Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains, Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases

but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by the use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzoin or Petroleum product that is kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is it never fails. It not only effects a permanent cure but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy it is in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes.

The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think:

Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says: I have been afflicted three years with neuralgia and violent rheumatism. The doctor at Westminster Hospital gave me case in case of neuralgia and I tried your PAIN KILLER and have regained my strength and am now able to follow my usual occupation.

George Saco, Me., writes: I experienced immediate relief from pain in the back and side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

E. York says: I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism and have received great benefit.

Barton Seaman says: I have used your PAIN KILLER for thirty years and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Mr. Burditt writes: I have used your PAIN KILLER in cases of rheumatism and have found it a never-failing remedy for rheumatism and lameness.

Phillip Gilbert, West, Pa., writes: From actual use, I know your PAIN KILLER is the best medicine I can use.

All druggists keep PAIN KILLER. Its price is so low that it is within the reach of all and it will save many times its cost in doctors' bills.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Mr. Alexander Stephens will be 70 years old on the 11th of February, 1882.

The Emperor of Prussia is 85 years old and wants a stronger government.

The value of property assessed for taxation in the United States in 1879-80 was $388,89 for every man, woman and child.

A very useful receipt for removing spots from furniture is, four ounces of vinegar, two ounces of sweet oil, and one ounce of turpentine. Mix well and apply with a flannel cloth.

The total value of real estate in New York city is $455,388,000, a gain of $18,013,500 over 1880. The value of personal property for 1880 was $202,062,400, for 1881, $219,130,000, or a gain of $8,067,000.

There is a Charles Ross case at Oconto, Wis., the kidnappers secreting a little son of Capt. Dickinson, and demanding $1,000. A search was at last accounts being made for the boy. The father, though wealthy and not penniless, positively refused to pay the blackmail.

The fast mail between New York and Washington was detained a few days ago by a novel cause. While running at full speed the bell rope was energetically pulled and the train stopped.

Postal regulations require an explanation of any delay of the fast mail, and it appears from the official correspondence on the subject, that one of two elephants in a car had amused himself by pulling at the rope.

The real estate valuation in Boston is $455,388,000—an increase of $18,000,000 in the last year. The personal property valuation is $202,062,400—an increase of $8,000,000. The whole taxable valuation is $657,450,000—a gain of 26,000,000, the largest gain observable for many years.

The increased value of real estate in the city attracts attention. It is said that the transactions in real estate last year were large, many capitalists disposing of stocks and bonds and investing in lands and buildings.

Railroad Building in North Carolina. Raleigh News and Observer.

There is a great fortune for N. Carolina. Her resources are numerous and boundless, and for the development of these resources the railroads are doing an important part.

Every new line constructed contributes largely to this development, and we believe the year 1882 will be a memorable year in this particular. Gov. Jarvis has ordered the State fair last fall, predicted that before the fair opened in 1882 more miles of railroad iron would be laid in the State than in any one year of her past history.

It began to look like his predictions were about to be verified. The Governor yesterday received the contract made by the commissioners with the New York and Southern Railroad and Telegraph Construction Company, for the purchase of the State stock in the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad, and for the completion of the road.

This contract is duly executed by the New York company, and the Governor has called a meeting of his council for Tuesday to consider it. That it will be approved we do not doubt. It is carefully drawn, and the State's interests are guarded at every point.

No one opposes, and everybody wants it adopted and the work is going ahead. Governor Jarvis' entire administration will be notable for the progress made in our internal improvements. It was while he was Governor that the Erie Railroad was pierced and the road carried across the mountains. Since then Asheville has been reached, and now Pigeon River and Warm Springs are substantially connected with the outer world. In a few months we have reason to believe that the road carrying the cars will be passing from Tennessee and Kentucky through Asheville to the east. The Lenoir and Chester Railroad is progressing slowly but surely. It is partly graded along the entire line to Lenoir, and it is promised that the cars will soon be running to Newton. The road entering the State from the Northwest is nearly completed from Johnson City to Cranberry. It is expected that the road will be completed this State.

