I TEMS OF INTEREST.

Last Thursday one hundred additional Jews, who were banished from their country, reached New York. Over 1,000 will arrive during October, and a large number will follow next year.

It is estimated that since Garfield was shot there have been printed 65,000,000 extra newspapers, all over the country, their selling value being $1,300,000. Four republicans elected to the lower branch of the present congress have already been elected to the senate—Frye, of Maine, Aldrich, of Rhode Island, and Miller and Lapham, of New York. Baron Edmund de Rothschild lately bought from the Prince of Monaco, for $256,000, an estate called Bois de Mandegris, which has passed through the hands of half a dozen owners of historic

The empress of Austria spends a great deal of money, although she is a woman of simple habits. Her last hunting trip to England is reported to have cost $200,000. She rises at five o'clock in the morning, practices gymnastics regularly and smokes a great many cigarettes.

Four African expeditions are about to be undertaken simultaneously. Their explorations will be conducted upon separate lines, but the four parties hope to meet at the end of their perils. For the purpose of sending news to Europe the expeditions will take with them about 5,000 carrier pigeons.

While Ada Gray was grasping in the last scene of "Camille" lately, at Watertown, N. Y., the bed upon which she lay tipped up suddenly and nearly tumbled the dying "Camille" into the pit. Miss Gray's strength returned instantaneously, and she was on her feet with the rapidity of forked lightning, in which position she died joyously amid much applause.

Mr. Wilkie Collins, who is now recovering from a severe attack of rheumatic gout, which necessitated his confinement to a darkened room for three weeks—his eyes having been seriously affected—has been ordered to abstain from all work for at least six months.

No line in England carries the same number of passengers, or carries them so cheaply and pays so large a dividend as the underground railroad of London. The passengers last year numbered 110,000,000. Several of the underground and overground railways carry workmen twelve miles a day for two cents, thus enabling them to enjoy cheap houses and country air.

At a recent examination in a girls' school the question was put to a class of little ones: "Who makes the laws of our government?" "Congress," was the reply. "How is Congress divided?" was the next question. A little girl in the class raised her hand. "Well," said the examiner, "Miss Sallie, what do you say the approximation. the answer is?" Instantly, with an air of confidence, as well as triumph, the answer came: "Civilized, half civilized and savage."

Queen Victoria was once as poor as any of us. Before her birth her parents were so destitute that they had to borrow money to pay their passage to England, that the expected Princess might be born on British soil, and Victoria remained in comparative poverty until she ascended the throne. Now, it is said, the private fortune of the Queen amounts to $80,000,000, and she possesses an annual income of $3,250,000.

GIGANTIC STEALING

Vast Frauds Unearthed in the Pension Bureau. Wash. Cor. Charleston News and Courier.

Reference was made a couple of days in these dispatches to the probability of the early development of a scandal in the Interior Department which would put to the blush of the petty peculation recently exposed in the Treasury. On the 1st of September one George W. Black, a former clerk in the pension of fice was arrested and brought before fice, was arrested and brought before the Police Court on information charg-ing him with the presentation of a false claim for a pension. The man Black had, a short time ago, been before the same court because of an affray, in which he was soundly whipped by being found figrante delicto with one Mrs Buckley, of this city, a scandal which resulted in the separation of the Buckley family. The character of the man took away the force of the character of the offense against the government, leaving the public to infer that it was confined to one rascal. A new Commissioner of Pensions (Mr. Dudley) however, has just been installed, and Mr. Dudley could not understand how it was possible for a single clerk to successfully get a false claim through. Black's false claim was filed on the 9th of June, 1879. The investiga-tion was begun, therefore, to include claims filed some time back of that. The conviction of Col. Dudley that the existence of a ring was necessary to the successful operation of gaining money on a false claim has been verified. It involves a number of clerks in the examiner's branch and revising division, and among those some of the best men in the office. These have been working by collision with outside parties who will be soon uncovered.

