STATE NEWS.

Greensboro has peach trees in full bloom.

Asheboro Courier: The Gazette tells us that the Burnside mine is proving a poor one.

Our poor house has 24 inmates and still they come.

The Franklinville manufacturing company will add new improvements during the coming spring. The demand for its justly celebrated "seamless bags" makes this necessary.

Newberne News: Mr. Hector McLean, superintendent of construction on the Midland extension, was in the city yesterday, and states that track laying begins on the line between Goldsboro and Smithfield next week, and be pushed rapidly to completion. The work would have begun this week, but for the wet condition of the road bed.

Laurinburg Enterprise: On Thursday evening last revenue officer J. Speers, with two assistants, pounced upon an up-country wagon, stopping in the grove near our office, and seized the wagon, a horse and a mule and three-barrels of unstamped whisky. The owners, or the men in charge of the team, made their escape.

Winston Sentinel: High water it is thought did some damage to wheat in the low lands the past week.

The attention of some of the residents near the reservoir was attracted on Tuesday by a number of buzzards in the hollow east of Reservoir street and upon looking for the cause, it was discovered that a white infant had disappeared. On the Sunday after, Terrell was called to visit Mrs. Snipe by the name of Crutchfield at Nat. Snipe's and upon examination he told her she had recently given birth to a child which she stoutly denied. A jury of inquest has been summoned and will investigate the matter.

Collector Geo. B. Everett seems to be in hot water all the time. Surely "easy rests the head that wears a Collector's crown." Another petition is being circulated through the country praying for his removal. It suggests no name as a successor and offers a reason for the dissolution of the "right place" which should be attributed to some staunch republican who has stood to the ranks of the party when clouds were dark and threatening. The "outs" are jealous of the "ins" and this is the whole secret of the matter.

Wilmington Star: The Shallotte section of Braddock county is said to be considerably affected over winter bear which is represented to be roaming the woods in that locality and seeking what it may devour. It enters the yards of people and is creating no little consternation in some instances. It is generally believed to have escaped from some show.
