the President in 1858, in her 23d year, and in his 27th. She is now in her 48th year.

Six ladies who went to a seaside re-sort near Boston the other day and engaged a hotel room in which to leave their shawls and other light baggage were dumbfounded a few hours later to find themselves charged $12 for its use.

A son of Hon. Hugh McCulloch has purchased the farm of Jonn Booker, in Buckingham county, Va., for $15,000. C. W. Gallaher, of New York, has bought the London and Virginia Com-pany's gold and copper mines, in the same county, for $20,000.

The superintendent of immigration has received letters from Pennsylvania requesting information as to farming in South Carolina, as many persons in that State desire to emigrate to this State.

While in Chicago recently a citizen of Jackson, Mich., was paid a trade dollar in a business transaction, which afterward, on a close examination, he found quite defective in weight. Up-on carefully scrutinizing it further he detected a little pin emerging from the edge, and pressing it, the face of the coin flew open, revealing inside the photo of a lady's countenance. So admirably is the work done that when closed the eye cannot detect the place of contact of the detached circular face with the body of the piece.

There are but four steps. Will he seize me in those horrible arms of his, thought I, from which the matted, coa se hair hung, and toss me into the burning, seething mass of fire and flame beyond us? Another step he came. Oh, heaven! but one little short step now I made a superhuman effort to now. I made a superhuman effort to now, if made a superhuman enout to move, if but a muscle; but, alas! I could not. The loathsome body of the brute touched me. My breath came in gasps and my heart stood still, awe stricken. One dread, claw-like hand griped upon my shoulder as the other arm of the wild beast was raised to his near the furged there for a moment neck. He tugged there for a moment as if for breath and strength. How I sickened and shuddered as he threw the great mass of hair and hide over his head and revealed a rough Celtic face within, and asked in horrid, frightened and strong Hibernian tones: "For the love of St. Patrick show me the way out of this!"

What is Killing the President.

Wash. Letter to the Pittsburg Dispatch. The solicitude on the part of the public for the distinguished sufferer at the White House has obscured for the time White House has obscured for the time being the petty bickerings and disgrace-ful quarrels of the doctors. I shall be very much surprised, however, if, when it is all over and Mr. Garfield is well or dead, the particulars of the most dis-gusting medical wrangle on record do not become public. Human nature never appears to worse advantage than when bickering over a corpse, or over
