THE COTTON MILL ROOM.

An Enterprise to be started in Greenville—The Huguenot Mills.

A meeting of a number of citizens interested in the establishment of a plant factory was held in Greenville on Friday last.

The following are the names of the subscribers: A. McBee, Sr., H. Beattie, T. Q. Donaldson, C. H. Lanneau, Geo. Putnam, Wm. Thomas, J. C. Smith, W. L. Mauldin and John Ferguson.

The exact location of the factory is not yet settled upon, but it will certainly be upon the river.

This, says the Greenville News, will be the first factory in our city which will manufacture colored cloth, and the only one of its kind in the State.

The Orangeburg Times of the 9th says: "Mr. Cornelison has obtained the right of way for the purpose of constructing aqueducts from the branch at Sunny Side to convey water to his factory."

Not Quite Satisfactory. Raleigh News and Observer.

Dr. Mott's expenditures last year, running from June 30, 1880, to June 30, 1881, and covering the period of the election canvass, were $26,551 greater than they were the year before.

HIGH TRAGEDY.

Gold, pulsing fragment of the long ago, sits there and gazes at the river through scolding years!

Who, gazing at that by-browed and panic-stricken features, now would ere sunrise they profess in the days ago!

Misguided relic of an era past when men were muscled like an aged hen, and brave men fought with cheese knives long and well.

They may believe, but they can't cure that lame back for the kidneys are the trouble and you want a remedy to act directly on their secretions.

A Down Town Merchant. Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Kidney Pills were the article needed.

Why Wear Plasters? They may believe, but they can't cure that lame back for the kidneys are the trouble and you want a remedy to act directly on their secretions.
