

LeRoy Davidson Smoking Tobacco, statement of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

The popular verdicts generally the right one; and concerning Dr. Bull's cough syrup the people have long since decided that it is the best cough remedy ever introduced.

HOME CHIPLETS.

Mr. James Gamble, the water works contractor, is in the city for the first time since the contract was placed.

Mrs. Joshua Trotter, an aged lady of this city, who has been very sick for some time, was thought to be somewhat better yesterday evening.

At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Thursday night it was decided by resolution to have an annual dinner on the 14th inst.

Mr. D. Reeves, who will be remembered as the caterer of the Central hotel in this city some time ago, has been engaged to take charge of the dining rooms and catering of the Charlotte Hotel.

A portion of our telegraphic market reports failed to reach the office last night, which accounts for their absence from our columns this morning. If they were sent out the messenger failed to deliver them at this office.

An additional lot of pipe for the water works has been received, and will be put in at once. A small amount of the 12-inch pipe is still required before enough will be on hand to complete the lines.

McSmith says Oliver Doud Byron's was the first company for which he has sold tickets sufficient to exhaust the supply. He was engaged in manufacturing them yesterday evening as they were needed.

Charlotte is fast gaining the reputation of being the most expensive place within the State in which to live. Rents and all necessities of life are out of all proportions to what the laboring man can earn.

The other day the blow-pipe at the dam of the city water works, carrying an 8-inch stream, was thrown open and left open for the space of twenty-six hours. The flow during that time lowered the water in the dam a little over four inches.

At the Mayor's court yesterday morning Messrs. Tobe Morrow and Henry Leeder were up for an affray Friday night. Morrow was fined $5 and cost, while Leeder was required to pay $2.50 and costs. One plain drunk was disposed of by fine.

The weather for the last fourteen months has been decidedly "spellish," last winter giving us the longest period of bitter cold weather that the present generation has ever seen, which was followed in the summer by a long drought, and now we are having what might be called a rainy spell. A fact which puts the small boy on an equal footing with the oldest weather liar in the country.

Mr. R. Chambers, the liveryman, has recently received from Philadelphia a new omnibus which is a perfect gem, being decidedly the handsomest and most complete we have ever seen. The interior is of plain oil finish, and the upholstery is very fine. Non-rattlers are attached to the windows, and in front is a locked far box in which passengers can deposit fare, while the driver on his seat can inspect each deposit before it goes into the chest.

Meeting of Trustees. We are requested to announce that there will be a meeting of the township board of trustees for Charlotte township, at the court house, at 3 o'clock this evening, for the purpose of discussing the condition of the public roads in this township. A failure to attend the meeting is a misdemeanor under the law, and this fact ought to bring out every member.

Killing Fish. It is asserted that parties on the Catawba river have been in the habit of placing dynamite cartridges in that stream and exploding them for the purpose of catching fish. Aside from this being an indictable offense, it is a most reprehensible practice, as the small fish, which are unfit for use, are destroyed with the larger ones, and this course, if pursued, will soon exhaust the fish in that stream.

The Taylor Manufacturing Company. The Baltimore Sun of Thursday has the following in relation to the Taylor Manufacturing Company, a branch house of which concern is located in this city: "Mr. Taylor, representing the Taylor Manufacturing Company of Westminster, Md., was in Chambersburg, Pa., on Tuesday, where he held a consultation with the executive committee of the business men's organization, and offered to remove the Taylor Engine and Locomotive Works to Chambersburg, provided $75,000 is taken in stock. The executive committee go to Westminster to-morrow to look into the matter, and it seems probable that Mr. Taylor's offer will be accepted. The Taylor Manufacturing Company employs 125 men, with a pay-roll of $6,000 a month. The removal is occasioned, it is stated, by the insufficiency of the present accommodations and by the distance of the works from the railroad."

Library Association. The Tryon Street Library association held a meeting last night, at which a reorganization was had, and officers elected for the ensuing term.

An article was inserted in the constitution requiring the payment of an initiation fee of 25 cents for each male member, and fixing the monthly dues for such members at 10 cents. No fees required of lady members. Old members will be required to pay the initiation fee as well as new.

In view of the fact that there has on several occasions been unbecoming conduct in the unoccupied portions of the basement of the church, it was deemed advisable to elect a doorkeeper who, with two assistants, will be required to suppress anything of the kind in the future. If this method fails we would suggest that perhaps a resort to police interference would have the desired effect, as there can be no excuse whatever for parties interfering with the meetings, and those doing so are entitled to no consideration in the method resorted to to suppress it.

The only exercises last night were a recitation by Miss Mamie Byerly and a reading by Miss Julia McLaughlin, both of which were well rendered.

Not True.

