At a recent gathering in Illinois, every restaurant was full and every saloon was blockaded. It is easy to see what an Illinoisan "gathers" for. It is noted as a curious fact that no President from Washington to Garfield was born in a city, and that only the second Adams was even nomi-nally a resident of a city when elected.

A woman in Bucharest was ailing, and her physician prescribed a sojourn at a medicinal spring. Her husband refused to let her go, and she resorted to law, finding a Judge who decided that she might raise $400 by a loan to defray her expenses, her husband being been done and was in so excellent a condition. It is expected that the estimates will be made up in about six weeks.

Mrs. John Hoey is to entertain the cabinet officers at her husband's splendid Long Branch mansion. Recently a worshiper of those whose ancestors had titles asked Mr. Hoey to tell him something about his father. "O," said John, "he was a knight." "That's splendid," remarked the manufacturer of ancestral trees. "Yes," continued Mr. Hoey, "he was a night watchman."

A monster mill is to be built in Minneapolis which will turn out 5½ barrels of flour per minute, 333 barrels per hour, 8,000 barrels per day, 2,400,000 barrels per year (300 days). It will require 10,000,000 bushels of wheat per year to supply it, and the value of its annual products will be at least $14,000,000. It will make one-third of the present wheat crop of Minnesota into flour, and require an army of men to flour, and require an army of men to carry on the work growing out of its

Letters from Russia depict a sad condition of things as regards the Jews. It is no rare occurrence, especially in the South, for rich Jews to be falsely accused of some imaginary crime and their property confiscated. The victims are glad to escape with their lives, and if they venture to return they are seized as vagabonds or as bearing assumed names, and banished to Siberia or removed to distant parts of the Empire.

The Singer Sewing Machine Company has advertised the great factory at Elizabeth, N. J., for sale. Improving the Mississippi. Speaking of the improvement of the Mississippi river, the St. Louis Repub-lican says it should be considered with reference to the benefit of the whole country, for "the object sought is national." It advocates the establishment of a 15-foot channel from New Orleans to St. Louis, and from St. Louis to St. Paul, on the Mississippi, and to Sioux City, on the Missouri. That permanently restraining these rivers permanently restraining these rivers in their channels would vastly enhance the value of the lands along their banks and would increase to an incalculable ties. extent the acreage of land devoted to the culture of corn, wheat and cotton As far as the cultivation of sugar is concerned, a large area of land eminently qualified for this industry is annually overflowed, and is by consequence utterly unproductive. We import $81,000,000 worth of sugar annually that might be produced in Louisiana alone were the waters of the Mississippl and its tributaries restrained from overflowing their banks in the sugar-producing districts. This improvement of the river is a question of vital importance to 21,000,000 of people, occupying an area of 1,126,398 square miles of territory.

The Way Women Boss a Pillow.

Washington Capital. Among the recent inventions is a pillow holder. It is explained that the pillow holder is for the purpose of holding a pillow while the pillow-case is being put on. We trust this new invention will not come into general use, as there is no sight more beautiful to the eyes of man than to see a woman hold a pillow in her tooth while the hold a pillow in her teeth while she gently manipulates the pillow-case over it. We do not say that a woman is beautiful with her mouth full of pillows. No one can ever accuse us of saying that, but there is something homelike and old-fashioned about it that cannot be replaced by any invention. We know that certain over-fastidious women have long clamored for some new method of putting on a pillow-case, but these people have either lost their teeth, or the new ones they have bought do not grasp the situation. They have tried several new methods, such as blowing the pillow-case up, and

A San Francisco physician, believing that he has discovered a cure for hydrophobia, and desiring to test it, has had himself bitten by a rabid dog.

Such as blowing the pillow-case up, and trying to get the pillow in by rolling up the pillow-case until the bottom is reached, and then placing the pillow-case, but all these schemes have their drawbacks. The old style of chewing one end of the pillow, and holding it the way a retriever dog holds a duck, till the pillow-case is on, and then spanking the pillow a couple of times on each side, is the best, and it gives the woman's jaws about the only rest they get during the day. If any invention drives this old day. His mind, fully equipped with all legal weapons, races over every common-place road leading to probable victory, and then finds enjoyment in seeking out the most extraordinary path, and if the same result can be reached by that course General Butler will take it with the greatest delight,

Canned Food for France.

OTTAWA, ONT., Sept. 18.—A dispatch to the British government from the French Department of Commerce was published in the Official Gazette yesterday. The dispatch states that the attention of the department has been called to the dangers to which consumers may be exposed by using food contained in cans or boxes soldered in the inside and made with other than refined sheet tin. It further states that French canneries have been prohibited from soldering their cans inside and from using any but refined sheet tin. It has also been decided, in order, not only for the purpose of proteoting the public health, but so that French trade may not be put on an inferior footing with foreign competitors, that all cans to the British government from the with foreign competitors, that all cans imported into France which do not comply with the new regulation will

Drinking Habits at Washington:

New York Evening Post, Men still young may remember the time when excessive drinking was alarmingly frequent in the city of Washington, when a night session of either house of Congress was scarcely any thing else than a drunken orgy, when high officers of the Government and prominent public men would exhibit themselves at dinner table and on other public as well as private occasions in the most pitiable conditon, and when such things would be accepted as little eccentricities instead of being treated as disgraceful. While Washington is now not as virtuous a place as it ought so be, yet the improvement that has taken place within a comparatively short period is immense, and it is owing, notto any prohibitory legislation, but to a more refined tone of society which permits moderate drinkinging while frowning upon every excess.
