HOME PENCILINGS.

☞ North Carolina apples are now the finest on this market.

☞ The weather indications for to-day are for fair weather and westerly winds.

☞ The Air Line conductors report the local travel to Atlanta as quite large.

☞ Capt. Sid. Alexander is at the State Fair, says the Raleigh News-Observer.

☞ Messrs. Chick and Andrews have gone to Raleigh to join the State Yorktown band.

☞ Cloudy a while yesterday, and a faint suggestion of a coming rain, but it didn't last.

☞ The old water works wagon has broken down completely—just when the dust has become worst.

☞ All old members are requested to attend the meeting of the Gounod at Mrs. Young's to-night without fail.

☞ The funeral services of Mrs. Wm. Johnston will take place at 10 o'clock this morning at the First Presbyterian church.

☞ The water works piping has been unloaded, and the constructors are working actively toward the breaking of ground in a few days.

☞ Messrs. T. T. Gilmer and L. P. Elam have gone to Raleigh to take part in the bicycle race to-day. They took their bicycles along.

☞ Another colored "festiment" at the corner of Trade and College last night, and an accompanying parade by the Good Samaritans.

☞ The sheriff has already received more applications for tickets of admission to the hanging of Allen Johnson on the 28th inst., than the law allows to be issued.

☞ The cotton buyers are anxious to don the uniform of the Hornets Nest Riflemen and go to Yorktown on the military rates. They say they have plenty of time to spare.

☞ The Hornets' Nest Riflemen, yesterday, received from the Adjutant General their proportion of the State appropriation for transportation of troops to Yorktown.

☞ The Baltimore Sun of the 12th says, the most prominent mining stocks at the Baltimore stock exchange on the 11th were Baltimore and North Carolina, Silver Valley and Conrad Hill, all of them North Carolina mines.

☞ The Columbia Fair begins on the 8th of November and continues through the 11th. Tickets from Charlotte will be sold at $4.25 for the round trip. All articles for exhibition, race horses excepted, will be transported free.

☞ The festival of the Library Association, in the basement of the Tryon Street Methodist Church last night, was well attended and the receipts were very satisfactory. But the shooting gallery was not there.

☞ Constable Means, yesterday, levied on a fox, the only property belonging to a defendant in a case brought before one of our justices yesterday for the recovery of damages for the killing of several chickens by the same fox.

☞ About 3 o'clock, yesterday morning, some of the police officers found two mules and a wagon swinging corners with a lamp post, with no sign of an owner. The team was put in the pound and the owner turned up during the day and redeemed, with the explanation that he had been a "little off."

☞ It will be seen by advertisement this morning that a special meeting of the Gounod club is called at the residence of Mrs. S. V. Young, to-night, instead of Tuesday night, the regular time. The anticipated absence of some of the members in attendance at the Yorktown centennial is the occasion of the changed time.

☞ A drunken man on horseback ran his animal between the leaders and wheelers of the Central Hotel 'bus day before yesterday. He stopped the 'bus and was himself thrown about ten feet, but with the usual luck of men in his condition he escaped without serious injury.

☞ The police have been instructed to remove all obstructions in the shape of goods boxes and other lumber left on the streets and pavements during the night. Persons found guilty of these breaches of the ordinance forbidding such obstructions have been warned that they will be fined if guilty a second time.

☞ Messrs. Jno. W. Wadsworth, T. C. Smith, Joseph Smith and W. R. Jones, from the congregation of the Tryon street Methodist Episcopal Church, of this city, went to Hamlet, yesterday, to meet the remains of Rev. A. A. Boshamer which, coming from Raleigh, were to be interred at Wadesboro today. It is most appropriate that a representation from this congregation, so attached to the deceased young minister, should do honor to his funeral.

Life is full of sorrows and disappointments, but the most sanguine hopes of all these who try Dr. Bull's cough syrup, are always realized. It never disappoints. Price 25c.

AWAY FROM THE LYNCHERS.

