No More Broken Whalebones.

After spending over twelve thousand dollars in experiments, Dr. Warner has perfected a material for boning corsets called

CORALINE

ITS ADVANTAGES ARE:

FIRST. It cannot be broken. A reward of $5 will be paid for every corset in which the Coraline breaks with six months ordinary wear.

SECOND. It is more plable than whalebone and adapts itself more readily to the movements of the body. THIRD. It is not affected by cold, heat or mois-FOURTH. It is the cheapest and most service-THE CORSET made.

THE CORSET is made throughout of superior materials, and is warranted in every respect. If not found entirely satisfactory, the purchase money will be refunded. Ask for

Dr. Warner's Abdominal Corset. With extension front. Unequaled for beauty, ele-gance and style. And

Dr. Warner's Nursing Corset,

CROSS-BONED HIP CORSET. We have the exclusive sale in this market of the above corsets, and will be pleased to have the trade inspect them.

REGULATING THE DRUGGISTS. The State Board of Pharmacy and Its Important Circular-Regulation of the Sale of Poisons-Registration and Examination of Druggists. Raleigh News and Observer, "You are hereby notified that the board of pharmacy, created and organized under an act of the General Assembly of North Carolina, passed at the last session, which goes into effect on the first day of June, 1881, will hold its first meeting in Raleigh on the 30th day of August next, by which time all persons who desire to practice the profession of druggist or pharmaceutist in this State, as required by law, are expected to have their applications for registration, accompanied by an affidavit made in accordance with blank herewith enclosed, together with the fees, on file in the office of the secretary of the board of pharmacy, for the action of the board when it meets. Those who can register upon the above affidavit without examination are (1) graduates of colleges of pharmacy recognized ates of colleges of pharmacy recognized by the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association, or (2) those who at the time of the passage of said act have had three years' practical experience in the preparation of physicians' prescriptions, and in compounding and vending medicines and poisons, or (3) those who are or have been regular practicing physi-cians, or (4) those who were in business on their own account at the passage of this act.

All persons desiring to become licentiates of this board are required to present themselves before the same and show to its satisfaction, by examination, that they are duly qualified, and have had three years practical experience in the preparation of physicians prescriptions and in compounding and vending medicines.

For the information and guidance of the persons interested, an abstract of the pharmacy act of 1881, is subjoined. Section 8 of this act makes it unlawful and indictable to adulterate drugs, chemicals and medicines, or expose them to sale, knowing them to be adulterated; also requires registered pharmaceutists to obtain a renewal of their registration annually, within thirty days before the annual meeting of the board of pharmacy.

Section 3 makes it unlawful for any person, unless a regular pharmaceutist, to open and conduct any pharmacy or store for selling or preparing medicines and poisons, or for any one not a registered pharmaceutist to prepare a prescription, except under the supervision of a registered pharmaceutist.

Section 9 says: It shall be unlawful for any person, under a penalty of twenty-five dollars for each and every offence, from and after the passage of this act, except as provided herein, to retail any poison enumerated in schedules A and B, as follows, to-wit:

Schedule A.—Arsenic and its preparations, corrosive sublimate, white precipitate, red precipitate, bin-iodide of mercury, cynanide of potassium, hydrocyanic acid, strychnine, and essential oil of bitter almonds.

Schedule B.—Aconite, belladona, col-ful for any person to sell or deliver any accept this proposition, poison enumerated in said Schedules A and B, unless upon due inquiry it be found that the purchaser is aware of its poisonous nature, and represents that it is to be used for a legitimate purpose, nor shall it be lawful for any person to sell any poison included in Schedule A, without before delivering the same to the purchaser, causing an entry to be made in a book kept for entry to be made in a book kept for that purpose, stating the date of the sale, the name and address of the purchaser, the name and quantity of the poison sold, the purpose for which it is represented by the purchaser to be required, and the name of the dispenser, such book to be always open to proper authorities for inspection. The provisions of this act shall not apply to the dispensing of poisons in usual doses and by physicians' prescriptions."

Druggists failing to receive a copy of the circular alluded to above, whose address the secretary of the board may have been unable to procure, can get all the necessary information and blanks by applying to Mr. William Simpson, secretary, Raleigh.

A HANDSOME COLT.

The Career of Mr. Keene's Kentuckian-Races Won in England-The Foxhall, the first American horse to carry off the blue ribbon of the French turf, is by long odds the handsomest three-year-old ever sent from this coun try to Europe, and it is only to be regretted that he had no engagements of importance in England this spring. He was bred by A. J. Alexander, at the celebrated Woodburn Stud Farm, in Woodford county, Kentucky, and in 1879 was sold at the annual sale of yearlings for $650. The colt was purchased for J. R. Keene, who was at that time beginning to invest heavily in thoroughbred racers. Foxhall was not by any means the most fancied of Mr. Alexander's yearlings in 1879, but Mr. Keene's agent saw in the son of King Alfonso and Jamaica a future race horse of great beauty, power and speed, and the colt has verified all the good things that were predicted of him when he was trained into two year old form. His breeding is as near perfect as it could be, and one of the most noticeable things about it is that it is even more purely American than that of Iroquois, Mr. Lorillard's Derby win-

