AN ADDRESS ON THE MATERIAL INTERESTS OF NORTH CAROLINA AND THE RELATIONS OF THE PRESS THERETO.

Delivered Before the Ninth Annual Meeting of the North Carolina Press Association, at Winston, June 23rd, 1881.

[CONCLUDED.] In vindication of the honor of the State, if not for the protection of its interests, the press should bestir itself to correct these errors, of whose existence it cannot altogether plead ignorance.

Both of these, or rather the source of their supply are so emphatically at home in North Carolina as to entitle them to be classed as indigenous.

Other products of minor importance might be named, the field pea, for instance, now bought annually in this State by the planters of Louisiana to return the fertility of exhausted sugar plantations, used also at home as a crop to regenerate our own lands.

It can be used Clear or with Fresh Milk, Ice, Soda, or Hot Water, Lemonade, or with Fine Ice, to Suit the Taste.