Dockery the Confessing Accomplice in the Thompson Murder Removed to Charlotte Jail to be out of the Way of a Threatened Lynching—A Man Stamped to Death.

Sheriff Mays, of Alexander county reached this city yesterday on the train from Statesville, bringing with him a prisoner E. H. Dockery, one of the Caroline Thompson murderers, whom he committed to jail here, showing affidavits from citizens of Alexander that there were such apprehensions of the lynching of Dockery that it was considered unsafe for him to remain in Alexander jail, or even in the jail of any of the adjoining counties.

A reporter of THE OBSERVER saw Sheriff Mays and inquired what reason he had to think that Dockery would be lynched.

"I have abundant reason, you may rest assured, young man," he said. "I have received several intimations from different people that the friends of Church, the other principal in the murder, who was lynched at Newton last week, have sworn vengeance against Dockery, whose confession led to the lynching.

I had notice last Sunday from a prominent gentleman of Alexander that h—l would be to pay Monday night, and that I had better lay out with Dockery; and I did, you can bet; but no one came that night. But I have undoubtet evidence that there is a regular organization of Church's friends in Wilkes for the purpose of lynching Dockery. It is not only for vengeance against him for his confession, but his testimony in court will, it is thought, seriously implicate two other Wilkes county men, one of whom named Adams is already under bond to appear in court. The other, named Davis, has never been caught. This being the case, our own jail being altogether insecure, and the example of the lynching of Church proving the uselessness of removing the prisoner no further than an adjoining county, nothing was left but to bring him here. You see we want him at court bad and we don't want him hurt.

"Will he talk freely about the murder?"

"Oh, yes. If you go down at any time he will tell you all about it, but he is not exactly sound up here," and the sheriff tapped his forehead significantly.

This being the case the reporter thought it would not be quite the thing to interview the prisoner himself. The sheriff was asked if he knew where the lynchers of Church were from.

He looked mysterious and said: "Well, I am pretty sure they were not from Alexander, though I think I know the crowd. There were twenty odd of them, and twenty odd men I saw once at the Alexander county jail who came to lynch him and were with great difficulty, as THE OBSERVER has heretofore described, dissuaded from their purpose."

Although the sheriff did not say so in so many words, yet the reporter was impressed with the idea that the lynchers were from Iredell or Wilkes.

Sheriff Mays stated in the course of the conversation that the two men Bud McNeal and Nathan Tripps, who killed a quiet, inoffensive man named Walker, a few days ago, were now in Wilkesboro jail. The men after leaving a still house with the declaration that they would kill the first man they met, carried out the threat by literally stamping to death the good natured and harmless walker. They were captured in Ashe county.

St. Mary's School.

It is learned with pleasure that the fall term of St. Mary's (Catholic) School, near Garibaldi, on the Air-Line, conducted by the Benedictine Brotherhood of the Gaston Monastry, opened under very promising circumstances. There are already 45 students and a number more are expected. The new and commodious brick building recently erected has been completed and is now occupied. Several new instructors, among whom is an accomplished professor of music, have been added to the corps and the school now presents inducements equalled by few and excelled by none.

The Bites of a Mad Dog.

Mr. Lewis Abernethy, who was bitten three weeks ago by a black and yellow hound which showed every indication of hydrophobia, was in the city yesterday. An account of the biting appeared at the time, and it was stated that Mr. Abernethy had gone to Rutherford county to apply a mad stone owned by a Mr. Edwards of that county. He told a reporter of THE OBSERVER, yesterday, that he had done so. For about two and a half hours after the first application the stone adhered to the wound, but after that time it would fall off. Mr. Abernathy does not pretend to say whether the stone did any good or not, but he states that he has not felt the slightest symptom of hydrophobia. The dog bit him in two places on the hand. He held it until his wife cut it's head off with an axe, and immediately set to work to doctor the wounds. He cut out all the flesh around them, then burnt the places with nitric acid, and still not content, again burnt the hand to the bone with a red hot iron. He thinks the dog was surely mad, but does not know whether the cutting, burning or mad stone did any good.

Mayor's Court.

