OBSERVATIONS

If a man knew as much about himself as he does about his neighbor...

When a child cannot answer a question he never says "Oh, don't bother me now, I'm busy."

Master Tommy (he had been very naughty and was now amusing himself with his scribbled prints) "Here's Daniel in the lions' den?"

If the good die young, how do you account for bald-headed editors?

A scientist claims to have discovered a kind of wasp that doesn't sting.

Satisfactory evidence: It was half past ten o'clock Sunday night...

Trydall's theory that heat is simply motion in another form, must be true.

Don't sleep in a draught. Don't go to bed with cold feet.

Don't eat what you do not need just to save it. Don't try to get cool too quickly after exercising.

Don't sleep with insecure false teeth in your mouth. Don't start the day's work without a good breakfast.

Don't sleep in a room without ventilation of some kind. Don't stuff a cold lest you be next obliged to starve a fever.

Don't try to get along without flannel underclothing in winter. Don't use your voice for loud speaking or singing when you are tired.

Don't try to get along with less than eight or nine hours sleep. Don't sleep in the same undergarments you wear during the day.

Don't lounge about, feel by the fire, but try sunlight and fresh air. Don't neglect to have at least one movement of the bowels each day.

Don't try to keep up on coffee and alcohol when you ought to go to bed. Don't drink ice water by the glass; take it in sips, a swallow at a time.

Don't eat snow to quench thirst; it brings on inflammation of the throat. Don't strain your eyes by reading or working with insufficient or flickering light.

Don't use the eyes for reading or fine work in the twilight of evening or early morn. Don't try to lengthen your days by cutting short your night's rest; it is poor economy.

Don't wear close, heavy fur or rubber caps or hats if your hair is thin or falls out easily. Don't eat anything between meals excepting fruit or a glass of hot milk if you feel faint.

Don't take some other person's medicine because you are troubled somewhat as they were.

Conking is said to earn $100,000 a year by his profession.

Clarkson N. Potter's seven brothers were his pall-bearers.

There are in Congress eight Irishmen, four Scotchmen, five Englishmen and three Germans.

James Weriz, the man who dug Aaron Burr's grave, is still living in Princeton.

The Cleveland fund for the Garfield monument is not quite $100,000, and seems to stick there.

A Kansas tailor, as a mark of appreciation, is making a suit of clothes for each of the Guitauers.

During the three months of last fall the British consumed 38,000,000 American bivalves, and didn't have enough.

A contract has been awarded at Montreal for tunneling the St. Lawrence, at a cost of $3,500,000, the work to be completed within four years.

W. B. Hughes, the oldest member of the English house of commons, is 84, and the youngest, James Dickson, is 23.

On the 15th of the coming month Miss Susan B. Anthony will have attained the comfortable old age of 62 years.

A quack physician of Pittsfield, Massachusetts, takes his medicine for all diseases from a bottle labelled: "Water from the tree of life." With this he makes the sign of the cross on patients. He has numerous patients.

A wicked man has been getting a dollar a piece from the simple-minded farmers by sending them through the mail, for one dollar a "recipe" to prevent pumps from freezing on cold nights. The answer to the farmers' letter was: "Take them in doors over night." Some sheep really do seem to have been made to be sheared.

It is asserted that the nutritiousness of apples has never been properly appreciated, and that they are far more nutritious than potatoes. Cornish workmen say they can work better on baked apples than on potatoes.

There is a dish in Cornwall called squab-pie, made of mutton with slices of potato, apple and onion, and strange as it may seem to many, it is excellent. Cornwall is the country for meat pies, as the miners carry their dinners with them in that form.

Here are some of the dividends declared by English cotton mills: Moorfield, 7 1/2 per cent.; Albert, 10 per cent.; Twist, 10 per cent.; Oak, 15 per cent.; Parkside, 13 per cent. Spinning Mills, 13 per cent. Sun Mill Spinning Mills, 12 per cent.; Royton Spinning Company, 20 per cent.

A magnificent four story rectory for St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York, is about to be erected at a cost of $78,000. The plans have been filed with the building department.

The rectory is of white marble, and located at the north-west corner of Madison avenue and Fifty-first street.

The style of architecture will be in harmony with that of the great church of which it is to be so sense an adjunct.

Tried to Shoot Himself. NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 6.—Henri Derrouse, nineteen years old, the youngest of three brothers, now under sentence of five years imprisonment for killing E. C. Mix, Jr., tried to kill himself last night in the parish prison by shooting himself with a pistol which he had managed to obtain. The wound is not considered dangerous.

PRESS COMMENTS

WE CAN'T SEE WHY. Gastonia Gazette. Col. Wm. Johnston, of Charlotte seems to have made some political prominence in Washington a few days ago.

Col. Wm. Johnston has published a card in the Concord Sun, denying the charges that he sought office at the hands of the President, that he said the Democrats have repudiated and that the Republicans have no confidence in him.

STATE NEWS

Piedmont Press: Whooping cough is still in Hickory. The various schools of the town seem to be in a flourishing condition.

A little three-year old son of Mr. P. L. Little had its left forefinger cut entirely off with an axe by an older sister last Saturday. The finger was stitched back again, and it is thought can be saved.

A young man named Goge was arrested a few days ago near Bakersville for stealing $2,200 from his uncle, Mr. Jas. Whitehead, of Carter county, Tenn. He had only one dollar on his person when arrested, but direct evidence stands against him as a guilty person. There was a reward of $200 for him and one of $700 for the delivery of the money.

Why Mr. Seay Gives. Interview in New York Tribune. I feel that I am a trustee, responsible for the right use of the money given me. With the experience that I have, I believe that I am the person best qualified to carry out the provisions and duties of the trust.

Popular discrimination in favor of Dr. Bull's cough syrup has given it a larger sale than any other remedy of its class. Price 25c.

"BOUGH ON BATS." The thing desired found here. Ask druggist for Bough on Bats. It clears out rats, mice, posches, flies, bed-bugs, 15c boxes.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Rev. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman: "We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine for infants, but of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, giving an infant troubled with teething, quiet sleep and a healthy countenance."

The Horrible Murder in Newborn. Mr. Joseph M. Agostini, whose murder in Newborn on Monday night last was mentioned in our telegraphic columns yesterday, was a brother of Mr. F. M. Agostini, Sr., of this city.

Particular Notice. All the drawings will hereafter be under the exclusive supervision and control of GENERAL S. G. P. BEAL, CHARLOTTE, N. C., & S. B. EARLY, NEW ORLEANS, LA.
