Horrible and Barbarous Treatment of an Unfortunate People. The minute accounts published in London of the persecution of the Hebrews in Russia cannot fail to excite the compassion and indignation of the English-speaking world. The Pall Mail Gazette has given startling emphasis to the meager references made in the officially revised dispatches from St. Petersburg to the riotous disturbances of the last nine months, and its scathing invectives are fully justified by the details furnished by a correspondent of the Times (London) It is a most hideous record of rapine, lust and inhumanity. If the Turkish butchers in Bulgaria were more bloodthirsty and barbarous, the Russian mobs are every whit as cruel and debased, swayed as they have been by a passionate hatred of the Jews which is distinctively medieval in spirit. Moreover the authorities have not only been wholly supine as the Turkish government, but they have openly abetted and officially justi-fied these hateful and frenzied outbreaks of savagery and fanaticism. The signal for these atrocities was given South Russia, where the Jewish com-munity formed at least a third of the population, a mob, having sacked a wine soldiers who were called out to suppress the revolt joining heartily in the work of destruction, pillage and lust. As many as one hundred shops and warehouses and five hundred houses were demolished, the losses of the victims being estimated at $1,500,000. This was the first outbreak. It was followed in a week by riots in Smielo and Kieff, where the troops and police again sup-ported the mob, participating fully in this double assault on property and virtue. At Kieff the attack was deliberately announced in advance, and when the governor was called upon to pro-tect twenty thousand Hebrew residents of the city, he refused to give his soldiers any trouble "for a pack of Jews."
The consequence was that two thousand of the hated race were left without shelter, and in the sight of husbands and fathers married women and young girls were made the victims of the most brutal assaults. From this time until the end of the year there was scarcely a town in southern and southwestern Russia where similar scenes were not enacted. As many as one hundred and sixty villages and towns were at different times during WHY ARE WE SICK? | eight months at the mercy of a besorted rabble. The frenzy spread from town to country until it reached the e'tiest hamlet where there was a singla Jew with a little ready money to lend. It finally flamed out in the ancient capital during Christmas week, when an alarm of fire was raised simultaneously in two synagogues, and a thousand houses and shops were plun-dered and destroyed. Space will not permit us to illustrate adequately the cruelties and indignities to which these wretched victims of persecution were exposed, much less to catalogue the horrors by naming the places and reck-oning the losses in life and property that were sustained. Many of the inidents are heartrending and revolting. We read of a heartless mob breaking into a house, and finding neither Jewesses nor treasure in the empty rooms, sullenly wreaking its disappointment on a baby, which is hurled out of a window and falls dead at the feet of a platoon of Cossacks. Then follows a recital of an attack upon a Jewis con-

Education in Virginia Wilmington Star.

Virginia expends more money for educational purposes than any of the wisdom and shows a true appreciation

"The leaders, Funder and Readjuster,

mond Advocate says:

Southern States. In this she acts with JEW-BAITING IN RUSSIA. of the situation. At this time there is $600,000 in the State Treasury. It is thought that much of this will be distributed among the schools. The Rich-in the Legislature are now bidding against each other as the 'friends of popular education.' The lavish appropriations to school the 'dear children of the people' will astonish plain folks. A mere incidental item of four hundred thousand dollars was tossed, the other day, into the free school revenue."

We would like to see political parties in North Carolina begin to "bid against each other as the friends of popular education." Unfortunately there is too much likelihood of an opposite course. When you talk of increasing the school fund the demagogue begins at once to talk of the "dear people," and to declare that the party that dares to raise the taxes any higher will go down. If the opposing parties would only rally around the banner of educational progress and rival each other in their well directed zeal for popular elevation, there would indeed be a good time coming. The Advocate says that in Virginia "both political parties are on their metal as champions of the public schools." Why may not this be the a few weeks after the assassination of schools." Why may not this be the the czar. At Elizabethgard, a town in case in North Carolina? We carry the mag of illiteracy—lead in the class of ignorance; why then may not all men of all parties unite in demanding libeshop and become inflamed with liquor, attacked the synagogue. For forty-eight hours the rioters remained in possession of the Jewish quarter, the in our State as popular education with out money. The funds must be raised or illiteracy must continue to abound How shall the money be raised? We see it mentioned that the Virginia Legislature has determined to appropriate $100,000 to erect a normal school for the negroes in Southside Virginia. It is thought that two for whites will be established at other points. These are to be fitted up in excellent style as to building, apparatus, furniture, &c. All this is very encouraging. We would be glad indeed to know that North Carolina aspirants for political honors appreciated the educational situation fully, and, without reference to party, were willing to lead or co-operate, heart, soul, body, mind and pocket in the great work of instructing and elevating the ignorant masses of the State.

> Wilmington Star. As one pretty good off-set to the repeated efforts emenating from interest-ed sources, and calculated and intended, no doubt, to injure our port, were informed at the Custom House yesterday that $08,51456 had thus far been collected for the seven months

Its Comparison with Other Ports, commencing with the fiscal year that began on the 30th of June, and that the indications now are that the amount will reach $100,000 by the end of the fiscal year. And while on this subject we have thought that a little comparison may not show to the disadvantage of our port. We are informed that the collections at the Wilmington Custom House last year footed up $74,754.56; those at Norfolk and Portsmouth combined, for the same period, $49,153.30, and at Charleston $98,730.11. And the per centage for collections at the same ports was as follows: At Charleston, $24.32 out of every $100; at Norfolk and Portsmouth, $34.26; and at Wilmington, $26.72. In this connection it should be stated that Wilmington's proportion of expenses, as given above, includes the operations of the Smithville Station, which require one inspector and three boatmen, who are expected to patrol the district from Little River, S. C., to Swansboro', N. C., a distance of one hundred and forty miles, thus in-volving trouble and expense unknown to the other places mentioned. We learn from the official reports, from which the above facts are gleaned, that there are 127 Collection Districts in the United States, in 70 of which it costs more to make the collections than at Wilmington, and in 56 of which less expense is involved, the latter including the largest cities, such as New York, where the collections amount to the immense sum $139,579,562.83, and where the percentage for collection amounts only to the insignificant sum of $1.84

Colored people are debarred from suing under the fifteenth amendment for damages unless they can prove citizenship. The court holds that there is nothing in the civil rights bill or in the nature of the subject crebill or in the nature of the subject creating a presumption that Congress intended to legislate in favor of aliens, and that the word "citizens" in this as Two perfumery cases, bought for a well as in other public statutes indicated that it is only actionable for persons to deny rights of accommodation to citizens only, and that, therefore, to entitle a person to recover he must allege

I had been sick and miserable so long and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense, no one seemed to know what alled me, that I was completely disheartened and discouraged. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them unknown to my family. I soon began to improve and gained so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unnatural; but when I told them what had helped me, they said, "Hurrah for Hop Bitters! long may they prosper, for they have made mother well and us happy."—