The secret service officers have been shadowing these suspected clerks for a month. They know every one of them and their circumstances and the money they spend. They have traced them from the restaurant to gambling houses places of ill fame and stock broking bucket shops, and can drop upon them now any hour. It is not yet desirable to make the arrests, owing to the into make the arrests, owing to the in-completeness of the evidence necessary much from that of last October. The to convict the ringleaders.

claim was passed by the ring inside and confirmed and paid, those in the pool inside and out dividing the plunder.

Your correspondent, learning something of this, called on Commissioner Dudley to-day and inquired as to the facts in the case. That gentleman admitted that extensive frauds similar to Black's had been going on, but refused to give the names of the suspected parties. "You think it the operation of a ring?" was asked. "I do, and I am just now investigating that ring, in which I am sorry to say appear to be some trust-ed clerks. The names cannot be given for obvious reasons. We are not ready I do not want to anticipate the newspapers. It will all come out in time. Until then I do not wish to express my opinion." It is not improbable that the amount will be somewhere among the millions. The share of the clerks was probably but a commission compared with the shares that were divided to those outside. The bulk went to the men who did the forging of evidence.

Erastus Brooks Chairman-He Makes a Speech.

ALBANY, Oct. 12.—The name of Erastus Brooks for permanent chairman was received with applause. The report was adopted without dissent, and Mr. Brooks, on being escorted to the chair, addressed the convention at conchair, addressed the convention at considerable length. After expressing an adhorrence at the crime that had deprived the country of its President, he said: It is impossible to forget at this the first meeting of the Democrats of this State, in State convention, since the defeat of our national standard-bearer, that his vote in November last was some thousands in excess of the vote of the inaugurated President; nor can it escape our memories that in the canvass of 1876 a distinguished citizen of our own commonwealth was made President by a constitutional election both in form and substance, and by an American majority in excess of a quarter of a million of votes. He said it becomes the Democratic voters of this State neither to forget the past nor to forgive an offence, which practically purloined two States of our Union and a majority of thousands of Americans in order to make a man President who had received neither a constitutional vote nor an honest election.

The present time is propitious in this State, at least of restoring power and responsibility to the Democratic party He declared the Democratic principles in brief to be honest elections, honest men in office, honest money for the people, with gold and silver as the only certain standard for revenue, which while it affords all necessary means for Democrat support of government, paying all its debts and meeting all its obligations; gives ample protection to every great interest in the country; free ships upon the seas by restoration of American commerce lost to us by enemies; of legislative and home rule for our cities and as far as possible in our towns and counties. In the name of right, justice and liberty, we also demand a diminution of that central power in the Federal Government which makes States and people servants of federal patronage and power, reviewing the course of of the Republican party during the twenty years in which it had held power. He com-mented upon its extravagance and the expenses of fraud and corruption which had marked its career. The star route swindles had cost the government more than a million of dollars in unnecessary taxation each year. He referred to the attempted reduction of appropriations by Democratic Senators. In one session they did succeed in reducing appropriations forty millions of dollars. In this State State when in power during five years of control, the Democratic legislation reduced the State debt from fifty-one millions to nine millions of dollars, and the State taxes from sixteen millions to seven millions.

Irving and Tammany Hall Both "Set Back."

ALBANY, Oct. 12.-The Tammany delegation will leave for New York at delegation will leave for New York at 3 o'clock. The weather is cold and rather bleak. The attendance in the gallery and on the stage much thinner than yesterday or last night. Printed circulars signed by executive committee of young men's Democratic club of Brooklyn have been distributed among the delegates, addressed to the Kings county deputation, and to members of county deputation, and to members of the convention, strongly opposing any compromise with Tammany, and argu-ing that their exclusion will strengthen rather than weaken the Democratic party of New York. Hill called the convention to order at 12.05 p.m., and announced that the first business would be the report of the committee on contested seats.

