THE CADET TRIAL.

The Acquittal of Young Buck for Shooting Thompson.

NEWBURG, N. Y., April 13.—The trial of Beaumont B. Buck, the cadet at West Point from Texas, charged with shooting John G. Thompson, Jr., of Ohio, at Highland Falls, in June last, has been in progress to-day, before Justice Cullen, of the Supreme Court. Much interest was manifested. The courtroom was crowded, many ladies being present. The witnesses included a number of West Point cadets formerly students at Col. Huse's Academy, where the shooting occurred, the surgeon who attended Thompson. Col. Huse and his son, Buck and Thompson. The prosecution proved the fact of the shooting, as already known. The defense claimed that Buck had been subjected to all sorts of indignities and insults from the moment of his arrival at the school, Thompson being the leading spirit; that Buck was gentle, civil and inoffensive, and sought to avoid trouble; that he had left school and gone to board at a private house to get out of the way of his tormentors, and that the indignities were pushed to such an extent as to become unbearable, and caused Buck to be seriously apprehensive for his personal safety. The defense claimed and Buck testified that Thompson was the aggressor on the morning of the shooting, and was actually meanacing Buck at the time of the affray. Council for the defense presented testimonials of good character in favor of Buck from a clergyman, teachers and others, residents of Dallas county, Texas. The case was summed up for the defense this afternoon by Charles H. Winfield, of New York, and for the prosecution this evening by ex-Judge Stephen W. Fullerton. of New York. The jury retired at 8.40. They returned to the courtroom after being out an hour and ten minutes and rendered a verdict of acquittal. The announcement was received with loud applause and cheers, and on the adjournment of the court Buck received many congratulations, including those of members of the jury and many ladies, one of the latter affectionately embracing the Texan. Buck at once telegraphed the result to his father, at Hillsborough, Texas.

Anniversary of the Star-Spangled Banner.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—To-day is the 63rd anniversary of the present form of the flag of the United States, as adopted and established by Congress in 1818, when it was for the first time hoisted over the House of Representatives. It was designed by the late Capt. Sam. C. Reid, the commander of the United States private armed brig Gen. Armstrong, who fought the heroic battle of Fayal in 1814, against the overwhelming odds of a large British fleet, and was made, under his direction, by his wife and other ladies, at his house in New York city, Henry Clay being at the time Speaker of the House. A remarkable coincidence in this connection is that the son of Capt. Reid, Col. Sam. C. Reid, now temporarily in this city writing the life of his father, married Miss Josephine Rowan, of Kentucky, who is the grand-niece of the late Francis S. Key, who wrote the "Star-Spangled Banner," and daughter of the late John Rowan, formerly minister at Naples. It is proposed at the next session of Congress to take the proper steps to commemorate the event hereafter, and the initial movement is to be inaugurated here by a private celebration to-day.

Whittaker's Sharpness.

There has been a sharpness in some of colored Cadet Whittaker's replies to the questions put to him on cross-examination by the judge-advocate, in the course of the pending trial by court-martial, that shows that he is not only deficient in intellect, but that he has quite a talent for repartee. Witness the following:

"Judge-Advocate—You are a candidate for a commission in the army, are you not? A.—Yes, sir.

"Judge-Advocate—Don't you think that courage is a necessary requisite for an army officer? A.—Yes, sir.

"Judge-Advocate—Wasn't it your duty to submit to the threat of death rather than submit to such an outrage, in view of your candidacy? A.—No, sir; because death would have ended my candidacy." [Loud laughter.]

A little latter Whittaker declared, in answer to another question, that he was "not found deficient by the examining board, but was pronounced deficient." "Then why did the board pronounce you deficient if you were not?" "To get rid of me and the case," was the keen, quick reply. He is adroit too. When the questions appeared to have a damaging effect he answered evasively. He did not remember; he could not say; he could not answer a question, &c. During the course of his cross-examination he showed not only weariness but adroitness, some sauciness and occasionally wit.

The Arctic Expedition.

The Adjutant-General of the United States has issued an order to carry into effect the act of Congress providing for observation and exploration in the Arctic seas. Lieut. A. W. Greely, fifth United States cavalry, acting signal officer, having volunteered for the expedition, is placed in command of the force now organizing to establish a station north of the 81st degree of north latitude, at or near Lady Franklin Bay. The force will consist of two other officers who may volunteer their services, 21 men who may volunteer from the army or be specially enlisted, and one contract surgeon. The commander of the expedition is authorized to hire a steam sealer or whaler to transport the party from St. John's to Lady Franklin Bay. The expeditionary force shall meet at Washington not later than May 15, and St. John's not later than June 15.

Bernhardt's Bonanza.