The rumor that the waiting room at the Air-Line depot in this city is to be abolished, mention of which was made in yesterday's OBSERVER, is not true, as we are informed by an official that nothing of the kind has been thought of. The feasibility of a removal across the railroad has been considered, but nothing definite has as yet been decided upon. The object in stating that the rumor was prevalent was to get a denial, if false.

"Across the Continent."

This sensational drama was given last night by Oliver D. Byron and his company to what might be considered a large audience, considering the rain and mud. Our readers who are in the habit of attending the opera house are familiar with the play, hence an extended notice is useless. It can well be said that Byron is the attraction of the play, which, in other hands, would long since have passed from the boards.

Drowning in Rocky River.

Last Wednesday John Young, colored, aged about sixty years, was drowned at Lippe's mill, on Rocky river. Young attempted to cross the pond in a boat, but the river was swollen to such an extent that he was drawn toward the dam and soon lost control of the boat, when he jumped into the water and was swept over into the pool below. Just as he arose after passing over the dam the boat came over also and struck him on the head, either killing him or rendering him unable to take care of himself. The body was recovered Thursday, having been in the water over night. Young was a blacksmith by trade, and our informant says that he bore a good character.

Candlemas.

Thursday was Candlemas, connected with which is the tradition that good weather on that day indicates a long continuation of winter, but if the weather be foul an early spring is assured. A popular Scottish rhyme reads: "If Candlemas Day be dry and fair, the half of winter's to come and mair; if Candlemas Day be wet and foul, the half of winter's gone at yule." In Germany there are two proverbs of the people: "The shepherd would rather see the wolf enter his stable on Candlemas Day than the sun." Thursday was mostly cloudy in this section, from which, if the tradition holds good, it is to be supposed the length of the winter hereabouts will be about "so long." That was the day on which the ground hog is supposed to come out of his hole, and if the sun is not shining takes his winter walk, indicating by this that the winter will be short. If the ground hog has any existence in this country outside of the minds of those who are familiar with this old and popular tradition, it is to be supposed he took a walk Thursday.

Relief Needed.

It is to be hoped that the road supervisors, if they are gotten together today, will be able to suggest some plan by which relief can be had in the matter of bad roads. The man who will suggest and carry out a plan by which the city of Charlotte will be made accessible to the citizens of the surrounding country at all seasons of the year will accomplish much towards placing his name in the list of the benefactors. Farmers can not afford to haul wood over such roads as those leading to Charlotte, and this is the prime cause of the extravagant prices asked for wood in this market as soon as the winter season opens. The same rule will apply to all supplies that are to be hauled from the country, and in this way the effect is felt directly by every citizen of the place, and more especially by the laboring class. The streets in Charlotte are muddy, but a trip in the country just now will almost convince a man that we are having dry weather in town.

The Mutual of New York.

The annual statement of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York, appears in another column. There is always a dignity and straightforwardness about the reports of this company that carry conviction. Being the largest and strongest company in the world perhaps it can better afford to give the simple figures without any attempt at distortion. Its assets now are reported to amount to $94,702,957 90—and its surplus is given at more than $12,000,000. Last year it paid to policy holders, or their representatives, $12,640,112, a sum exceeding the capital of half the life companies in the country. The Mutual's low rates and safe terms, with its long and honorable career, have inspired public confidence, and given it a pre-eminence unequalled. The company is mutual in fact as well as in name, and every policy holder has a voice in the management. The past record of this great institution is a sufficient guaranty for the future.

Neighborhood Notes.

—The Concord Sun says Cabarrus farmers will not plant cotton extensively this year.

—Last Thursday the members of the Poplar Tent fair association held a meeting at which Chas. McDonald, Esq., delivered an address on "advanced ideas of agriculture and the undeveloped resources of our country," which will likely be circulated among the farmers of the community.

—Concord has organized an amateur dramatic company which will shortly give an entertainment.

—The dogs in the Poplar Tent neighborhood have been taken to a little cold poison by some unknown person, and the mortality has been all that could be desired.

—Mr. Daniel Fisher, of Concord, has a cow from which 280 pounds of butter was made last year.

—A little daughter of Mr. Jos. H. Young, of Concord, recently had one of her fingers painfully mutilated by a toy pistol.

Takes the Oath.

Mr. W. H. Brown, of Dewese township, yesterday brought to THE OBSERVER office the boss turnip, and if any newspaper man undertakes to beat it he must do so with affidavits. The turnip weighs ten pounds less one ounce, and is the most perfect in shape we have ever seen. A fact in connection with it is that the seed from which it was grown are native seed, and can be traced back for 20 years. This statement is made for the purpose of showing that large turnips can be produced from home seed as easily as from imported.