At the mayor's court yesterday Clark Hall re-appeared in his old role of d. and d. He showed such marked penitence for his fall from grace after his long swear off that the mayor remitted the fine on the condition that Clark would go home and stay sober, which he promised most faithfully to do. Clark, it will be remembered, claims to have macadamized a greater part of the city streets, and the city, he thinks, owes him some consideration.

Hattie Moore, colored, was fined $2.50 and costs for a d. and d.

John McGinness says: Dr. Benson, I will pray for you as long as I live, because you took pity on me when I was sick and in the hospital, and sent me two boxes of your Celery and Chamomile Pills, and they cured me of Sciatica, Neuralgia and Nervous weakness.

Uncalled For.

List of letters remaining in the post-office at Charlotte, uncalled for, for the week ending Sept. 12, 1881:

W. Addison, Lockey Brown, Mrs. Jane Burton, Alex. Bonner, Mrs. Margret Cochrane, Major S. W. Cole, W. Frank Cunningham, Woodey Euders, Mrs. Nannie Flow, Will Fountaine, H. D, Foard, Miss Manda Funderburk, Miss Rena Funderburk, I. A. Frazier, Sally Jane Grose, Roger Huntley, D. Hudson, George Myles, William McKee, Andy Rankin, colored, Miss Kate Ramsey.

When calling for any of the above please say "advertised."

W. W. JENKINS, P. M.

Death of Mrs. Wm. Johnston.

The funeral services of Mrs. William Johnston, who died yesterday morning at 6 o'clock, after long illness, will take place at the First Presbyterian Church at 10 o'clock this morning, conducted by Rev. E. H. Harding, D. D.

Mrs. Johnston was a descendant of one of the ancient families of the State, tho' a native of the city of Memphis, Tennessee. Her father, Dr. Franklih Graham, was a son of General Joseph Graham, of Lincoln county, North Carolina, and removed to his home in Memphis early in life, where he died during the childhood of the subject of this notice.

Col. Wm. Johnston and his estimable wife have been citizens of Charlotte since their marriage, where they have reared a family of children, all of whom have attained full maturity. No member of the community was held in higher esteem than Mrs. Johnston; and now in the ripened years of life she is called to the reward of her Christian work.

The community, which know and appreciate her many virtues and excellent qualities, are invited to attend her funeral.

Railroad Items.

—Florida travel has already begun and tourists from the North crowd the South bound trains daily.

—John Fetzer, of Greensboro, not yet 20 years of age, has been promoted to an engine on the Richmond and Danville road.

—Work on the Richmond and Danville buildings in Manchester is progressing rapidly. The foundry building is being roofed. The walls of the car-shop are nearly completed.

—The office building at the Richmond and Danville shops has been finished and is occupied by Capt. R. D. Wade, superintendent of motive-power.

—Last week not a single train arrived at Richmond from the North on time, and the papers and the people are getting hot about the irregularities. The detention at Richmond frequently throws the train behind in arriving here.

☞ The Yorktown Centennial began yesterday and continues through the 21st. On each day novel and attractive programmes will be presented. The rate from Charlotte for tickets for civillians for the round trip is 13.80; from Salisbury $10.95. Wednesday the 19th, an address is expected from the President of the United States. Our troops leave Monday morning.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE.

By a large majority the people of the United States have declared their faith in Kidney Wort as a remedy for all the diseases of the kidneys and liver, some, however, have disliked the trouble of preparing it from the dry form. For such a new candidate appears in the shape of Kidney Wort in Liquid Form. It is very concentrated, is easily taken and is equally efficient as the dry. Try it.—Louisville Post.

"The profession ought to bear in mind that the Liebig Company prepare a genuine Extract of Witch Hazel, and in ordering the remedy be sure to designate the preparation desired; otherwise a worthless article may be obtained.

"The same firm also makes a most useful and convenient nutrient tonic, in the form of 'Coca Beef Tonic,' which has justly received the highest commendation. We have used both of those preparations with the most satisfactory results."—Editorial in the Medical and Surgical Times.
