THE INDEPENDENT MOVEMENT.

Our Washington correspondent in Sunday's issue furnished us some interesting information in reference to the independent movement now in progress in this State...

As far as Mahoning North Carolina is concerned that is a misnomer, for there is no foundation for such a move, the State debt not being a subject of discussion...

What then is the cause of complaint of these self-constituted leaders of the independent movement, that calls for a halt from, and a war upon the Democratic party...

That the Democratic party may have erred in some respects we will not deny, for the sake of argument we will admit it, and then ask has it erred so grievously that these gentlemen find reform impossible and absolute severance from it...

SCARCITY OF TEACHERS.

The Raleigh News and Observer says: The public schools of the county are now rapidly opening. There continues to be a great scarcity of teachers.

LOOKING TO THE LOVES—Schooner Captured and Eight Lives Lost.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 17.—From the danger of overflow from approaching high water Governor McEnery has issued a proclamation calling the attention of local authorities to the importance of making all needed repairs where public levees exist...

The Catlettsburg Fiends in Court.

CATLETTSBURG, Ky., Jan. 17.—The court convened at 9 o'clock this morning. Judge McGinnis, of West Virginia, sat on the bench with Judge Brown, Prisoner Neal on entering the court room appeared as collected as usual.

Why War Plasters?

They may relieve, but they can't cure that lame back, for the kidneys are the trouble and you want to get to the source of the trouble...

LEGISLATIVE METHODS.

The principal participants in the discussion of the repeal of the Arrangement of Pensions Act in the Senate Monday, were Messrs. Voorhees, of Indiana, and Beck, of Kentucky...

It is singular, very singular, taking Senator Beck's version of the passage of the bill as correct, that men entrusted with the high and responsible duties they are among the first men in the land in point of intellect and standing...

What the Readjuster Solons are Doing.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 17.—In the State Senate to-day the Riddleberger debt bill was amended in many particulars without changing the character of its provisions, and was then, without debate, ordered to engrossment and a third reading.

FEDERAL SOLONS.

THE SIXTH DISTRICT COMING TO THE FRONT.

Representative Armfield Asks for Information Which the Republicans Don't Care to Furnish—The Senators Discuss Briefly the Pension Arrangements Act—A Short Session and But Little Done in Either House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—HOUSE.—Armfield, of North Carolina, offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee of five members to inquire into and report concerning alleged abuses practiced by officers of internal revenue or other persons in the Sixth collection district of North Carolina...

Page, of California, offered an amendment to provide that the committees on improvement of the Mississippi river shall not have authority to report appropriations on that subject.

Orth offered as a substitute for the committee's report his amendment for election to begin next year with the duty of assigning the membership of committees. The motion was lost; yeas, 107, nays 140.

King, of Louisiana, moved to amend the report so as to increase the number of the improvement of the Mississippi river power to report appropriations on that subject.

Pending further action the speaker announced the adjournment of the House to to-morrow as unfinished business.

SENATE.—A number of petitions for a commission of inquiry concerning the alcoholic liquor trust for an increase of pay to members of the life saving service and by Plumb from citizens of Kansas for woman's suffrage were presented.

Davis, of West Virginia, from the committee on appropriations reported with amendments a bill to repeal certain laws relating to permanent and indefinite appropriations.

The President recommended the following nominations to the Senate to-day: Postmasters, John R. Wallace, Yorkville, S. C.; Oscar H. Leland, Waco, Texas.

Bill introduced by Davis, of Illinois, to permit Ward Hunt, associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States to retire.

By Blair, granting a pension to Lucia R. Garfield.

During the morning hour Beck resumed his remarks upon Ingalls' resolution declaring the Pension Arrangements Act not to be repealed.

The Senate at 4 o'clock, without closing the debate, went into executive session, and at 4:20 adjourned until to-morrow.

The Senate in session confirmed the following nominations: Thomas J. Scott, register of the Land office at Montgomery, Ala.; O. H. Seland, postmaster at Belmont, N. Y.; and a resolution requesting the President to communicate to the House all correspondence and communications between the government of the United States and diplomatic and other agents, occurring since the 1st of April, 1879...

The call of committees on naval affairs, re-Chili, Peru and Bolivia, and on other business, was taken up by the Secretary of the navy to transmit to the House all papers and correspondence in the department relative to the Chiriqui coal station and appropriations for the purchase thereof...

How Ordinary Mortals Become Giants when Touched up with the Magnifying Power of the Ingenious Newspaper Man.

We clip the following from the Washington Republican of Monday: Developments here in the past few days relating to North Carolina politics and politicians have carried democracy into the ranks of the Bourbon Democracy...

WITHIN THE PAST THREE OR FOUR DAYS Hon. Charles Price, former speaker of the lower house of the Legislature at Raleigh, and Col. Wm. Johnston, candidate for Governor against Vance in 1862, were the very ablest and most popular, and influential Democrats of North Carolina, have avowed to Republicans here their decision most liberally made, and final.

IN AN INTERVIEW WITH THE PRESIDENT on Friday last, both Col. Johnston and Mr. Price declared in most unmistakable language their decision and purpose to sever from the Bourbon Democracy, and to support the Democrats of Virginia have been, and are now doing, in that State.

THE INDEPENDENT DEMOCRACY, and their readiness for a union with the Republicans of their State for the overthrow of the Bourbon party. Even the Hon. J. M. Leach, who headed the Hancock electoral ticket, and who is unsurpassed as an orator in the whole State, only the other day said to a prominent North Carolina Republican that he intended to cast his vote for the next President of the United States, and added, significantly, "the next President will be a Republican."

JUDGE BUXTON, THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE for Governor (and elected, but counted out by Bourbon fraud) in 1880, and Col. Cooper, chairman of the Republican executive committee of North Carolina, said that when Col. Johnston's and Hon. Mr. Price's abandonment of Bourbon Democracy becomes known throughout the State great sensation will be produced.

THE PRESIDENT recommended the following nominations to the Senate to-day: Postmasters, John R. Wallace, Yorkville, S. C.; Oscar H. Leland, Waco, Texas.
