AN EXTRA SESSION.

It is very probable that an extra session of the Legislature will be called by Gov. Jarvis, to consider the sale of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad, of the President's message to various propositions for which were made some time ago by a New York company and accepted by the commissioners appointed by the Legislature. As it is desireable to settle the question of the sale so that work may begin without unnecessary delay. Should it be confirmed, we take it that the Legislature will be convened within the next two months.

The sale of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley road is not the only thing which will be submitted for consideration, but there will be others, and some of vital importance to the State. Prominent among these will be the question of the election of magistrates by the people, of the Hawaiian Islands. He also inand the repeal of the present system of county government. Both of these matters have been much discussed, especially within the past year, and the Republican managers have turned them to much account by misrepresenting the attitude of the Democratic party in relation to them. On the stump and through the press they have represented that in changing the mode of organizing the county courts and of electing | commerce of the Western States now the magistrates it was the purpose of the legislature to deprive the people, to this extent, of the right of suffrage, for the benefit of the few, as against the many. Of course they represent but one side, and are far less interested in making a truthful statement of the case than in making party capital by demagogical misrepresentation. They conceal the fact that in the change that was made the Legislature was actuated by a'desire to protect the people in the east ern portion of the State, especially, where the grossest mismanagement and corruption had previously prevailed, where unprincipled men backed by an ignorant and irresponsible following controlled the counties and indulged in all manner of lavishness. The people of the centre and the western portion of the State appreciating the motive accepted the condition of affairs, and freely surrendered their right of suffrage to this extent for the benefit of their eastern friends.

But since then so persistent has been the attack, and so unstinted the misrepresentation thereto, there has been much dissatisfaction engendered, and a disposition manifested to demand the return to them of the right to elect their magistrates and organize their county governments as they did previous to the change by the legislature. So general is this feeling represented to be in the centre and west that some action by the legislature is regarded as absolutely necessary. While we would deplore any action that would place the eastern counties at the mercy of the same class of men who ran riot over them in the dark days of Radical supremacy, we recognize the necessity of self, and adopting such measures as will foil the Radical leaders in their ef forts to capture the State, and thus place themselves in a position not only to repeal the acts alluded to, but to accomplish any other partisan legislation they may have in view. It is the opinion of many thinking and intelligent Democrats that, in the light of the developments of the past six months, we cannot afford to enter upon the next campaign with this as a distracting issue; that we must relieve ourselves from this burden or run the risk of losing heavily in the west, on the vote of which we rely to hold the State.

The programme of the Radical leaders is, as far as the indications go, to form such alliances as they may be able in certain counties to carry a majority of the legislature, and thus not only control the State, but also the choice of the Senator to succeed Senator Ransom, Dr. Mott having both eyes fixed in that direction and an ambitious hanker-• ing for Ransom's seat. The magistrate and county government question is one of the cards he counts on playing in his game if the Democrats don't play and draw his hand before he can get the lead and play the game himself. He plans well sometimes, but he must not be allowed to do all the planning, nor all the playing.

The Raleigh News-Observer mentions the names of Judges Moore, Buxton, Albertson, Faircloth, Russell and Seymour who are urged for the United States district judgeship for the eastern district of this State made vacant by the death of Judge Brooks.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER. NORTH CAROLINA OFFICE-SEEK-ERS TO THE FRONT.

The Advance Guard-Oxford Postoffice-The Jenkins-Cowles-Cooper Contest-Jonkins Leads-What the Revenue Marine Service is Doing-Postal Notes-Personal Items.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 9, 1882 .-All North Carolina appears to be here now or at least that portion of it that is represented by the Stalwart Republican element. The colony is mostly quartered at the National. Among those whom your correspondent has run across are Col. L. W. Humphrey, of run across are Col. L. W. Humphrey, of Goldsboro, Col. Deake, Asheville News, He expects his family this week. Mr. Judge Faircloth, of Goldsboro, H. C. Cowles, of Statesville, Marshal R. M. tional and has with him, besides his Douglas, J. J. Mott, T. N. Cooper, Jas. E. O'Hara, Col. D. McLindsey, Manley Miss Cordy Sluder. Senator Vance is Jones, of Oxford. J. W. Hardin, of Graham county, Col. Thos. B. Keogh, and D. A. Jenkins. Any fair afternoon him at the Tremont. the whole colony may be found at the National discussing the prospects of SENATE.—A, number of bills were introduced, among them, by Hill, of Georgia, one for the termination of the in contest. A fight has sprung up over the Ox-ford postoffice and right bitterly has it been waged. Dr. Taylor, the present incumbent, has withdrawn from the contest in favor of John G. Jones, who finds a strong opponent in Manly Jones. It is understood that John G. Jones is supported by ex-State Attorney General Hargrove, W. H. Young, C. M. Rogers, of Statesville, Chairman of Executive, Committee, H. B. Cozart and others. Manly Jones has petitions from many prominent citizens, and is backed by State Treasurer Jenkins and C. H. Hester. The fight has become so warm that First Assistant Postmaster General Hatton, has decided to withhold his decision until he hears further from the Republicans of Oxford as to their preferences. The matter will most likely be decided next week. While this fight is in progress in the down town department the Treasury is alive with North Carolinians who favor either H. C. Cowles, of Statesville, T. N. Cooper, or David A. Jenkins for Collector of the Sixth district. Mr. Cowles is supported by Marshal Douglass, Mr. Cooper by Mr. Hubbs, it is understood, and Mr. Jenkins by Col. Humphrey, and the majority of Republicans here. At the present writing it is be-lieved that Mr. Jenkins stands the best chance for the place. In reference to the contest in the 5th district in regard to Everitt and others, petitions are still pouring in and it will tled. While all these contests are in contemplation. Cannaday's term as Collector of Customs at Wilmington will expire the last of this month and already several candidates are in the field, prominent among them being the old collector and Mr. Pennypacker. The latter, it is stated, starts out with a strong support and may give Mr. Cannaday a tough fight for re-appointment. The report of the revenue marine service for the past year is just out, showing that last year property to the amount of $2,756,882.00 and 141 lives were saved by this agency. During the five years that this service has been in operation, property to the amount of $13,926,826 has been saved and 531 lives have been rescued. Ladies Still Eager to See the Show-The Prisoner Nervous---He Sends Greeting to the Ladies, and Thanks Them for Their Sympathy,-Two Checks from the Stalwarts-Scoville Resumes His Argument;

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.-When the court opened its 9th week of the Guiteau trial the crowd filled every nook and cranny of the cold room. Ladies were decidedly in the majority.

The prisoner arrived at the court house at 9.20, and was taken to his waiting room. He appeared rather nervous, and his condition indicated anxiety. When he had taken his seat in the dock he glanced around stealthily over the audience and immediately began a harangue evidently intended for the jury. I have received, he said, some eight hundred letters, a great many of them from ladies. When I get time I shall attend to them. I want to send my greeting to the ladies of America, and thank them for their sympathy. They full blast another one not yet ripe is in | don't want me to be hanged. Public opinion is fast changing.
