Censure of "The Observer."

At a meeting of the citizens of Charlotte at the court house to express their disapproval of the article in THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER of to-day, concerning the attempted assassination of President Garfield, Gen. Thos. F. Drayton was called to the chair, and Wm. B. Griffith and Thos. M. Pittman were requested to act as secretaries.

Gen. Drayton stated that the meeting was called to express the disapproval of an article in this morning's OBSERVER regarding the attempted assassination of the President.

Lev. E. H. Harding said that he had read with much regret the editorial referred to and that while he entirely approved of the meeting he hoped that in passing resolutions condemning the views expressed in THE OBSERVER there would be no discourtesy expressed to Col. Jones. That he was sure Col. Jones had written the article with forethought as to its effect.

He thought there should be decided disapproval of the sentiments of the article which was so contrary to the feelings of the people, but no censure of Col. Jones further than the condemnation of his editorial.

S. Wittkowsky, said that before going farther he hoped the meeting would hear Col. Jones in explanation of his article. That he had known Col. Jones many years and he had seen him in many and varied circumstances—in public and political meetings and in festive and social gatherings—that under all circumstances he had found him honest, warm, and true.

Mr. Chairman—As a citizen of this community last Saturday I cheerfully and heartily endorsed the resolutions of sympathy and condolence with President Garfield in his present afflictions, then presented and adopted, and I now reiterate my sentiments as then expressed by a rising vote. For the article in this morning's OBSERVER I desire to say that no human being is perhaps so proud as I am to have my name called on to re-write it should perhaps on reflection not allude to the political record of Mr. Garfield before he was inducted into the high and responsible office of President, and I desire to say now that it was perhaps impolitic, and yet during the campaign, which ended with his election in last November, I stood in the position now occupied by the chair, and addressing a political meeting in the city, I referred to the very same facts, which I believed then and believe now to be true.

I recognize the power of this community to draw me up before the bar of public opinion, but I did not consider it a crime to allude to the record made by Mr. Garfield in the matter of the Louisiana election when he more than any and all others gave that State to Hayes instead of Tilden, thus reversing the verdict of the people of these United States, in their choice for President in 1876. In my article this morning I spoke for myself and myself only. The people in public meeting assembled, I wish to have already been put on record, by the resolutions adopted Saturday, and in writing up my reflections last night I did not do so with that care which the importance of the subject demanded. If I am to be hung I have come here in at hanging, and to say, as suggested by Mr. Wittkowsky, who has just taken his seat, that if I have erred my errors have been errors of the head and not of the heart.

I have published nearly 3,000 daily issues of THE OBSERVER in Charlotte, which day by day, week by week, month by month and year by year, have been hand in hand with the people of the city, and this is the first time I have been arraigned before the bar of public opinion for anything I have said. I do not now acknowledge that I have done anything wrong, but the size of this meeting to night indicates that in the sentiment of the community I have been indiscreet and I bow before the verdict.

Mr. R. N. Tiddy moved that a committee of five be appointed to draft resolutions. The chair appointed R. N. Tiddy, S. Wittkowsky, Rev. E. H. Harding, W. Ludolf and R. Y. McAden. The committee, after retiring to consult, returned and reported the following resolutions:

Whereas, the CHARLOTTE OBSERVER in its issue of to-day has expressed, editorially, views and opinions regarding the attempted assassination of the President so far removed from the feelings of this community as to be in direct opposition to the real sentiments of the citizens of this city; and whereas, the people of this city, in a largely attended meeting, held Saturday evening last, expressed by a unanimous vote their sincere regret and genuine sorrow for the murder of President Garfield, and their hearty approval of the resolutions passed at that meeting, and whereas, the same meeting without a dissenting voice expressed their abhorrence for the vile deed done upon the person of the President and through him upon the people of the entire country; therefore,

Resolved, That we in no wise endorse the editorial in to-day's OBSERVER, but differ totally from the views therein expressed, which are entirely contrary to the sentiments of this whole community; and

Resolved, That in offering to the President our sympathy and hope for his recovery, we but gave voice to the real, genuine and heartfelt feelings that pervade the entire city; and further

Resolved, That we repudiate and condemn each and every sentiment expressed in the said editorial, save the regret for this attempted assassination and the hope for his speedy recovery; and further

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting and these resolutions be published in the CHARLOTTE OBSERVER, Charlotte Democrat and Southern Home.

It was moved and seconded that they be adopted. Mr. R. Y. McAden said that he had read the article in this morning's OBSERVER with as much regret as any one. That in approving of the resolutions he desired to say that he knew the value of Col. Jones to the city of Charlotte, and that in editing a daily paper it was difficult to be always right. He felt satisfied that Col. Jones would set himself right. He (Col. Jones) was not the first man who had made a mistake. Said the opinions expressed in yesterday's (Monday's) issue of THE OBSERVER, while those of Sunday morning's issue were in full accord with the public. So this morning's paper was all wrong, but he was sure to-morrow's paper would be right again.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted and the meeting adjourned. THOS. F. DRAYTON, Chairman. WM. B. GRIFFITH and THOS. M. PITTMAN, Secretaries.

Prohibition in Salisbury.

A large prohibition meeting was held in Salisbury on the glorious fourth which was largely attended by both white and colored people. The meeting was addressed by Judge Dick, of Greensboro, Col. J. P. Thomas, of Charlotte, and a colored man of the vicinity. Our informant reports that the prohibition cause as prosperous in that section and that D. A. (banker) Davis is grimly in earnest.

Struck by Lightning.

