S.S.S.

OFFICE OF A. S. GILES, ORDINARY, HOUSTON COUNTY, TEXAS, Jan. 23, 1890.

In the year 1889, there were two or three persons confined in the jail of this county, who were very badly afflicted with a disease known as S.S.S. In my official capacity as Ordinary, I employed Capt. C. T. Swift, then a resident of this county, to cure them under a contract made with me. He administered to them his now justly celebrated Syphilitic Specific, and in a few weeks I felt bound under my contract, to pay him out of the county treasury, as he had effected a complete and radical cure.

In testimony of the above, I have hereunto set my official signature and seal the date above written.

A. S. GILES, Ordinary Houston County, Ga.

The Charlotte Observer.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 1891.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

Fifty-Third Day.

Condensed from the Raleigh News-Observer.

SENATE.

RALEIGH, March 5.—On motion of Mr. Finger, the House amendments to the Senate bill 459 (the school bill) were considered.

Mr. Finger moved that the Senate refuse to concur in the amendments to section 9, and the motion was adopted.

The amendment to section 12, allowing the Superintendent of Public Instruction $500 additional for expenses, was on motion of Mr. Finger, concurred in.

The amendment to section 25, providing that the money to build school houses shall be paid out of the fund appropriated for the year in which such school house is located, was concurred in.

The amendment to section 27, striking out "30th day" and inserting "third Monday," was not concurred in.

The amendment to section 35, to strike out "county board of education" and insert "board of county commissioners," was concurred in.

The second part of the amendment to section 36, inserting "February" instead of "December," was not concurred in.

The amendment to section 47, to strike out, in lines 3 and 4, "S2" and insert "S3," and to strike out, in lines 4 and 5, the words "not to exceed twenty-five days," and to strike out the proviso that the salary of the county superintendent shall not exceed 5 per cent of the school fund of the county of which he is superintendent. The yeas and nays were called on the motion to concur, and the Senate refused to adopt—yeas 16, nays 23.

The amendment to section 52, to strike out, in line 6, the word "may" and insert the word "shall," upon the motion not to concur, was not adopted—yeas 18, nays 23.

Another section (64) was added, providing for the employment of a clerk for the Superintendent of Public Instruction at a salary of $900. Not adopted—yeas 12, nays 27.

The amendment to section 62, to strike out, in line 4, the word "and" and insert "and" after the word "year" for four months, was not concurred in.

On motion, a conference committee was appointed to consider this bill. Messrs. Glenn, Carr and Spears were appointed.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

On motion of Mr. Brooks, of Transylvania, a bill to incorporate the Atlantic and French Broad Valley Railroad, which is to run from South Carolina through the counties of Transylvania and Henderson, was put on its second reading and passed.

The special order for 11 a. m. was the bill to establish three additional Superior Court districts.

Mr. Tate thought that two districts would now be sufficient, as the House had passed a bill giving one criminal district, and moved to strike out "three" and insert "two."

The previous question was ordered. The motion to strike out failed—yeas 31, nays 49.

Mr. Leak offered an amendment changing the county of Union to another district. Lost.

The bill passed its third reading—yeas 30, nays 53.

On motion of Mr. Blaisdell, the bill to amend the constitution so as to allow the members of the General Assembly to receive $5.00 per day for a period not exceeding 100 days, was put on its second reading.

Mr. Ray moved to table. The motion prevailed—yeas 74, nays 8.

The special order for 12 m. was Senate bill to establish a new county, to be called "ance."

The previous question was ordered, on motion of Mr. Day. The bill passed its third reading—yeas 52, nays 34.

Mr. Blaisdell moved that Senate bill to amend the charter of the town of Hickory be taken from the table. The motion prevailed, and the bill was placed on its second reading. Messrs. Blaisdell and Grainger spoke to the bill, thinking it ought to pass. Mr. Lineback opposed the bill, sending up a petition from the citizens of Hickory against its passage, which he had read as a part of his remarks. He moved to amend by striking out section 1. Not a quorum voted, and a call of the House was asked, but not sustained.

Mr. Grainger, by request, accepted the amendment of Mr. Lineback. The bill as amended passed its second and third readings.

EVENING SESSION.

Mr. Toon called up House bill for the encouragement of the State Guard. He spoke to the bill, explaining its provisions, etc.

Mr. Page concurred in all said by Mr. Toon. He had been a member of the State Guard since its organization, and had commanded one of the oldest companies of that body (the Elm City Rifles); would give his hearty support to anything that would help the Guard.

