Rheumatism

Neuralgia, Sprains,

Pain in the Back and Side.

There is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by use of Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

This remedy is not a cheap Benzoin or Petroleum product that must be kept away from fire or heat to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good.

Pain Killer has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, it never fails. It not only affords a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously.

Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced.

The record of cures by the use of PAIN

KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what others who have tried it think.

Edgar Gady, Owatonna, Minn., says:

"About a year since my wife became subject to severe suffering from rheumatism. Our recourse was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily restored her to health. I know your PAIN

KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

Charles Powell writes from the Sailors'

Home, London:

"I had been attacked three years with neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. I tried your PAIN KILLER, and I gave it immediate relief. I know your PAIN

KILLER is the best medicine I can get.

G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes:

"I have been suffering from rheumatism in the side by the use of your PAIN KILLER.

I have used your PAIN KILLER for thirty years, and have found it a most reliable remedy for rheumatism and headache.

Phil. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes:

"I have used your PAIN KILLER for thirty years,

STATE NEWS.

Grensboro Bugle: Collector Everett is in the city, and wears a smile which is uncomfortable to the brethren who are after his place.

Collector Everett to-day sold the wagons, horses and brandy mentioned a few days ago. The stock and wagons went low, but the brandy brought from $1.50 to $1.70 per gallon.

The medical board met last night and urged the city to take more vigorous steps towards the speedy vaccination of the people. Several of the physicians are out of virus, and yet small-pox is spreading all over the United States.

Kernersville News: We learn from good authority that a case of small-pox has broken out in Mocksville, Davie county.

Some miles from Friendship, Ives an old lady by the name of Sarah Jessup, who remembers distinctly having seen

Gen. George Washington. He passed her father's house, and she, a little girl gave him water. Until two years ago, she could read and speak English.

Wilson advance: The town commissioners at a meeting held Friday night voted to give $150 to the Wilson graded school.

The new Missionary Baptist Church in Rocky Mount will be dedicated January 29th.

We understand that it is rumored in the adjoining section of country that there are several cases of small-pox in Wilson. The fact is that there is not, nor has there, any case of small-pox in Wilson in a number of years.

Raleigh News and Observer: Owing to the apprehension of small-pox, the board of health advise that there be no visiting at the Insane Asylum among the patients, for the present, for should the disease be carried there, the patients could not be removed.

A monument over the grave of Dr.

Fabius J. Haywood, at Oakwood cemetery, has been completed. It is of bronze granite, fourteen feet high, and is almost precisely the same as the monument, save that it has no urn and drapery on top. It is one of the handsomest monuments in the cemetery.

POVERTY AND DISEASE.

A Mother Suffering with Small-pox

Lying Between Dead Children.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Jan. 20.—A sad case of poverty and sickness was brought to light this morning in the upper part of Second street. At No.

363 of that street is a frame tenement house sheltering four families. In the basement is a family named Williams.

The father, who was a shoemaker, died last week of small-pox, leaving a wife and seven children. The mother, who is a widow, and when Deputy Sullivan came to fumigate the house she insisted that the bed, the only one in the room, should be left in the morning the Deputy Health Inspector visited the place and found the mother lying on a heap of rags and carpets and covered with the pustules of small-pox.

On her right was the dead body of her little girl, and on her left that of her little boy. In a corner of the room was sitting a little fellow on whose face were the shadows of death, while headlong close to the cold stove were the remains of children. The mother, the deputy at once lighted a fire and sent for food for the unfortunate family at the same time telegraphing for the ambulance to remove them to the hospital. The two dead children will be buried to-day at the expense of the city.

Quarantined Against Small Pox.

Baltimore Sun.

The city of Newbern, N. C., has quarantined against small pox, and has established regulations of precaution against passengers both by water and land. The proclamation of the Mayor of the City Council says that small pox prevails in cities and places to the north of Newbern. A yellow flag station is established on the Neuse river three miles below Newbern, where a health officer will inspect all steamers, etc., for which service the vessels will each be required to pay him a fee of $5. Every train on the North Carolina Midland Railway is to be stopped at a station a mile out of Newbern, and the railroad is to pay $2 to the health officer for each train. The Clyde line between Baltimore and Newbern runs three steamers, and a copy of this action of the authorities was received yesterday at the company's office in this city.
