CO., GA., Oct. 10, 1879.

Gentlemen:—While attending the General Assembly this summer, I tried your Star Curine on my leg, it being affected with an old sore caused by a wound received during the late war. After having thoroughly treated it I am compelled to say that it is a success, for I have had experience with different physicians and remedies, and found nothing to cure me until I used your Star Curine, which has cured a remarkably bad case. Wishing you success, I am yours, respectfully, JOHN BELL.

From B. F. Moore, A. M., President of Moore's Southern Business University, Atlanta, Ga:—This is to certify that I have used Dr. Cheney's Expectorant in my family for several years, and can recommend it as an invaluable remedy for Coughs, etc., and have found it superior to any other remedies that I have tried. A GREAT DECLINE IN WOOLEN GOODS!

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE PUBLIC!

Having received intelligence from our house in Baltimore, which is one of the largest purchasers of Woolens, that the same have declined from 10 to 15 per cent., which naturally makes a decline in Clothing, we consequently act accordingly, and we now offer our stock at Reduced Prices, as we only contract for large quantities. We are assured that we purchase at very close figures, and give every patron the benefit. We have more styles than any other house can show, and better made Clothing than any other sold in this market; for the simple fact that most of them are made in our own house and fit the same as a garment made to order. The most complete line of Overcoats, Ulsters and Ulsteretts that has ever been exhibited, ready-made, in this market. We invite the public to come and see facts.

ELIAS & COHEN.

We claim the BEST PORTABLE MILL made for grinding good Corn Meal for table use. It requires little dressing. Grinds from 1500 to 2000 bushels with one dressing. It makes round meal, not floury and pasty. It takes from 20 to 25 per cent. less power than any other Mill not using our Stones. Address BRANCH OFFICE NORTH CAROLINA MILL STONE CO., Charlotte, N. C.

"I have a pair of Moore County Grit Mill Stones which have been in use 50 years, constantly under heavy power. Grind 16 to 20 bushels per hour. Dress every 2500 bushels, and they make the best meal in the county. If I could not replace them with same grit, I would not part with them for five times the cost of ordinary stones. I believe them to be superior to any known stone or buhr for grinding corn meal. Respectfully yours.