Peckham, from the committee on cre-dentials reported contests which had been considered and the decision of the committee. When the decision in favor of the New York county democracy was announced there was some cheering but not very much. Peckham concluded by moving the adoption of the report, and asked for the previous question. There was no opposition, and the report was unanimously carried. Holliday from the committee on permanent organization presented committees re-

The Republicans claim 3 or 4 doubtful members of the Legislature, and one if not both branches of the Legislature. A very large Republican gain was made at Soldiers Home in Dayton.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12 — The Times Columbus, Ohio, special says: "The Temperance vote will reach 15,000 or 16,000 more than double that of any other election. Hamilton County-Indiscriminate Scratching.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12.—Returns have been received from the head of the ticket from 15 out of 95 precincts in Hamilton county. They show a Re-publican gain of 245. From this it is estimated that Foster will have a majority of 2,300 in the county. If this is reached there is a probability that the Republican legislative ticket may be elected, but of this no just estimate can be made. Even now no full return has been received from any precinct in the city. Scratching has been unprecedented, but it affects the judicial candidates more than it does the Legislature.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 12.-The Legislature met in extra session yesterday. A resolution was introduced in the senate calling upon Congress to propose a con-stitutional amendment fixing terms of service of all federal officials and securing to them their offices during their good behavior for the time for which they are appointed.

A Civil Service Resolution.

"Farmer" Furnishes a Few More Practical Suggestions to Farmers.

To the Editor of The Observer: Referring to the communication of your intelligent correspondent, "Another Farmer," I cannot recall any particular omission in my article. I am well aware that the subject is exhaustive and could have been prolonged beyond a correspondent's privilege, and then failed to have presented all the defects of our present tenant system. I will, however, take occasion to refer to one omission, and pass on to the subject I promised to speak of in a former

The first step towards a thorough reformation in our mode of farming must be the repeal by the Legislature of the villainous lien law, which grants credit to parties utterly undeserving of it. This would strike at the root of the

But now that the Atlanta Exposition is open to the public, I take this occasion to urge every gin-owner to go there and inspect the gin which comes to us from England. That gin substi-tutes rollers for saws and thoroughly cleans the motes and trash from cotton. The rollers do not nap the cotton, but clean the seed thoroughly. One of our troubles is, that our gins perform such unsatisfactory work, that we cannot get a good sample, which a good gin would afford us. Hence, we lose several dollars on every belon by receens eral dollars on every bale by reason of careless handling at the gin. It would pay the farmers of a neighborhood to pay the expenses of the party who gins their cotton, provided he would avail himself of the information obtained by comparing the work of such a gin with those now in use.

It would compensate a farmer to haul his cotton for miles to that man who would introduce such a decided improvement in the preparation of cotton for market. Storms will stain and fill cotton with sand, and dry weather and frosts will produce trash, requiring the action of machinery to remove. Cotton mills employ such machinery, why then cannot it be cleaned by properly constructed gins, and thus secure us a good sample which will tell to our advantage when taken to market?

Mr. editor, you would confer a lastng benefit on the farming community if you could arouse gin-owners to the importance of visiting the Atlanta Exposition for the purposes named. FARMER.

STATE NEWS.

Farmer and Mechanic: Gov. Vance is blamed for having exerted himself to Best's aid, when the Man of Magnificent Promises played out. This is not fair to Vance. He was not working for himself (for he was safe; having a six year office) but he was safe; the same than the was safe; having a six year office. six year office,) but he was trying to save Jarvis, who was in extreme dan-ger of being beaten; first for the nomination, and if nominated secondly in the election. Vance had little to gain or lose by the collapse of Best's Big Bubble (which cost the State heavily) but Vance pulled off his coat and incurred life long enmity from more than one quarter by trying to save Jarvis. Is Jarvis not standing up for Vance? Some say not!

Dr. Geo. W. Blacknall struck consternation to many a haughty heart, on Thursday last, by the simple announcement in the daily papers, "The Dead Head list is suspended at my hotel dur-ing Fair week!" Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

Rev. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman:—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and its parents unknown rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button."

And during the process of teething, its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething sleep, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
