GERMAN COLONIZATION

IN WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA.

Philadelphia Agents on a Tour of Inspection—They Express Themselves as Delighted with the Country and Climate, and Think It Admirably Suited for the People which They Propose to Send.

Messrs. J. Edelman, Fr. Brandly, Fr Schoen, and P. Michel, a committee representing the Teutonia Immigration Society, of Philadelphia, reached the city yesterday, via the Air-Line, from an extensive prospective tour in Western North Carolina.

During the afternoon they were in consultation with Mr.W.W. Flemming, attorney and immigration agent of this city. Mr. Flemming took the gentlemen out for a ride, from which they returned much pleased with our little

A reporter of THE OBSERVER called upon them at the Central, and from Mr. J. Edelman obtained some interesting facts with regard to the work of their society and the impression they obtained of Western North Carolina as suited to German immigration.

Mr. Edelman said he and his party had visited Asheville, Hendersonville, Brevard and other towns in the southwestern counties.

"What do you think of the country?" inquired the reporter. "I like it unqualifiedly. We find there everything we want—land, timber, water-power and climate. I shall make very favorable reports to the society. The only difficulty in the way is the uncertainty of title and that is one of the greatest advantages which the West offers to the immigrant. In the government and railroad lands there are no old deeds and grants to be looked into. The government grant guarantees the title at once. If there is one thing more than another which the immi-The circus pictures will charm grant dreads it is an attack on his title. Of course it is perfectly natural for one to fear that among strangers he may be tricked in the beginning and fail to get justice when it comes to a trial. So that nine out of ten prefer to go West, where nothing intervenes between the government grant and the peaceful possession. The immigrant is of course nearly always a poor man, who cannot afford a lawsuit for his land even when he is confident of perfect fairness. But this difficulty in Southern immigration is made of little account now, at least along the Piedmont Air-Line, for that company offers with great liberality to have the title of all lands within the territory of its connections which immigrants may desire to occupy examined by able legal council and guaranteed. This and other offers of this company place it, I think, far ahead of the Western roads in the liberality of its

But you must understand that we have as miration if the street comments are to | yet made no investment, although there is little doubt that we will, if the title can be approved. The society that I represent will devote itself especially to the settlement in the South of German colonies ranging from one to five hundred families, which, of course, will demand large tracts of land. For the present we propose to bring them from among the German population of the Northern States, and then through our connections with European emigration has been postponed until some time societies and papers we can with much more facility effect the immediate in-troduction here of foreigners as the existence of a colony of their own people will turn such immigrants South much more rapidly. I examined sometime ago a large tract of land in McDowell county, offered by the West-ern North Carolina Land Company, but it was too rugged. I like the lands in Henderson and Transylvania much better. I know of none anywhere which offers so many inducements to the German immigrant, especially those from the Bayarian and Tyrolean mountains. Indeed, the countries are very similar.

The Mark, of Three Quarters of a Century Ago-A New Way to Lecate Old Land.

Quite a curiosity was exhibited at ne Central Hotel. It is a stone shaped very much like an Indian spear head, which is buried in a pine knot, taken from a large pine cut down day before yesterday near the city. The tip of the stone barely showed through the bark. From the rings formed by the annual growth of the tree, it is calculated that it had probably been there not more than half a century which calculation unfortunately de stroyed the rising hopes of a reporter of the Observer to whom it was exhibited, that he would be able to announce the discovery of a relic of the mysterious aborigines of the continent.

But a gentleman who stood by furnished apropos to the curiosity, the following: Some years ago he was at a loss to locate the boundaries of a tract of 2,500 acres of pine barren land, in Lancaster county, South Carolina, the last records of which that could be found being the 76-year old grants in the department of State, at Columbia Copies of these were taken and hands set to work cutting down those trees which from various local traditions and ancient landmarks were thought to be identical with some described in these old grants as having been mark-ed in certain ways at the time of the surveys from which the grants were made. The gentleman, Mr. R. M. Miller, of this city, that out of a large num-ber of trees cut down and split open in search of these marks, many were found which actually retained imbedded in their hearts the scars of these marks made and recorded three quarters of a century before. By means of these the boundaries of the tract were located.

SALEM ACADEMY,

SALEM, N. C.

THIS institution commends itself to the public as a notably pleasant and safe home and high class school for girls and young women.

It has during the past few years been greatly improved. Its SCHOLASTIC ARRANGEMENTS It has during the past few years been greatly improved. Its SCHOLASTIC ARRANGEMENTS have been remodeled and its standards advanced. It now offers all the advantages of similar institutions of the highest grade. A large number of instructors is employed, and pains-taking instructions is guaranteed. It offers a liberal English, or English and classical course for graduation, and under its new administration, has already graduated (with diploma) four very promising classes.

The DOMESTIC ARRANGEMENTS of the Academy have latterly been re-adapted to secure to its resident pupils the largest measure of comfort and convenience. Eight resident teachers are continually in charge, and give special attention to the cultivation of correct manners and habits in growing girls. Systematic and enlightened physical culture and care of health are prominent features in the improvements recently perfected.

Exceptional facilities are offered for the study of MUSIC. The results of practical work in its fusite Department, during the past few years, would warrant the Academy, in the opinion of competent critics, in inviting comparison with any other similar institution in the South. A two to laree rears graduating course (with diploma) has quite recently been introduced.

Special attention is directed to the advantages now also obtainable in the DEPARTMENT OF DERAWING AND PAINTING, which has been reorganized and placed in charge of a lady of special ability and superior training. A high standard of excellence will be maintained and the best methods observed. A variety of branches of stady is offered and careful builton is guaranteed.

The 78th year begins September 1, 1881.
