The Frost With the New Crop

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 28.—The frost which fell over the State on Monday night, was the first of the season, and was the heaviest yet. It was accompanied by a hard freeze of last night, and the cold wave which is now sweeping over the State, is expected to continue for some time. The frost has done much to injure the crops, and the farmers are much distressed. The cold wave is expected to continue for some time, and the farmers are much distressed.

San Francisco, Nov. 28.—A Telegram

San Francisco, Nov. 28.—A Telegram from San Francisco, Nov. 28, says that the Southern Pacific R. R. Co. has decided to build a new line from San Francisco to Los Angeles, and that the new line will be completed in 1882. The new line will be built on the route of the old line, and will be completed in 1882.

Confesses to a Double Murder

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The Central News states that Lefroy has fully confessed the murder of Mr. Gold, and also of L. Roper, who was murdered in Chatham barracks some time ago. Lefroy has confessed to the murder of both men, and has admitted that he was the one who shot them.

The Power of Poetry

Mr. H. M. McGilgry, who is a member of the drawing room window of her father's palatial residence watching the snow-laden clouds as they piled slowly up in the western horizon, burying in their cold bosom the golden-brown sun, that glowed brightly through the storm-beaten air.

Philadelphian Record

There are thirteen million dollars of the debt of the State of Arkansas which a faction of that State proposes to "readjust" after the Virginia fashion. Here is a fine chance for another Republican Coalition with repudiators.

Major A. Pope, general agent of the associated railways of Virginia, North and South Carolina and Georgia, has sent a dispatch to the President of the North Carolina Editorial Association, the he intends to issue invitations to the members to visit the Atlanta Exposition, leaving Charlotte tonight and returning Friday.

Eight of the jurors who acquitted

Belle Spaulding of murdering her husband at Galesburg, Ill., accepted her invitation to a banquet in celebration of her escape from the gallows.

Don Cameron holds the fort for federal appointments in Pennsylvania. Comptroller Knox closed a lecture on banking in Baltimore by saying that the great system need not be disorganized on account of the reduction of the public debt, but could remain afloat in existence with but a small issue of circulation and with less than $100,000,000 United States bonds on deposit.
