LIGHT.

The following exquisite poem, by William Pitt Fanning...

From the quickened womb of the primal gloom, The sun rolled black and bare...

I painted the flowers of the Eden bowers, And their leaves of living green...

When the waves that burst o'er a world accursed, Had fastened its mortal spell...

Like a pall at rest on a senseless breast, Night's funeral shadow slept...

As the rose in the garden of kings; At the ahrasyls tier of the worm I appear...

The desolate moon, like a mourner forlorn, Conceals all the pride of her chariot...

And the young day to her arms; And when the gay rover seeks Eve for his lover...

From my sentinel steep by the night brooded deep I gaze with unumbering eye...

When the cyprus star of the martiner Is blotted from out the sky...

I waken the flowers in their dew-sprangled bowers, And mountain and plain glow with beauty again...

As they bask in their maternal presence to earth, Though furl and fletting the while...

From my sentinel steep by the night brooded deep I gaze with unumbering eye...

When the cyprus star of the martiner Is blotted from out the sky...

I waken the flowers in their dew-sprangled bowers, And mountain and plain glow with beauty again...

As they bask in their maternal presence to earth, Though furl and fletting the while...

From my sentinel steep by the night brooded deep I gaze with unumbering eye...

When the cyprus star of the martiner Is blotted from out the sky...

I waken the flowers in their dew-sprangled bowers, And mountain and plain glow with beauty again...

News Notes.

A convention of the colored men of Georgia is soon to meet in Macon.

A spoke factory has been established at Hickory Grove, Prince William county, Va.

The widow of the late Hon. Wm. C. Rives died at her residence in Albemarle county, Va., on Monday, aged 80 years.

Dr. Love has been arrested in Calhoun county, W. Va., charged with bigamy.

There was a heated debate in the German Reichstag over the imperial rescript.

Charles Jeremias, a baker, of Newark, N. J., was found early yesterday morning in the street frozen to death.

John C. Knox, formerly a judge of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, is now an insane pauper in an asylum at Norristown.

The board of health of Richmond, Va., reports only two deaths from small-pox in that city last week.

Because of some doubt as to the legality of the former election of United States Senators Wilson and McMillan, both of the Iowa Legislature yesterday ratified their previous action by another formal ballot.

Fifteen editors of newspapers in Vienna were summoned before the police authorities yesterday and informed that no publication must be made concerning the movement of troops.

Lord-Lieutenant Cowper, replying to a deputation of the Dublin corporation today, said he regretted that under existing circumstances it would be impossible to release the members of Parliament now confined as suspects.

All the prisoners in the jail at El Paso, Texas, with one exception escaped, on Monday night, by digging through the fireplace of the building.

Mrs. Wallace, who resides in Trenton, N. Y., went to see her husband, who is employed in a bakery in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Monday.

The President will within the next two weeks send in a large majority of the important nominations now claiming his attention.

Secretary Hunt contemplates giving the officers of the navy who have been cruising in the Mediterranean during the last three years an opportunity of serving their country on the South Atlantic station.

EXTRA SESSION. Laurenco and battery," said a New York democrats as to the expediency of calling an extra session of the Legislature of this State.

The next Legislature of North Carolina will be anti-Bourbon and Republican.

work, it would be advisable for an extra session to be called to do that the districts will be so divided as to strengthen the republican party, and give the odd congressman to the republicans.

The opposition to an extra session, we think, comes from the class of democrats who never, under any circumstances, apprehend the triumph of the republican party in the State.

It is well to recognize that there is in North Carolina a condition of Unrest, and disorganization, which forbids an effective use of the machinery of the party of complaint.

When a party is in the flush of success, it is possible to punish the last whimper of complaint.

But the democratic party of to-day needs milder measures to keep its men in line.

There are in the ranks, thousands of young men in the ranks, who are true to the party to the South, and to Democratic principles, but who are not specially loyal to the caucus method of four or five years past.

These young men have no sympathy with prices who desert the party to secure office; but at the same time they are in a frame of mind which will not stand the crack of the whip!

WHAT A SCENE! Milton Chronicle: What a scene!

that must have been in Washington city: "Kernel" Johnston, of Charlotte, N. C.

(a standing candidate for years for every office that came along, and never getting anything), and the Hon. "Mal Price, of Salisbury, on their all-fours in the White House, renouncing their democracy and begging President Arthur to take them in out of the cold!

Poor fellows! they want fat offices, and they can't get them.

THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER says the trouble with Southern independents is that they are all dependents.

Yes, half an hour from the conference has been depending on the Democracy for office until he has grown grey, but finding no oats he is trying to break into the Radical stable.

Well, let him and Price go, with or without a prize, and if there be any more such customers in the Democratic party trot 'em out! Away with all such patriots!

Tammany Firm. ALBANY, Jan. 26.—The Democratic assembly caucus met this morning; Mr. Brooks, on behalf of the conference committee, reported that the committee has held a caucus, and that the committee again last night and had found them determined in the stand they had taken.

The report was accepted and the committee discharged.

Coffee drinkers should read the advertisement in another column headed "Good Coffee."

Fire at Lancaster, Pa.

LANCASTER, PA., Jan. 26.—The most destructive fire that ever visited city started early this morning in the storing depot of the Enquirer publishing Co's building on north Green street.

The fire quickly spread through the entire building and it was completely destroyed. The loss on the building and contents estimated $100,000.

MY GOOD WOMAN. Why are you so out of sorts, never able to tell folks that you are well? Ten to one it's all caused in the first place by habitual constipation, which no doubt finally caused deranged kidneys and liver. The sure cure for constipation is the celebrated Kidney-Wort. It is also a specific remedy for all kidney and liver diseases. Thousands are cured by its every month. Try it at once.—Toledo Blade.
