The Charlotte Observer.
WEDNESDAY, JAN. 11, 1882.
STATE NEWS.

Greensboro Messenger: A letter from Greensboro Friday evening, brought us the sad intelligence of the death of Professor Will Loftin Hargrave, for the last four years a resident of Snow Hill, who died in that town on Friday morning last, the 6th inst., after a protracted illness.

On Saturday last, while Mr. J. A. English was driving his dog, a bird dog, near Mount Olive, the dog brought to bay a deer, which Mr. English killed, using No. 8 shot. A good shot.

Greensboro Bugle: Mr. W. B. Steele, of this city, lost a cat on Saturday last, which was a few months over eighteen years of age.

Mr. Leitch, who has several times talked gas works to our people, is in the city again, for the purpose of operating gas works here if he can get any encouragement. We hope our city authorities and business generally will induce him to go to work at once.

The Presbyterian church has now 286 resident members, with some 20 more who are not residents of the city. There were 17 females and 14 males received into the church during the past year.

Alamance Gleaner: On last Saturday Thomas Handley, a young man who lives just south of the Chatham line, while felling trees in the woods, got in the way of a falling tree, and his head, crushing his skull and killing him instantly.

Southern Cotton Factories.
Philadelphia Enquirer.
The gratifying results which have followed the establishment of cotton factories in the South have been many times alluded to in these columns. The practice the experiments have proved even more successful than their advocates had reason to hope. The advantages any community will reap from a variety of industries as weighed against one is no longer a matter for argument. The importance of selling a manufactured article when possible rather than the raw material which enters into its makeup is not now questioned, for the greater the amount of hands and brain work that can be put into what is to be sold the greater the relative profit should be.

Work for Women.
Mr. L. J. Jennings, the London correspondent of the New York World, writes:
It is remarkable how many applicants of the gentler sex now come forward to seek for any kind of occupation that offers itself. A famous firm for the sale of artistic designs in house decoration told me the other day that they were overwhelmed with applications for employment from ladies who sent in proofs of their skill and ability, and that in a large proportion of cases the specimens thus forwarded showed more than an ordinary amount of talent. There is scarcely any department of business in which the same story would not have to be told, and when, as you doubtless heard long ago, the Drury Lane management advertised for one hundred pretty young ladies, the street was blocked up by the candidates. There was a time apparently when it was thought impossible for a girl or a woman to earn her own livelihood, but that has happily passed away, and it is no longer deemed inevitable that to be of the female sex involves dependence upon others. Women are engaged in public offices, and I believe it will be the opinion of all fair-minded men that they do their work well, and that it would be desirable to enlarge the field which is at present open to them. There are many fathers of families who do not see their way clear to making support for their families, and their children, and they would rather place their path to earn a little money honorably for themselves than have them utterly dependent upon others. If they do no in after life feel the means of support thus afforded to be so much the better, but no harm is done by placing it at their command. In this country it is quite certain that all women cannot get married, for they largely outnumber the men, and hence it is that employment is anxiously sought for.

State of our Export and Import Trade.
The bureau of statistics reports an excess of exports of merchandise over imports for the month ended November 30, 1881, of $13,906,430, against an excess for the same month last year of $28,800,226. The total value of exports for the month ended November 30, 1881, was $109,727,874, against $28,524,361 for the same period in 1880. The falling off in our exports of merchandise is best observed, however, in the figures for the five months ended with November. In the five months ended November 30, 1881, the excess of exported over imported merchandise was but $45,608,717, while for the like period in 1880 it was $110,195,231. The early months of 1881 were months of large export, so that when we include in our retrospect the eleven months ended November 30, the export for 1881 is found to exceed that for 1880 by over two millions and a quarter.

There were 160 deaths in Baltimore last week.

Dr. George W. Pape, a young physician of Baltimore, committed suicide on Saturday night by taking morphine.

Hon. John Pierpont, chief justice of the Supreme Court of Vermont, died Saturday afternoon at Vergennes, Vt., of apoplexy.

Hon. Edwin W. Stoughton, ex-United States minister to Russia, died at his residence, in New York city, on Saturday.

Richard Henry Dana, Jr., the distinguished Boston lawyer, died at Home on Saturday. He had been traveling in Europe for the last three years.

Daniel Hertz, an Augusta merchant, who has for several days past been held in New York as a fugitive from justice, was released from custody on Saturday and placed under bonds for $2,000.

Dr. J. G. Cabell, president of the board of health of Richmond, Va., makes an official report relative to the smallpox, from which it appears that there are seventy-two cases of smallpox, and twelve in the city hospital and twenty-six in the city proper.

Highwaymen attacked a mail stage between Tombstone and Bisbee, Arizona, on Friday, and after a running fight, in which rifle shots were freely exchanged between the Wells & Fargo's express messenger and the road agents, the express box containing $6,500 was captured. The passengers were not molested.

Thos. L. Rogers, vice-president of the California Railroad Company, has received a concession from the Mexican government for the construction of a railroad across the Isthmus of Tehuacan, a convenient point of junction with the Sonora Railroad to San Diego. The length of the proposed road will be nearly 400 miles.

Ex-Gov. J. D. Cox, the special master appointed by the United States Court to investigate the defalcations of Thos. Ambrose, late clerk of the United States Court in Cincinnati, Ohio, has made a report finding the total amount to be $39,766. The latest information concerning the whereabouts of Ambrose, who was absconded nearly two years ago, located him in Manitoba.

GOOD COFFEE.
Everybody wants it, but very few get it because most people do not know how to select coffee, or it is spoiled in the roasting or making. To obviate these difficulties has been our study. Thurbur's package Coffees are selected by an expert who understands the art of blending various flavors. They are roasted in the most perfect manner (it is impossible to roast with small quantities), then put in pound packages (in the best, not ground), bearing our signature as a guarantee of genuineness, and each package contains the Thurbur recipe for making good Coffee. We pack two kinds, Thurbur's "No. 34," strong and pungent, Thurbur's "No. 41," mild and rich. One or the other will suit every taste. They have the three great points, good quality, honest quantity, reasonable price. Ask your Grocer for Thurbur's roasted Coffees in pound packages, "No. 34" or "No. 41." Do not be put off with any other kind—your own palate will tell you what is best.