The bill then passed its third reading and was sent to the Senate.

House bill to incorporate the Western Union Normal School, for colored people, in Monroe, Union county, passed its third reading and was sent to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Boykin, Senate bill to allow the Auditor a $500 clerk.

Mr. Webster called for the yeas and nays, but was not sustained. The bill then passed its second and third readings.

House bill entitled "An act to raise revenue."

Mr. Tate offered several amendments, one of which was to strike out the amendment of Mr. Grainger, which was adopted last night, which he spoke to.

The amendments were adopted.

Mr. Bledsoe asked to have the bill read. After some opposition this was done, and the bill passed its third reading by a vote of 47 to 14.

The President's First Sunday at Church.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—President and Mrs. Garfield, accompanied by Mr. Garfield's aged mother and Mrs. Garfield's sister, attended church at the Little Church Around the Corner, on Vermont avenue. The late presidential household since the organization of the church, where the religion and morals of Mr. Hayes were moulded, was very truly attended, and twice as many anxious sinners flocked to the little wooden edifice as could be comfortably accommodated. Such is the whimsical fashion of religion at the capital. The little church will, however, soon give way to a handsome edifice, the money for the successful beginning of which is now nearly all collected or promised. Mr. Garfield shook hands with half the congregation to-day and otherwise greeted a large number of visitors who crowded the interior. General Hancock did not have his rooms during the day. In fact, the constant pressure of callers prevented. Half a dozen carriages were constantly waiting. General Phil Sheridan, red and rosy, was about the lobby, shaking hands with old friends and attracting much attention from others. Members of the late House are running around the city, many of them appearing to leave town; many have already gone.

INSANE ASYLUM BURNED.

It contained 500 inmates who were removed—Probably None Injured.—Lead 2000.

DANVILLE, Va., March 6.—The main building of the State hospital for the insane, at this place, caught fire last night in an unoccupied ward in the east wing, which was being repaired. The condition of the roads was such that a large fire engine, a mile and a half distant, could not be rendered until the fire had gained great headway. The steam fire engine belonging to this borough was dragged through the deep snow by six horses, but after getting into service it was rendered useless by the breaking of some of its machinery. Assistance was telegraphed for to the different towns in the vicinity, but before it could be furnished the ward being repaired, the main building were destroyed, a portion of the latter having been blown up for the purpose of saving the west wing. At about six o'clock this morning the fire was thought to be under control, but it broke out again, and this afternoon reached the west wing, which is now burning, but fire engines on the way from neighboring towns may be able to save it. The hospital was supplied with water from a large reservoir, but it was impossible to get a sufficient force on to be of any avail. Nearly five hundred patients were in the institution, all of whom were removed, without confusion or loss of life, to detached buildings in the rear of the main building. At the time the fire was discovered the inmates were in the hospital chapel at evening service, and this circumstance assisted in keeping the inmates under control and together. The most of them will have to be distributed to the other State institutions until some arrangements can be made for their care here. The managers are doing all in their power to make them comfortable. The building was in process of erection for some eleven years, and was only finally completed last year, and cost the State about $400,000. It was a substantial structure, built of stone, 1,140 feet, with a centre building and three sections on either side, covering an area of about three acres. The fire started in a faulty construction of the roof in not having firewalls above the roof between the different sections, as the fire spread nearly the length of the building along the roof. The origin of the fire is unknown. There is an insurance of about $250,000 on the hospital and furniture.

LATER PARTICULARS.

There have been saved six wards of the hospital, but the building is practically destroyed. The patients generally were greatly frightened, and were glad to escape from the burning building, in the light of an entertainment which had to be removed by sheer force. Dr. Schultz, the superintendent of the hospital, has telegraphed Gov. Hoyt that the female patients not taken in charge by the friends will be sent to Warren tomorrow, and that the present intention of the hospital authorities is to keep the males in the wards not destroyed. He concludes: "We have every reason to think that none are lost except by escape. Dr. Schultz had previously asked the trustees of the Harrisburg State Lunatic Hospital to take charge of one hundred females and twenty-five males, but the request could not be granted, as the institution could be made to accommodate only about one hundred additional persons, and a large majority of them males. The Warren Hospital has sufficient room to accommodate all the patients driven from the burned building. Dr. Curwen, of the Harrisburg State Lunatic Hospital, and Dr. Dilworth, secretary of the State board of charities, will arrive here tomorrow, at the request of the Governor, to assist in the proper treatment of the insane before and during their transfer to Warren."