Mr. Hy. E. Abbey, under whose management Mlle. Sarah Bernhardt has made her starring tour through the United States and Canada, has communicated to the New York papers the information that the actress will complete her engagement of 150 nights at Philadelphia next Saturday evening, by which time the management will have received from the engagement between $430,000 and $440,000, of which Bernhardt will take back to Paris about $200,000 as her share of the most successful dramatic engagement ever played in this country. It is understood that Mr. Abbey will also pocket at least $75,000 as his share of the profits. The manager speaks in the highest terms of Mlle. Bernhardt's ladylike and considerate deportment throughout the engagement.

A SMOOTH COMPLEXION can be had by every lady who will use Parker's Ginger Tonic. For promptly regulating the liver and kidneys and purifying the blood there is nothing like it, and this is the reason why it so quickly removes pimples and gives a rosy bloom to the cheek. See notice.

A STUDENT SHOT.

A Young Man Studying for the Ministry Killed for a Thief.

LAWRENCE, MASS., April 14.—Early this morning, Abiel Wilson, residing on the Salem turnpike, was awakened by footsteps in his house. Soon after his chamber door was burst open by two persons. Wilson discharged a rifle, shooting one of the intruders. Both fled, but the dead body of the one shot by Wilson was found a short distance from the house and proved to be that of Arthur Foster, a student at the Philadelphia Academy. His accomplice was his twin brother, Luther, also a studen. The latter after the shooting appeared and made a full confession. They were residents of North Andover, Massachusetts, and the sons of most respectable perents. About three weeks previously they had attempted to enter the same place. Further investigation of the crime and its tragic result show that Arthur Foster was a theological student studying for the ministry and that on the completion of his studies at the Phillips Academy he intended to enter the Andover Theological Seminary. By the confession of the surviving brother it appears that the pair entered and robbed Wilson's place six months ago, securing $1,000 in money and gold watches. Mr. Wilson had in his room $75,000 worth of stocks, bonds and other securities, the property being under no other protection than the owner's rifle. The object of the men was to secure, if possible, all this booty, intending to resort to violence if necessary to accomplish their end. Both had previously been in Wilson's employ and had no difficulty in passing the watch dog on the premises. The dead burglar was only 21 years old. It is thought now that other robberies hereabouts were committed by the Fosters.

Paul Boyton's Arrest in Brazil.

PITTSBURG, April 13.—Paul Boyton, the famous swimmer, was arrested and lodged in jail in Brazil several weeks ago for some alleged offense against that government. Efforts are now making by United States authorities to have him released and returned to this country. This afternoon Mayor Peterson, of Allegheny, received a telegram from Patrick Ford, editor of the Irish World, asking that certified naturalization papers of Terrence Boyton (Paul's father) be sent to Secretary Blaine at once. Terrence lived in this city from 1858 to 1868, and it is believed he took out naturalization papers while Paul was still under age. Mayor Peterson is looking up the matter and will forward the papers as soon as possible.

The De Lesseps Canal.

A Washington dispatch to the Boston Journal says: "Capt. Lull, of the navy, who has in years past had connection with the United States surveys for canal purposes on the Nicaragua and Panama routes, was recently ordered to Panama to take command of the Wachusett. While there he gave some attention to canal matters, and he writes: "That De Lesseps has several small serveying parties, composed of French engineers, with native laborers at work on different points along the route. So far no construction work has been commenced." Capt. Lull is more than ever convinced that De Lesseps's scheme of a tide-level canal is impracticable, and that no Panama canal will ever be constructed unless the originial plans are so modified as to entirely change the character of the work."

THE GREATEST BLESSING.

A simple, pure, harmless remedy, that cures every time and prevents disease by keeping the blood pure, stomach regular, kidneys and liver active, is the greatest blessing ever conferred upon man. Hop Bitters is that remedy, and its proprietors are being blessed by thousands who have been saved and cured by it. Will you try it? See another column.—Eagle.

"Malt Bitters" are a brain, nerve and blood food, peculiarly adapted to, and warmly recommended by, our druggists and physicians for general debility, mental and physical exhaustion, hysteria, nervousness, sleeplessness, emaciation and dropsy,

"I'M ALL PLAYED OUT,"

is a common complaint. If you feel so, get a package of Kidney Wort and take it, and you will at once feel its tonic power. It renews the healthy action of the kidneys, bowels and liver, and thus restores the natural life and strength to the weary body. It can now be had in either dry or liquid form, and in either way is always prompt and efficient in action.—New Bedford Standard.

Gentlemen:—While attending the General Assembly this summer, I tried your Star Curine on my leg, it being affected with an old sore caused by a wound received during the late war.
