ELECTRIC TORTURE.

The Agonies Which the Killers of the Czar Were Compelled to Undergo.

According to a dispatch from Gene-va, Russakoff and Jaliboff, the killers of the Czar, have been mercilessly put to torture in the presence of General Loris Melikoff. Russakoff was elec-tricised by powreful batteries and forced by the intolerable agony he suffer-use the electric battery, as he somewhat grimly expressed it, so as to produce absolutely indescribable torture, unaccompanied by the wounds or even bruises, thrilling through every fibre of such miscreants. There was an American inventor who had a design for inflicting this species of punishment. He fitted brackets of ison on the arms and thighs of the criminal, and placed in them wet sponges. When connected with a current of electricity the sheek would ty this system pass through the legs and shoulders, and avoid the vital

"The tortue inflicted by electricity is of two kinds—by contraction of the muscles at rapidly recurring interwals and by burning with sparks. The tortures of old days, when not done hy fire or compression, were the straining and tearing asunder of the muscles. Of this kind were the rack, scavenger's daughter, and the cages of Louis XIV, in which a man could not stand up or lie down. The electric shock exactly reverses these conditions. It produces an enormously rapid contraction on the body of the muscles at very short intertricity has to be nicely graded, as a too powerful shock would numb or kill a

"The other method is by condensing a number of intermittent sparks on the flesh. This burns the skin, and at the muscles. If put to the side of the jaw it would make every tooth ache."

A distinguished surgeon, of whom questions were asked concerning the machine, said: "The best way to explain it is to give you actual experience; then you will know exactly how it feels. Here is a Faradic induction coil. I pull out this tube a little way. Now let me place this electrode to your hand. There."

"Oh!" exclaimed the inquirer, as a tingling, thrilling sensation ran through every tinger, and his hand closed in an

"Well, we'll try again. Now, you see, I pull this tube further out. I again touch it to your hand, and—"
"Whoop!" shouted the victim; "take it away!". The feeling was as if the hand was crushed in a vice. Every nerve ached and trembled with pain.

"That hurt, did it? Why, that is nothing. Here's something of a very different sort."

He fastened to one wire a small wet sponge, and to the other something like a paint brush, with the brush part made of fine wire. He put the sponge in the misitor's hard and then touched in the visitor's hand, and then touched the back of the hand with the wire brush. The pain was unbearable. The surface of the skin was scorched and the muscles of the hand were contract-

"That is called the electric scourge," said the doctor; "if it were dark you could see sparks fly from each wire. Imagine the effect if the electricity were ten times more powerful."

Park Benjamin, the scientific expert, said yesterday: "The idea of torturing criminals by electricity is not original with the Russians. It is a British invention, and was first suggested about five years ago by an English mechanical journal, in commenting upon the execution of criminals by electric shock instead of by hanging. The English writer wanted to do away with the cat o'nine tails, which is administered in England to garoters and other criminals of certain classes, and use the electric battery, as he somewhat

Today, however, he appeared before the directors of the road and withdrew all the propositions he had made them, as he could not raise the required amount in the time given. Colonel Humphreys has never divulged the names of the capitalists he claims to represent, but rumor has connected his scheme with Jay Gould, the Richmond and Danville road, and the Atlantic Coast Line, respectively. There is no incumbrance vals. The degree of pain produced is about the same. The force of the elec-will be pushed energetically forward.

chéeks and clear complexions.

None receive so much benefit, and none are so profoundly grateful, and show such an interest in recommending Hop Bitters, as women. It is the only remedy peculiarly adapted to the many ills which the sex is almost universally subject to. Chilis and fever, indigestion or deranged liver, constant or periodical sick headaches, weakness in the back or kidneys, pain in the shoulders and different parts of the body, a feeling of lassitude and despondency, are all readily relieved by these Bitters.—Courant.

The proprietors of that immensely popular remedy, Kidney-Wort, in recognition of the claims of the public which has so liberally patronized them, have prepared a liquid preparation of that remedy for the special accommodation of those who, from any reason, dislike to prepare it for themselves. It is very concentrated, and, as the dose is small, it is more easily taken by many. It has the not. Everything depended upon the restoration of peace and order in the old country by the present ministry. With reference to the future of Ireland he remarked: "No human being can foretell that.
