HOME CHIFFLETS.

Dr. T. C. Smith is having improvements made in his drug store. Claire Scott played Lady of Lyons at the opera house in Winston last night.

In Trouble.

The editor of the Laurinburg Enterprise seems to be in trouble, and offers a reward of fifty rabbit skins to anyone who can invent a remedy to prevent boys from talking.

In the treatment of such cases a good deal depends upon the kind of a boy we have to deal with.

For a small boy from two years, say up to ten or twelve, a tin horn acts like a charm. We have known a boy with a tin horn to speak for two hours on a stretch, and to strictly mind his own business and attend to his horn.

When the tin horn falls a plug about three inches in diameter driven in between the upper and lower teeth and securely wedged will prove pretty effective.

It is a little troublesome but will prove successful to dig a hole in the ground of sufficient dimensions, tumble the boy into it, cover him over with rocks and earth and then ornament the spot with fresh turf.

We have heard of tongue-tied boys, but we never saw one, and we don't believe there is any such thing.

If our friend finds it inconvenient to try any of the expedients which we suggest, he might trade his boys off for girls and discover after a little while that his boys didn't talk at all, and take back his rabbit skin reward.

Railroad Matters.

The articles of incorporation of another railroad were on Friday recorded at the office of the Secretary of State of West Virginia at Wheeling. It is known as the Cincinnati, Virginia and Carolina Railway Company, and is to have the following route:

From Wadesboro, Anson county, N. C., running through Anson, Stanley, Cabarrus, Rowan, Davie, Iredell, Wilkes and Ashe counties, in that State, through Grayson, Wythe and Tazewell counties, Va., entering West Virginia in McDowell or Mercer county, and thence through Wyoming, Logan, Lincoln and Kanawha counties to the city of Charleston.

The capital stock is $15,000,000, consisting of 150,000 shares of $100 each. The incorporators are Henry C. Hodgdon, Chas. G. Wilson, C. A. Burgess, Charles S. Williams, T. T. Underdonk and Thomas Alcock, of New York, and O. W. Wilnot, of Brooklyn.

The Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company Thursday opened bids for 3,000 shares of their stock, and awarded it to J. Harmanus Fisher & Son, of Baltimore, at $101.50 per share.

Holder of about $400,000 of the $571,000 of 7 per cent. gold bonds recently issued have accepted the offer of the company to exchange them for stock at par, the bonds to go in at $110. At the annual meeting November 22 it was decided to increase the capital stock not exceeding $200,000, to provide for building the Scotland Neck branch and for the company's proportion of sleeping car equipment for the Atlantic Coast line.

The most sanguine parental attention will frequently fail to prevent coughs, colds, croup, etc. Dr. Bull's cough syrup is a most valuable remedy for these ailments in other forms.

NATURE'S SLICE WAY. The kidneys are nature's sluice way to wash out the debris of our constantly changing bodies. If they do not work properly the trouble is felt everywhere.

Rev. W. J. Robinson, member of North G. C. Conference, says: Have taken S. S. S. for a clear case of Keene's eruption has disappeared and I am well.

Another Antiquity.

Ever since the notice was made of the seal in the office of the register of deeds of this county, the clerk of the Superior Court has had his spinal column elevated about the matter, claiming that he had the antiquity of the establishment, and the other day, in proof of the assertion, he button-holed the reporter and led him into the presence of what seemed at first glance to be an ice box or refrigerator, and before an inquiry could be made as to what it was and where it came from the information was given that in it were deposited the valuable papers, records and documents of the county.

After some inquiries as to the cause of the battered condition of one end of the concern, the clerk ordered his deputy to hand over the key, so that a view of the interior might be had. The deputy, after diving down into a wood box standing in one corner of the room, fished out a common hatchet and handed it over to the clerk, who solemnly informed the reporter that it was the key to the combination of the safe of the county of Mecklenburg, and in proof of this assertion that dignitary dealt two vigorous blows on the front of the safe, threw off the combination and opened the massive doors which are made of wooden pegs, and are inhabited by rats of all ages and sizes.

All efforts to gain information of the patentee of the safe were vain, as it is supposed he died long before the court house was thought of. The clerk is perfectly satisfied that the safe is all that could be desired, and that his papers and records are as secure in it as they would be in a common dry goods box.

Lawrence Barrett as Othello.

We regret that in consequence of the inclement weather last night but a small audience witnessed the performance as Othello by Lawrence Barrett, as our people missed the opportunity of witnessing some of the finest acting ever put upon these boards. There are but few of Shakespeare's plays that present as fine opportunities for acting as Othello where the condoling victim, the bold warrior, the ardent love and the jealous husband are all combined in one, and each part is a perfect character in itself.

There are but few actors who play Othello well, and Barrett is one of them. Endowed with a rich, full, well trained voice, which he has under complete control, with fine presence and graceful movement, he at once impresses the audience that they are looking upon and listening to a man of no ordinary genius.

His acting last night was good, superlatively good, and his reading strikingly fine, especially the scene at the couch before the killing of Desdemona. There is none of that strut nor stage rant about him, which sometimes spoils very clever acting.

The support was good, Iago filling the bill and sustaining the character well throughout, while Desdemona also played her part well. As a whole the play was well put upon the boards and well received.
