HOME CHIEFS.

Church notices to-day, please. Cotton trade was a little better yesterday.

The United States district attorney has had more rest than work so far in the federal court.

Messrs. E. D. Latta & Bro., of this city, will soon open a clothing store at Winston.

The laborers on the water works have commenced ditching Trade street near the railroad crossing.

M. K. Crawford, of the Wilmington Star, is at the Central, as is also Mr. H. E. Fries, of Salem, N. C.

The display of flesh-tinted tickets at the opera house, Thursday night, was positively bewildering—even to the aged sinners.

The organist of the Lutheran Sunday school is training the pupils in the music to be rendered at their Christmas entertainment.

Some time ago there was some talk of a steam laundry for Charlotte, but the idea seems to have been abandoned. There is millions in it.

Claire Scott, the pretty English actress, is creating the greatest enthusiasm in the cities South of here. She will appear here Monday night.

Hon. A. S. Merrimon, of Raleigh, Mr. J. M. Clement, of Mocksville, and W. J. Montgomery, Esq., of Concord, were in the city yesterday on legal business.

Mr. T. H. Robinson, who has been for some time with Messrs. Roddick & Co., of this city, left last night for Wilmington, where he will be with the same firm.

The sudden changes in the weather keep the small boy in a distressing state of uncertainty as to whether he will be able to skate or go in swimming Christmas.

A bulletin for the postoffice, which could be stated the arrival of belated trains, would relieve the attacks of answering many questions, and be of service to the public. This course is pursued in many cities.

Richmond & Danville Railroad stock in New York yesterday jumped to 1.00, an advance of 9/8 cents on the price for the day before. Who can tell where the advance will end?

A change will be made in the schedule of the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio road, to take effect Monday, by which the train will leave Charlotte at 4.30 p. m. instead of 6 p. m. No change in the run south.

The Library association held a very pleasant meeting last night, at which quite a number of young ladies and gentlemen read and recited. These weekly meetings are increasing in interest, and furnish a most delightful evening of pleasure to the members.

At the mayor's court yesterday morning John Brown, white, was required to give bond for his appearance at the criminal court to answer the charge of larceny. The only other case heard was one for drunkenness, in which a fine of $5 and costs was imposed.

It is believed that had Oliveette been repeated here by the Comley-Baron company a larger audience would have witnessed the second performance than did the first, although the audience Thursday night was decidedly the largest of the season.

An ex-legislator and a well known citizen yesterday engaged in a spirited discussion on the merits and demerits of the last legislature as a law-making body, and the discussion waxed so warm that in the interest of peace the chief of police had the w. k. citizen carried to the lock-up.

Baked bananas are said to be a choice breakfast dish. To prepare them peel and cut in halves lengthwise. Lay these strips in close order in a baking pan, strew sugar and some bits of fresh butter over and bake in a moderate oven about half an hour. Baste while baking with a few spoonfuls of butter and sugar syrup. No personal responsibility is assumed in publishing this.

"Progress" writes a communication, which is given elsewhere, on the necessity of certain sections, and incidentally mentions that the farmers in the sections named are virtually cut off from Charlotte by reason of the condition of the public roads, a state of affairs well calculated to directly injure almost every branch of Charlotte's business.

On the 18th inst. Mr. A. O. Alexander and Miss Cora Brown, both of Mecklenburg, were united in marriage at the residence of the officiating magistrate, Capt. A. G. Reid. The couple were given a reception Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. Houston, of this city, to which a large number of friends of the contracting parties were invited.

At Brevard Station, on Thursday, Mr. Sidney J. Christenbury, of Huntersville, and Miss Bell, daughter of James Cameron, Esq., of Gaston county, were united in marriage by Rev. R. Z. Johnston.

The Concord Sun says: "Our young newspaper friend from South Carolina, Mr. B. M. Welch, was united in marriage last Thursday, at Mt. Pleasant, to Miss Mary Ellis Barrier, daughter of Daniel Barrier. Now that the barrier to his future happiness has been removed, the Sun sends congratulations with a wish for a long and happy life."

And hereby hangs a doleful tale. It was the intention of the happy couple to take the south bound train from this place yesterday afternoon, but by ill-luck the groom was left and the train carried away his bride—causing a life over on his part, as it were—while the bride went on to Gastonia, thence reversing the old saw. A charge of electricity was brought to bear on the fleeing train, and it is to be hoped that she the parties have been re-united.

The human voice in its sweetest and purest is delicately modulated; with throat action and with all its organs, the voice's organs are never so free as when falling through cough, cold, &c.

The Baltimore and North Carolina Mine.

We understand that this mine has been pushing work very energetically in the past month, sinking shafts to lower depths, and recently cutting the vein at these greater depths, where larger veins have been developed than ever known before in this mine.