King Alfonso, the sire of the winner of this year's French Derby, was foaled in America and his racing career was brilliant. He was added to Mr. Alexander's stud after leaving the turf but, like Leamington, Foster, Bonnie Scotland and many other great stalions were treated at first, he was not much liked by breeders, and consequently his get out of first class mares has been small. Now, however, he will in all probability become one of the most fashionable stallions in America. He was sired by imp. Phaeton out of Capitola, by Vandal out of a daughter of Marquise and Mistletoe, and Phaeton was a son of the famous King Tom and a noted mare called Merry Sun shine. Jamaica, the mother of Foxhill, is by the great Lexington out of Fanny Ludlow, one of the fleetest daughters of imp. Eclipse and Mollie Jackson.

Foxhall was shipped to England in the summer of 1880, and on October 13, of the same year, sported racing colors for the first time, when he ran six furlongs for the Bedford stakes at New Market. The American colt started in his maiden race with odds of eight to one offered against him The State Board of Pharmacy, composed of Wm. H. Green, president, Wilmington; William Simpson, secretary, Raleigh; E. M. Nadal, Wilson; E. H. Meadows, Newbern; and A. S. Lee, Raleigh, has sent out an important official circular to druggists. It says:

"You are hereby notified that the board of pharmacy, created and organfive furlongs, and although he galloped away from Simnel, the favorite, he was beaten by Sayoyard, an outsider, who won from the Yankee representative by less than a length. He next appeared on October 28, in the Bretby Nursery handicap stakes, three-quarters of a mile, at the Newmarket Houghton meeting, and with 124 pounds up and odds of 10 to 1 freely offered against odds of 10 to 1 freely offered against him, won a capital race by a head from Heyday, the favorite, who carried only ninety-six pounds. This performance proved that Foxhall was a great colt and the English critics began praising him freely. Foxhall was thrown out of training after defeating Heyday and did not appear in public again until this spring, when, on April 27, he started in the City and Suburban handicap, one mile and a quarter, at Epsom. The one mile and a quarter, at Epsom. The book-makers offered 33 to 1 against Foxhall, but he managed to secure second place from Bend Or, the favorite, and beat P. Lerillard's Burritt and twenty-one others. His next engagement was the Grand Prix, for which Sherard his trainer carefully prepared ment was the Grand Prix, for which Sherard, his trainer, carefully prepared him. His future English engagements are the Rouse memorial stakes, at Ascot, June 16; the Ascot gold cup on the same day; the summer cup, at Newmarket, July 9; the Grand Duke Michael stakes, September 29, at Newmarket; the select stakes, October 12, at Newmarket, and the fourth grand challenge stakes, October 14, Newmarket. Among the entries for the events Foxhall is engaged in are such cracks as Iroquois, Peregrine, Bend Or, Robert the Devil, Chippendale, Post Obit, Waltenstein, Burritt, Geologist, Scebell, Prestonpans and Town Moor.

Fordham, who rode Foxhall, has been riding for twenty-five years, and is now in the neighborhood of forty years of age. He is known as the "Demon Rider." His first victory was in 1857, when he won the Cambridgeshire handicap. Two years later he won the thousand Guineas on Mayonaise and the Oaks on Summerside. His first success in the Two Thousand Guineas was on Vauban, the Duke of Reguford's horse in 1867, and his secregistration annually, within thirty days before the annual meeting of the board of pharmacy.

Institute the transfer of the large transfer on Vauban, the Duke of Beauford's horse in 1867, and his second capture of this prize was in 1880 on Petronel, also the property of the same nobleman. He has won the One Thousand Guineas race five times and the Oaks five times, the last being this year's race on Thebais. He retired in 1875 with a fortune, which was lost, and in 1878 returned. That year he rode 58 winners; in 1879 he won 47 victories and 105 in 1889 he won 47 victories and 105 in 1889 his record for tories, and 105 in 1880, his record for the last year being only beaten by Ar-cher, who scored 120.

Patti Refuses $5,000 a Night.

The New York Times gives an account of the failure of the negotiations to secure Adeline Patti for a series of Schedule A.—Arsenic and its preparations, corrosive sublimate, white precipitate, red precipitate, bin-iodide of mercury, cynanide of potassium, hydrocyanic acid, strychnine, and essential oil of bitter almonds.

Schedule B.—Aconite, belladona, colchicum, conium, nux vomica, henbane, savin, ergot, cotton root, cantharides, ereosote, digitalis and their pharmaceutical preparations, croton oil, chloroform, chloral hydrate, sulphate of zinc, carbolic acid, oxalic acid, opium and its preparations (except paregoric and other preparations of opium containing less than two grains to the ounce,) and other deadly poisons, without distinctly labelling the bottle, box, vessel or paper in which said poison is contained, with the name of the article, the word "Poison," and the name amd place of business of the seller; nor shall it be lawful for any person to sell or deliver any present any manumerated in said Schadules A
