Missouri has a weekly newspaper which has suspended and been revived thirteen different times.

Colorado has a man who has hung fourteen men without a bungle while captaining a freighting gang.

Dr. Tanner and several other enterprising gentlemen seem to have demonstrated that it is possible for a man to be without a lock of hair.

Wilmington Star: We are glad to learn that Rev. Dr. Wilson, who has been quite sick, has considerably improved.

Mr. L. E. Rice, who has been very low for some weeks past, was pronounced a little better yesterday.

We learn that Dr. Eugene Grisson, of Raleigh, has accepted an invitation to deliver an address before the Masonic fraternity in this city, on St. John's Day, December 27th.

Winston Sentinel: The Baptist State Convention will meet next year, in Warrenton, N. C., the time of which will be published in due season.

Best cattle can be had almost every day upon our streets. Proverder is scarce and farmers are selling off their extra cattle as rapidly as possible.

According to the statement of Mr. Scarborough, the universal testimony of public instruction at Brown's Hall Sunday afternoon, there are 460,000 children, between the ages of 6 and 21, attending Sunday schools in North Carolina.

Mr. Hester, an aged lady of Chapel Hill, died on Saturday last and was buried Sunday afternoon.

Agents of the various nurseries are busily engaged at this point delivering fruit trees of every variety to our farmers.

No less than fifty dwelling houses could be rented out in Durham in one day's time. Why don't more capitalists build more houses?

Greensboro Patriot: Mrs. Anna Wilson, of Bruce township, died last week, aged 102 years, seven months and ten days.

The pastor of one of our city churches says that he has officiated at the marriage of 14 young ladies within the last two years in Greensboro, and that out of that number only two were married to residents of the place.

Last week, at Freeman's Mills, south of this place, a tubing water wheel refused to turn. When it was first started it appeared all right, but in a few hours it commenced getting slower and finally stopped while a full head of water was on it.

Raleigh News-Observer: It is expected that this week syndicates from the North will be here to make propositions looking to the purchase of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad.

The building boom still continues. Three new buildings, all handsome as to design, are in process of erection on north Halifax street.

State University Railroad to Chapel Hill is completed to New Hope. The cars will cross over the New Hope bridge this week.

BY TELEGRAPH. Meeting of the Tariff Convention - Resolutions Passed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.-In the tariff convention upon the reassembling in the afternoon on the 17th, the resolutions made its report, which was adopted without opposition.

The platform recites that the protective policy of America is to be credited with having not only provided a revenue which is to be used for the benefit of the nation, but also with having quadrupled the industries of the country.

The convention requests Congress for more effectual protection and the upholding of the tariff laws.
