Danford, the owner of the banks at Hunnewell and Caldwell, Kansas, which recently suspended, and Smith, his cashier, were arrested Tuesday, and were afterwards taken from the officers by a mob of the citizens of Caldwell, who at the last advices were holding them for the purpose of making them "disgorge." It is believed that they are in imminent peril of being lynched.

The proposed consolidation of all the grain elevators of St. Louis into one company, which was to have taken place last month, has been postponed until spring, in consequence of the inability of Jay Gould to complete his elevator in time. Work on this building is progressing, and it will be completed early in the spring, when the consolidation will be made.

An agreement has been signed by more than half of the loaning banks of the Clearieg-House Association, to go into effect on the 1st of December, setting forth that the custom of loans by Boston national banks of any excess of their reserve is full of danger, as it facilitates banks to do business upon fictitious basis. They agree, therefore, to lend no money at the clearing house, but to make such loans and render such assistance as may seem proper upon application at the respective banking
