ADDITION TO THE LETTER.

Two days later Guiteau made the following addition to the letter: "WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18, 1881. I intended to remove to the Baltimore depot, but he came into the depot with Mrs. Garfield leaning on his arm, and I concluded to remove him when she was alone. It will be no worse for Mrs. Garfield, dear sister, to part from her husband in this way than by natural death. He is liable to go at any time anyway."

"Another postscript read as follows: "WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20, 1881. 'The President's nomination was an act of God. The President's election was an act of God. The President's removal was an act of God. I am clear in my purpose to remove the President. Two objects will be accomplished. It will unite the Republican party and save the Republic, and it will create a large demand for my book, 'The Truth.' This book was written to save souls and not for money, and the Lord wants to save souls by circulating this book."

"My idea," said Mr. Scoville, in publishing these statements is to let the people see and judge for themselves as to the condition of Guiteau. Heretofore it has been telegraphed all over the country that Guiteau had made certain statements to the officers at the jail, but nothing that emanated directly from him was permitted to get out. I do not intend to deceive him, and when he gives me a document of any kind for a person, be he high or low, I shall deliver it if possible."

NEWS NOTES.

Crows and Blackfeet fighting near the Yellowstone.

Gladstone in England and Parnell in Ireland are before the people discussing the land question.

General Prendergast has been appointed Governor of Cuba, in place of Captain-General Blanco.

Mrs. Ellen O'Connor was murdered Saturday night in New York by her husband, who came home drunk.

A closer alliance between Spain and Portugal is expected to be one result of the interview between Kings Luis and Alfonso.

The remains of ex-President Aresta have been brought to the City of Mexico from Portugal, and are lying in state.

Scarcity of water in the city is seriously felt. In the annexed districts water is sold for half a dollar a barrel.

The men who robbed a passenger train on the Iron Mountain Railroad pleaded guilty to fourteen indictments, making the term of punishment seventy-seven years for each man.

The congressional committee has reported in favor of the approval of the railroad concessions granted by the Executive during the recess of the Mexican Congress. After having paid expenses and railroad subventions the Mexican treasury has $1,200,000.

William Fountain, William Bond, Thomas Thomas and James Week, who were employed in the sulphur bank, Quicksilver mine, California, by the caving in of a shaft, were alive on Saturday, and air was being pumped into the mine, but it is scarcely possible they can be dug out in time to save their lives.

The Governor of Pennsylvania and the other officers of that State which will be escorted to Yorktown by 700 of the national guard. The party will leave Philadelphia October 18th on the steamer Galatia. The civilians will have their quarters on board the steamer and the soldiers will go into camp.

Passengers on the Southern Pacific Railroad who have arrived at Santa Fe, N. M., say that when the train was near Wilcox, Arizona, they saw a fight in progress between citizens and Indians. The whites appeared to be repairing the railroad, and the telegraph men were seen lying near the track. This is the second party of telegraph men killed within the last few days.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Professor Watts, of the Irish Presbyterian Church, is writing a treatise in advocacy of the use of instrumental music in worship.

The chestnut crop in the mountains of Georgia will be very large.

China, spurred by activity by the late threatened invasion of her dominion by Russia, has begun the construction of an extensive railroad and telegraph system.

The London World thinks that a pretty woman who smokes looks well, and that the World with some day add to his dresses a dainty little tobacco pouch or cigarette pocket.

Alphonse Karr, talking of food adulteration remarked: "It's very curious isn't it? If I poison my grocer, the very lightest sentence would be hard labor for life, but if my grocer poisons me—ah, that's a different thing—he is fined forty francs."

The most beautiful dinner cards come from Mexico, with the deft workmanship of the artisans of that country exhibited in letters applied to the surface, and representing all the winged fowls known or unknown.

A Cincinnati man has invented an electro-magnetic brake, which in the hands of a locomotive engineer is said to be the most effective brake ever used on a railroad train.

The bridge across the St. Lawrence will be about two miles long, and will cost about $2,000,000. The engineers are progressing satisfactorily with the survey.

Was it instinct or careful drilling? The horse that an Iowa Colonel of militia rode during the war was killed at Keokuk, aged 30 years. Up to the last moment every time he heard a gun fire he would try to run.—Detroit Free Press.

The work of improving Galveston (Texas) harbor is going on rapidly. The steamship San Antonio crossed the bar one day last week, and was thirteen feet nine inches. This is said to be, by four or five inches, the deepest draught ever obtained on the bar, even at highest spring tide.

Roaches and other insects infest the old White House at Washington in myriads, and during the winter the new occupants are delayed by unavailing efforts to exterminate them. A few colonies of Texas ants would clean them up in a week. This ant is a little, black, hairless insect, and is unusually colonized in some houses expressly to destroy roaches and other vermin.—Galveston News.

MANY HONORABLE PEOPLE drag themselves about with their graves when they are slowly sinking into their graves, by using patent medicine. They should use a genuine medicine with the first dose, and vitality and strength will be restored. See other columns.