Four or five couples were at the Central hotel last Thursday—an occurrence which has, perhaps, never before taken place in the history of the house. The proprietor says that in a hotel experience of twelve years he has never entertained so many bridal couples in the same length of time as he has within the past thirty days. Perhaps the exposition has precipitated many cases, as it furnished a splendid opportunity for bridal tours.

Denman Thompson, as Joshua Whitcomb, the typical yankee farmer, will appear at the opera house on the night of the 23rd of December. He is supported by a strong company, and has presented the play to large audiences in New York, where it received the commendation of the Herald as being first-class. The occasion will furnish fun for the remainder of the year, as Denham is said to be as good as "Uncle Josh."

The Demand for Houses. It has been a long time since there has been such a demand in this city for dwelling houses, especially for locations near the business part of the city. When a new dwelling is erected, it is often rented before completion, and at a price which can leave no doubt of the owner receiving a profitable income on his investment. There is nothing like occupied vacant lots near the centre of the city to make a note of this fact. There is a large class of renters who can ill afford to rent houses situated six, seven or eight squares distant from their places of business, and who would willingly pay high rates for suitable houses located more conveniently.

Uncalled For. The following is a list of letters remaining uncalled for in the postoffice at Charlotte for the week ending Dec. 5th, 1881:

Mrs. Mary Abernethy, Mrs. Harriet Alexander, Lou Adams, Rebecca Allis, Eugenia Adams, Caroline Bryan, Miss Margaret Bigger, Mrs. S. A. Byars, Andrew Bold, Eber Bell, Henry Beckham, Jno Brewer, T. C. Federal Court Business.

In the United States Court, yesterday morning, the case of P. B. Messas, assignee, vs. the Commercial National Bank of Charlotte, was taken up and argued. The plaintiffs filed a demurrer to the defendants' answer, which was argued by Messrs. Jones & Johnston for plaintiffs, and by Geo. E. Wilson, Esq., of counsel for the defendants. The demurrer was overruled and the case now stands open for trial on the issues.

After empaneling a jury, the case of J. McD. McIntyre and others vs. Ed. ward Thompson and others, was taken up for consideration, pending which an adjournment was had till this morning. This is a suit for the recovery of lands sold for accrued taxes during the rebellion, and the principle involved is of some importance, the number of defendants in this action is very large, and it may affect other cases of a similar nature. The property was owned by non-residents living in the North at the time of the sale, and the suit is brought through an agent of the original owners, with a view of testing the validity of the sale. The property is said to be of not very great value, but it is now owned by parties who can ill afford to lose it.

The jury in the case of the Erie City Iron Works vs. J. N. McCall, came into court and reported that they were unable to agree, whereupon a juror was withdrawn and a new trial ordered.

A dispatch was received from Judge Bond, dated at Richmond, in which he stated that he would not be present at this term of the court, and that by agreement of counsel the equity cases left open would be heard at Greensboro on brief.

His Honor Judge Dick will continue the circuit docket until the cases are disposed of.

The Democratic Party. To the Editor of the Observer: I was quite impressed with your editorial, "Wanted, a Leader," published a few weeks ago. If the condition of the Democratic party is such as to draw from the leading Democratic paper of the west such an editorial, it is "high time" for those to whom the people have entrusted the leadership to unmask their plans, or if they have none, to step down and out and let the party be reorganized. A do-nothing defensive policy, or the policy of the actual danger, means defeat. The people can be much concerned about what may be termed "Home Issues," and will support the Democratic party to declare, with an uncertain sound, on the State and local issues that arise in the next campaign. The Republican party has thrown down the gauntlet on the road law, the county government, and are trying to lug in anti-prohibition. They are watching the railroad squabble with delight and will make what they can out of it. They are trimming their sails for an aggressive and progressive fight. Jubilant and full of hope, they are in better condition to fight than ever before. What is the Democratic party doing—what issues has it to present to the people? Or, will it continue on the Bourbon line, to rake up the rascality of Republican office-holders, and make the burden of the party? That will not take; the people have not forgotten that Garfield, as a candidate for President, was more wicked than the wickedest man in Sodom, and Garfield, "strongly pro-republican," was more righteous than Lot. You are our sentinel upon the Democratic watch-tower. Tell us what the issues are—that the signs of promise are. Wake up our leaders. They are not dead but asleep.

Deposits Needed. To the Editor of the Observer: Deposits are badly needed on the Charlotte and Salisbury railroads, in Berry township, and on the Carolina Central railroad, in Paw Creek township. The farmers of those sections are blocked by the miserable so-called public highways from reaching the markets. Will the railroads consider this matter and grant a section of country, locked by the Catawba on one side and mud on the other, an outlet?
