Mr. Scoville Getting Weary of His Case--A Pathetic Appeal to the Public

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.--The motion for the new trial in Guiteau's case made last Saturday by Mr. Scoville, has been fixed by Judge Cox for hearing next Friday.

AN APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC

Mr. Scoville has addressed an appeal to the American people, asking for money to continue the struggle to save the prisoner from the gallows, whom he considers to be an insane man.

ONE DAY'S MAIL

In a cheerless little back room at the Tremont Hotel, with no fire, and but a little light, Mr. Scoville was found late this afternoon, seated in front of a small table (placed against the only window in the room), upon which were piled several hundred letters addressed to Guiteau.

The Sines of Siberia

While Central America is presenting its claims as a mineral-bearing country, it gives a better impression of the liberal distribution of gold and silver to learn that in the far north, the mines of desolate Siberia are reported to be as rich as those of America.

Judge Brooks and the Kirk Prisoners. Raleigh News and Observer.

YANCEYVILLE, N. C., Jan. 24, 1882. I see in your last issue you stated that Gen. Mr. Ransom was made application to Judge Brooks in behalf of the Kirk prisoners (that is correct) After Gov. Bragg, Gov. Graham, Judge Battle, Judge Merrimon and Judge Battle, the judiciary being exhausted and the officer authorized to serve the same having been arrested and made a prisoner by Kirk, then it was that he should have recourse to me in consultation with Gen. Ransom and other persons, Gen. Ransom then applied in person to Judge Brooks and obtained the writs for the prisoners.

Yours respectfully, J. C. GRIFFITH.