The Wadesboro and Cheraw Railroad has been built; the Oxford road; the branch to Chapel Hill; the branch to Scotland Neck; the Norfolk and Edenton to the Jamesville and Washington; the narrow gauge to Lewisville; the Milton and Suberlin and the Wilmington and Tarboro are all completed, or will be shortly. In the extreme west the Marietta and North Georgia is rapidly approaching Murphy, while the Babun road, passing through the State City through Macon and Swain counties, is located and partly under contract, while Mr. Best's road is graded to Smithfield. Last year 140 miles were built in North Carolina. This year will probably be more. Truly, it would seem that Governor Jarvis' term as Governor will be known in history as a period notable for the development of our resources and rapid progress in our railroad improvement.

M. Gambetta's Resignation. Not to be behindhand in comparison with his rival at the head of the German empire, M. Gambetta has contemplated a crisis in French politics by announcing that he has decided to tender his resignation in case his proposal for the re-establishment of the scrutin-de-liste system is rejected by the Chamber of Deputies. There has been much grumbling in the party to which the premier belongs, and much criticism of his appointments. The coldness with which his advent to power has been received by his own adherents has been much remarked upon, and it has doubtless occurred to the ex-dictator that to make them feel the fear of losing their only degree of warmth, Gambetta can do without the party better than the party can do without Gambetta. He is a person who unites in his person the elements of character, name and fame, which, even apart from political office, render him in a special sense the prince of France. He is doubtless conscious of his power, and in order to show his lukewarm supporters that his leadership rests on something more than official station, he is anxious to bring matters to a crisis at once. To hold office with a vacillating and unfriendly majority, as other French ministers have been content to do, does not suit M. Gambetta. His position with regard to the Chamber of Deputies, however, differs from that of Prince Bismarck in relation to the Reichstag in a notable point, that in advocating a revision of the constitution M. Gambetta has the country at his back, while the Prince has to face a public almost universally hostile to his projects. That the Frenchman should choose the present moment for testing and defining his power may, in view of recent occurrences in Germany, be considered significant.

S. L. McBride, of McBride & Co., Crookery Merchants, Augusta, Ga., says: A good many of our customers after the best medical skill of the U. S. had failed.

Gen. Edward F. Newton, Newport, R. I., who fell down stairs at his residence on Monday night, died Wednesday morning. For many years he was a leading business man in Newport, and amassed a fortune. Commendable Industry. Monroe Enquirer.

We had intended several weeks ago to make mention of the commendable industry of a widow lady and her daughters, in Buford township, as evidenced by the information given us by a neighbor.

The lady in question, Mrs. Millie Nesbit, with the assistance of her two daughters, and less than ten days work of hired help, raised the past year her farm two crops, 150 bushels of corn, 43 bushels of wheat—and at threshing time had 15 bushels of old wheat on hand—good crop of oats and other products in proportion, and fattened the pig and the hogs for meat for the family this year.

A good example is here furnished by this industrious family that chronic grumblers over the hardships of life would do well to profit by.

The policeman fired, shooting him through the heart.

Track Laying on the Mexican National Railway. GALVESTON, Jan. 13.—The track of the Mexican National Railway is now completed to a point 25 miles west of Laredo. An excursion train went out on the 10th from Laredo to the end of the track. The excursionists numbered 200 including the mayor and several prominent officials of the road. At the present rate of track laying the road will reach Lampasas some time in April, where preparations for freight traffic are being made.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The second meeting of holders of North Carolina special tax bonds was held yesterday and a resolution was adopted expressing intention of the bond holders to invoke the power of the United States supreme court and to request this stage prosecute these claims under the law which allows it to maintain suit of a citizen against another State. A committee with power to employ counsel to push the claims was also appointed.