Mr. W. S. Brown, a prominent farmer who lives about three miles south of the city, made a trip to Pineville last Thursday and on his return, not far from the latter place, was caught in a thunder storm. He took shelter under a large tree near the roadside, and his horse becoming restive he dismounted and held him by the bridle. Soon an unusually severe clap of lightning struck the tree and from this point two forks, one of which struck his horse, killing him instantly. The other passed through the rim of Mr. Brown's hat and striking over the right eye, crushed him, the thumb of the right eye lay in an unconscious condition. He was found by the roadside about dark and carried to the house of Mr. J. T. Downs where measures were taken to revive him. In a few days he was removed to his own residence where he now lies in a critical condition. The physician in attendance expresses hope of his recovery.

Bitten by a Snake.

Mr. R. H. Lavercombe, the gentlemanly manager of the Singer sewing machine office in this city, was out gunning with some friends on the Fourth of July when, in passing through the woods, he suddenly felt a stinging sensation in the calf of one of his legs, and on investigating the nature of it discovered that he had been bitten by a snake. In a minute the leg was swollen nearly double its natural size and tingling all through with the sensation that usually results from one's extremities "going to sleep." A pint of whiskey, with which the party were supplied, was quickly swallowed by Mr. Lavercombe without perceptibly affecting him. He was driven to the nearest house where a first aid kit was obtained and swallowed, still without having any effect upon him. On top of this he was given some "cherry bounce," which made him sick, and antidote and poison to fight it out. The anti-prohibition measure in this instance, was successful and Mr. Lavercombe was out of danger yesterday from the bite, though his leg was still swollen and an ugly black spot marked the place where the fang of the snake had cut it.

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

HALL HORNET STEAM FIRE CO. No. 1, Charlotte, N. C., July 5th, 1881.

At a regular meeting of the Hornet Steam Fire Company No. 1, held at their hall on Friday evening, July 1st, the following was unanimously adopted:

Lee Steam Fire Company, and the citizens of Greenville at large, for the elegant hospitality extended during our visit; that we will ever remember with pride and gratification the very many individual attentions shown us, and in this connection desire to return special thanks to Miss Minnie Elkin, for the handsome souvenir that now decorates our hall.

Resolved, That the secretary of this company be requested to forward a copy of these resolutions to each of the Greenville companies, and also to Miss Elkin, with the hope that we may be able to reciprocate the many courtesies at an early day, and with the assurance of our warmest friendship.

O. F. ASBURY, Secy. C. T. WALKER, Com. I. H. WILSON.

Greenville papers please copy.

Mr. James Daley, who resides at No. 551 Ninth avenue, New York, says: About five years since I fell from a scaffold and severely injured my back and have been a sufferer ever since. A short time ago I slipped and fell on the sidewalk, and greatly aggravated my old trouble. While in this unhappy condition a friend recommended St. Jacobs Oil, and I was induced to give it a trial. The result was that I was completely cured, and only of the bruises and effects of my last fall, but of those consequent upon my first hurt, and which had lingered with me for five years. I can, therefore, conscientiously bear testimony to the wonderful curative properties of St. Jacobs Oil.

"MY BACK ACHES SO, and I feel miserable," said a hard-working man. The doctor questioned him and found that he had been habitually costive for years, that now his kidneys were diseased and his whole system deranged. Kidney medicine was recommended and faithfully taken and in a short time every trouble was removed. The cleansing and tonic power of this medicine on the bowels and kidneys is wonderful.—Congregationalist.

A ROMANCE OF A POOR YOUNG MAN. A reporter of the Philadelphia Record recently sought out a young German cigar maker in that city named Delmar, residing at No. 899 North Ninth street, and found him with $5,000 in greenbacks, a property of his own, and going into business for himself on the river front. This came from expending $1 for a ball ticket in the Louisiana State Lottery. There will be over $110,000 distributed in this manner July 12th. A venture of ten wins.

TROUBLESOME CHILDREN.

That are always wetting their beds ought not to be scolded and punished for what they cannot help. They need a medicine having a tonic effect on the kidneys and the urinary organs. Such a medicine is Kidney Wort. It has specific action. Do not fail to get it for them.—Exchange.

PILES CURED by Liebig's Colic Arrested Extract of Which Hulse, Prof. E. M. Hale, M. D., L. L. D., of the College of Medicine, New York, has extraordinary power over that disease. Professor Sidney Singer, of the University Medical College, London, says: "I have found it singularly efficacious." Beware of worthless imitations. Also cures the rheumatism, catarrh and neuralgia. Sold in fifty cents and dollar sizes.

EDWIN BOOTE.

"It did me much good," says this celebrated actor, in speaking of the Liebig's Colic Arrested Extract. Beware of imitations. Ask for Coca Beef Tonic.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE.

A LADY'S HAIR SAVED BY ITS USE. Burnett's Cocoaïne will keep the hair in a strong and healthy condition by stimulating the roots of the hair and restoring the natural action upon which its growth depends. Twenty years ago a single bottle saved a lady's hair in a desperate case where every other treatment had failed; and since that early success thousands of cases of baldness, dandruff, loss of hair, and irritation of the scalp, have yielded to this remedy.

The superiority of Burnett's Flavoring Extracts consists in their perfect purity and great strength.

BIRDFOOT ALDIE and IRON SPIGULES WATER AND MORE.—The great tonic and stimulant contains twice as much iron and fifty per cent more alumina than any other tonic and iron tonic known. Just the thing for the "spring weakness" now so general. Sold by all druggists at any standard price. While those of Sunday morning's issue were in full accord with the public. So this morning's paper was all wrong, but he was sure to-morrow's paper would be right again.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted and the meeting adjourned. THOS. F. DRAYTON, Chairman. WM. B. GRIFFITH and THOS. M. PITTMAN, Secretaries.
