A Perfect Corset at Last.

No More Broken Whalebones.

CORALINE

It is superior to horn or whalebone.
ITS ADVANTAGES ARE:
FIRST. It cannot be broken. A reward of $5 will be paid for every corset in which the Coraline breaks in six months ordinary wear.
SECOND. It is more pliable than whalebone and adapts itself more readily to the movements of the body.
THIRD. It is not affected by cold, heat or moisture.
FOURTH. It is the cheapest and most serviceable corset ever made.

OBSERVATIONS.

Sara Bernhardt is reported to be about to marry M. Angelo. According to the law of France a husband can divorce his wife at the caprice of his will. It is said that the lady who has been divorced has had the money paid to her by her husband.

Ladies have more sense than men in restaurants and hotels, and we believe that a rule they do not like the custom of tipping waiters.

Be sure to plant a pine tree in your back yard.
A pine tree 8 1/2 years old, which was cut down recently at Crystal Springs, New York, yielded $300 in lumber.

Two English ladies describe the pleasure they find in tramping, with a donkey to carry provisions, cooking utensils, waterproofs and a tent. They probably took their husbands along.

A woman in San Antonio attempted to commit suicide with kerosene. Why didn't she try a horse? The dose she administered would have saved her a deal of trouble.

Blindness is not always a total loss of vision; there are most blind who can see only in one direction.

General Grant is pretty mad about the way in which Conkling has been treated. When he gets up here and realizes the full extent of the wrong he will want to the one hand behind him and dare the administration half way. - Phila. Times.

Senator John Sherman, after long reflection, decides that he is impaled in the great republican. He will also deny that the plans of his new house in Washington were drawn for him at the expense of the country.

Political Mad-Throwing.
Wash. Cor. Baltimore Sun.

A prominent and influential Republican member of the House said, in conversation with your correspondent today, that never, in all his experience in politics, had he seen anything so unpleasant as is now indulged in by trusted leaders of the Republican party and their adherents toward each other. In the most excited campaigns, he said, the Democrats had never made such charges or used such language toward their opponents as members of the same party are now indulging in. In public places here the President of the United States is constantly denounced by those who do not belong to his party, and in the most objectionable manner.

100 years.

Indian Strategy in a Business Matter.
Carson (Nev.) Appeal.

The Indians of the Walker Lake Reservation feel very happy since their victory over Mr. Yerington and the Carson and Colorado Railroad. It appears that when the railroad company treated for the right of way through the reservation the Indians agreed to receive a full pay of $750 a year for the right to ship free over the road forever fish or other produce which they might wish to bring to market between Hawthorne and the Mound House. Walker Lake is swarming with fine trout.
When the new road reaches Walker Lake the Indians will be the bosses of the fish market of the State. The Indians say that if Mr. Yerington had known how many fish they could catch in a day he would never have entered into such a contract. The Indians laid their wires for this thing long ago, and when Mr. Yerington visited Walker Lake they put up a job on him. They invited him to spend a day fishing, which he did, and gave him a bait which he absolutely refused to take. He the bucks also fished with him, some using no bait at all. The result of the day's toil was a small white-fish and a couple of half-pound trout. The savages pretended that the day sport had been very fine and got up a big dance in honor of the catch, remarking that the fishing had never been so good for them. In an unguarded moment he signed the fish contract.
