A large fulliber of young bucks of both the San Carlos and Navajo tribes have been visiting the White Mountains recently, and it is believed they were engaged in the fight. It is reported by runners that the fight continued all day of the 30th. Every hill and canon was swarming with Indians. News from the lower San Pedro last night is to the effect that Eskimigun, chief of the Arayilus, and Chief Lagulo have warned the whites to leave the valley or prepare to defend themselves; that something was wrong with the Indians on the reservation. Both of the chiefs are warm friends of the whites. Yesterday the engineer of a freight train coming west was surprised by the sudden appearance of a large body of mounted Indians near Wilns, west of Gage. They followed the train for about four miles. He opened the throttle valve and sped away. He did not know whether they were armed or not. He calculated their number at about 150.
